During the reception many messages of congratulation were wired to Mr. and Mrs. Grolund. Mr. Grolund, a native of Finland and his parents still reside in a fine old university and cathedral town in that duchy. He himself came to this country equipped with a wide knowledge of the languages of northern Europe and found a demand for his services as interpreter in connection with immigration. In Halifax he joined the Methodist church, and later became a candidate for the ministry. Afterward he took a complete arts course at Mount Allison. Mr. Grolund is now an ordained minister and has been stationed at Wolfville, whither he and his wife will proceed after their return from their bridal tour. This trip will be rather extensive. Mr. and Mrs. Grolund are going to Montreal, and thence by the Labrador. After reaching England they will proceed to Stockholm. They propose to visit various parts of Norway and Sweden, to go north on the Baltic as far as there are regular sailings, to visit the chief places of interest in Finland, and afterwards to journey to St. Petersburg and make their way back through middle Europe to Great Britain.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. H. Murray, Main street, and on the streets of J. E. McCoy.]

June 22.—The month of roses has not been living up to her reputation lately, at least in Moncton, and fine days have been very "rare" indeed, much more so than we could have wished, if we had been consulted.

Sunday was cool, Monday was cooler, and yesterday a fine wind had been a luxury if the grates had not been stored in the attics, so that their owners were compelled to rely on the warmth of their own hearts to prevent them from catching a chill. And yet the exodus to Shediac and other summer resorts continues with unabated vigor and by the end of this month it is unlikely that any except the "middle classes" will remain in town, and a much better time those same middle class individuals will have than the upper ten who prefer the discomforts and the expense of a summer holiday to the comforts of home in Moncton.

All the probabilities seem to indicate a very quiet summer, without even a peep of excitement to break the monotony, and after the constant round of excitement we had last summer, with one nearly every week, this seems a dreary prospect.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Morrison regret to hear that he is seriously ill.

The news of the death of Mrs. Samuel Raymond of Springfield, the mother of Dr. G. H. Raymond of Sussex, was received with deep regret by all who knew this estimable lady. She had been ill but a short time and passed away on Tuesday morning, June 21st, at her home in the city.

The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Dr. and Mrs. Raymond in their sad bereavement.

Dr. S. F. Wilson of St. John, was in town on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Blair have migrated to Shediac for the summer and are staying at the Weidon house.

Summer trips seem to be gaining popularity among Moncton people several heads of families having started on picnics to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones left last week Thursday to spend two weeks in travelling by easy stages, in the United States, and the upper provinces. They intend visiting Niagara Falls, Albany, Toronto, Montreal, Boston and New York, and they will doubtless enjoy a delightful holiday, as June is a ideal month for a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Stevens, and Master Harry Stevens left last week for an extended tour of Canada and the United States, to be absent until September.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris are still absent in New England States, and I have heard rumors of still other departures.

Mrs. H. A. Borden, and Miss Sadie Borden, returned last week from their long visit to Boston.

Mr. C. H. McLean, of the St. John branch of the Bank of Montreal, who has been on duty in Moncton for the last two months, was summoned back to St. John last week, and left town on Saturday to resume his duties in St. John.

Mr. McLean made many friends in Moncton, and his short stay in Moncton who will regret his departure sincerely. He took great interest in all athletic sports and will be especially missed in the athletic world of which he was an active member.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean's Moncton friends will look forward to their return at some future time.

The many Moncton friends of Mrs. Thomas Milledge of St. John, who has been a frequent visitor to Moncton, will be sorry to hear that she met with a very severe accident lately at St. John; slipping on the floor and injuring her knee and ankle so seriously that she will be confined to her room for some time, bless them!

Miss Campbell returned on Saturday from a three weeks visit to St. John.

Mr. D. C. Sullivan returned last week from his trip to the south. I am glad to say that his health is greatly improved.

Mr. F. W. Sumner, who has been so seriously ill, has sufficiently recovered to be about the house again, and will be able to be out in a day or two.

I am sorry to say that Mrs. J. N. Benedict, who is spending the summer at Shediac, has been quite ill again; but at the last account she is slightly better.

Mr. L. L. Miller, who has been suffering from a serious attack of erysipelas, is much better.

Mrs. John Mcweeney, of Westmorland, who has been spending some weeks in the city, returned home last week.

Mrs. R. W. Thorne, of St. John, is visiting her daughter, Mr. J. S. Thorne, of Alma street.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Wallace of Truro, paid a short visit to Moncton last week.

Moncton people are feeling rather elated over the success of a Moncton girl at a competitive examination at Concord, New Hampshire, last week. The young lady is Miss New Hampshire, last week. The examination was for the position of a graduate of the New Hampshire Asylum Training school, and carried off the highest honors of the class, after a course of two years study. It is one thing to give a good answer, but it is another to give a good reason to feel proud of it, it is undoubtedly our girls, and we are proud of them too, bless them!

Mr. A. B. Bray, of the post office, returned last week from a two weeks vacation spent at his home at Hopewell Cape.

Miss Annie Cook left town yesterday for Windsor where she will spend a fortnight visiting friends.

Mr. Will Cooke was in town for a short time on Monday en route for Kingston, Ontario, to be present at the closing festivities of Kingston military college of which he is a graduate.

Mrs. Bliss Ward is spending a few weeks in Shediac visiting friends.

SUSSEX.

[Progress is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Boal and Geo. D. Martin.]

June 22.—An event, to which many are looking forward to, is a parlor concert on Thursday evening under auspices of the young ladies' guild. It will be held at Mr. W. B. McKay's handsome residence, which has been very kindly given for the occasion.

The date of the annual county rifle competition has been changed from October to June, and the match is arranged to take place on the new range today, but the weather is very unfavorable for such an event.

Military preparations are going on apace, and already the camp grounds look quite habitable. On Saturday the first detachment of troops, the I. S. corps, will arrive, and on Sunday a special service will be held for them in Holy Trinity at half past nine.

Mr. Fred Wedderburn, of Hampton, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Nellie Ryan, who has been studying nursing during the past year in the Newton cottage hospital, is spending her holidays in New Brunswick, and is at present the guest of Mrs. Geo. Dobson.

Mrs. Carr left last week for Halifax, where she intends spending the summer.
