

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Dec. 28.—The reception given to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thompson, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, on Friday evening last, was a most pleasant affair. Their pretty home was gay with bright colored lights and decorations of holly. The supper table, which was loaded with dainties, fairly glistened with the bright red berries, the effect being very beautiful. There were present 75 guests, St. Stephen as well as Calais being well represented. The ladies all looked exceedingly elegant in their rich winter toilets of velvet and silk. Mrs. Thompson received her guests in a stylish costume of black silk, with trimmings of corn colored embroidered chiffon. She was literally showered with silver gifts, some of which were very handsome and costly. The following is a description of them: Mr. John Murchie, silver jardiniere. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Todd, silver framed mirror. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Todd, silver bon bon dish and tongs. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. James (N. Y. city), elegant silver candleabra. Dr. and Mrs. Seymour, silver letter holder. Mr. S. S. Pineo, half dozen silver and pearl knives. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bradford, (Eastport), silver sugar bowl and spoon. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy, silver fish dish. Mr. and Mrs. Sears, china biscuit jar. Dr. and Mrs. Black, silver framed mirror. Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, (Portland, Me.), Portland souvenir spoon. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clapp, china salad dish. Mr. W. A. Murchie, silver jelly dish. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McAllister, perfume bottles. Mr. and Mrs. Irving McAllister, silver thimble. Mr. Howard Black, belique cream pitcher. Mrs. Sullivan Hall, silver coffee spoons. Mrs. Foster, coffee spoons. Miss McGilchey, pink silk emerald drapery. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, silver fruit knife and spoon. Mr. Chas. Lyford, Stanley ware cake dish. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Whitlock and Mr. J. T. Whitlock, elegant silver fruit dish. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boardman, silver berry dish and spoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rideout, silver spoon. Mrs. A. J. Hall, (Florida) souvenir spoon. Mr. George Todd, Calais souvenir spoon. Mr. and Mrs. D. Simpson, silver salt and pepper bottles. Dr. and Mrs. Blair, silver perfume stand. Mr. and Mrs. George Lord, silver sugar tongs. Mrs. Mordy, (N. J. City), solid silver pie knife. Capt. F. A. Prince, (N. J. City), solid silver cake basket. Messrs F. W. Andrews and Mark Mills, gold and silver fruit dish. Mr. and Mrs. S. Murchie, silver pie knife. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Saunders, silver salt cellars. Mr. and Mrs. A. MacNichol, solid silver sugar spoon. Mrs. Chas. E. Cook, silver jelly spoon. Mrs. S. H. Blair, silver coffee spoons. Miss Mary Abbott, silver orange spoon. Miss Haycock, silver salad fork. Mrs. C. L. Davis, half a dozen silver coffee spoons. Mr. N. J. Adams, silver ice cream spoons. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Neill, silver card case. Miss Jessie Gallagher, glass fruit dish. Mrs. W. F. Todd, solid silver orange spoons. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cozle, (Portland Me.) solid silver berry spoon. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham, silver card receiver. Mr. James Murchie, elegant silver cake basket. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dexter, case of silver fruit knives. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Todd, silver thermometer. Mr. and Mrs. Ledge Wabler, silver orange spoons. Mr. and Mrs. M. Cone, case of silver tea spoons. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gore, (St. Andrews) silver ink stand. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Chipman, half dozen solid silver spoons. Lady friends of Calais, handsome marble clock. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cole, bronze statue for clock. On Monday evening Mrs. Thompson again opened her residence to some 80 young people who enjoyed drive whist. This party was made for the amusement of her son, Mr. J. L. Thompson, who has lately returned from college, and his friends. It was a very pleasant entertainment and greatly enjoyed by all who were there. Mr. Chas. T. Copeland's friends welcomed him back to Calais again this week. Mr. J. B. Gillespie, of St. John, has been enjoying a few days in town. Mrs. Duncan Stewart, and Mrs. B. Shorten made a brief visit to St. John on Thursday. The ladies of the congregational society gave a reception last evening (Tuesday) to their pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. McCully on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They were presented with numerous gifts in silver, and a purse containing a hundred dollars. It was a most delightful affair and was most thoroughly enjoyed by all who were there. Miss Kate Washburn gave a Christmas tree on Friday evening last to a number of children, who greatly enjoyed it, as well as the treat and fun that came afterwards. Mr. George Todd's handsome residence in Milltown, was destroyed by fire on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Todd had only been home three hours when the fire was discovered, having returned from St. John where they spent Christmas day. Miss Louie Taylor has gone to Sussex and will play a violin solo at a concert given there to-night. She will also visit Moncton, and will make her first appearance before a Moncton audience to-morrow evening. The Knights of Pythias, in Milltown presented Dr. J. M. Deacon, on the occasion of his marriage, with a handsome gold headed cane. Miss Kate Nelson, Miss Dora Rounds and Miss Alice Todd, who attend Wellesley college, are home for a brief visit. Mrs. Goucher and her children have been Mrs. C. B. Eaton's guests during the past week. Mr. Henry Maxwell, of Rumford Falls, Maine, is home for a brief holiday. Mrs. Charles King, has returned from St. John, and has opened her residence on Main street, Calais and will remain for some time. Miss Theo Stevens has returned from Sackville, N. S., and will spend two weeks here. Hon. Chas. McCulloch leaves for Augusta, Me., on Monday next. Mr. L. A. Mills made a brief visit to St. Andrews on Tuesday. Miss Carrie Washburne is spending the winter with friends in Calais, Mass. Mr. Henry Nichols, of Colby College, is at home, and his friend Mr. Kiehlans is his guest during this week. Mr. John McKenzie arrived from Rumford Falls, Maine, on Sunday morning and will remain a few days in town. Messrs. George and Fred MacNichol returned from Cambridge, Mass., on Thursday last. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer and their children went to St. Andrews on Saturday to spend Christmas day with Mrs. Grimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gore. MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Book Store, Main street, and on the streets by J. E. McCoy.]

Dec. 28.—The services in the churches last Sunday, were of the usual Christmas character, with the exception of the Central Methodist, in which the service was scarcely up to the usual high musical standard, owing to the unfinished state of the edifice, which is being prepared for the new organ this week, and, under the circumstances, it was impossible, either to decorate the church, or have an elaborate service. The music at St. John's Presbyterian Church was of a very high order, and the choral evening at St. George's under the direction of Mrs. George Daniel, the organist, was really as fine a service as could be heard in many city churches. I cannot forbear speaking of the banners and frontals of St. George's Church, which are the work of Mrs. George Daniel, and represent white lilies painted on a dark green ground. The painting is exquisitely done, the flowers seeming to stand out in bold relief from the background. Two large banners, one bearing a cross of lilies, and the other the lilies growing on the stem; the frontal for the reading desk, bearing a Maltese cross, twined with the same flowers, and the pulpit frontal, are all the work of this talented lady. Some once familiar faces were to be seen in town on Sunday and Monday, many of those who are no longer residents of Moncton, having returned to spend the two holidays with their friends. Mr. A. E. Taylor, of the Bank of Montreal, in Halifax, was amongst the number, and received a warm welcome from his old friends. Mr. John F. Grant, now of the Chatham branch of the Bank of Montreal, but for some years of Moncton, was another welcome guest in town. Mr. E. A. Record, of Boston, accompanied by Mrs. Record and sons, is spending the holiday season with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Ryan, of St. John, spent Christmas with Mrs. Ryan's mother, Mrs. William Weldon of Main street. Mr. Thomas Wran, of St. John, spent Sunday and Monday at his home in Moncton. Mr. M. Rogers, of the Northern Pacific Railway, St. Paul, and Mr. W. Rogers, of Spencer, Trask & Co., Boston, sons of the late Mr. O. K. Rogers, are spending a few days in town, visiting their mother. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson and daughter, spent Christmas at Mrs. Hewson's home in Dorchester. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beddome and daughters, spent the holiday season in St. John visiting friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Marnie also spent Christmas in St. John, visiting Mrs. Marnie's mother, Mrs. R. W. Thorne. Mr. F. Crandall, of New York, is being warmly welcomed by his Moncton friends. Mr. Crandall is paying a short holiday visit to his parents. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McCully spent Christmas with relatives in Sussex. Mr. A. E. Wilkinson, of the I. C. R., spent Sunday and Monday at his home in Chatham. Miss Milliken, Miss Gallaher, and Miss Newman, returned on Friday, from Memramcook where they have been attending the classes at the Convent of the Sacred Heart; to spend their holidays. Miss Borden, returned on Thursday, from Mount Allison ladies' academy, to spend a two weeks vacation. Dr. F. W. Moore, of the Bank of Montreal, spent last Sunday and Monday at his home in Halifax. Miss Lillian Burt, one of the most popular young teachers on the Moncton staff left town on Friday evening, for her home in Fredericton to spend the Christmas vacation. She does not intend returning, having been obliged to resign her position, on account of her health, which the too arduous work of her school room has seriously impaired. Miss Burt was presented by the pupils of her department with a valuable token of their esteem, on the eve of her departure. Christmas eve was marked by a very pleasant event which showed the affectionate esteem in which Mr. Whitney, the retiring Mechanical Superintendent of the I. C. R., is held by his late subordinates. The tribute offered him took the form of a presentation, followed by a complimentary dinner, which was given in his honor at the Brunswick Hotel by a number of the I. C. R. employees, chiefly the engine drivers. Shortly after tea on Saturday evening a committee representing the mechanical department of the I. C. R. called on Mr. Whitney at his residence and presented him with a handsome gold headed cane and an address engrossed and framed. Accompanying the cane was a very beautiful silver coffee set and a pair of opera glasses to be presented with the donors' kind regards, to Mrs. Whitney. The cane bears the following inscription: "To H. A. Whitney, late Mechanical Superintendent of the I. C. R., from the employees of the Mechanical Department, I. C. R., Moncton, December 29, 1892." The address was read by Mr. McHaffie and the presentations made by Mr. Speer. Mr. Whitney was deeply touched by such an evidence of regard, and responded feelingly, thanking his visitors on the part of Mrs. Whitney and himself. After refreshments had been served and a pleasant hour spent the committee retired, and later in the evening met again around the well spread tables of the Brunswick. Mr. G. R. Sangster presided, and was supported by a goodly number of well known railway men. Mrs. M. G. Ketchum, of Amherst is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. I. W. Binney. Mr. George V. McInerney, M. P. for Kent and Mrs. McInerney paid a short visit to Moncton last week. Mrs. Milner, has returned from her visit to Sackville and will spend the winter with her daughter Mrs. I. W. Binney. Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Ross, returned on Monday evening from Truro, where they spent Christmas with friends. Mr. Stubbing of the Bank of Montreal, spent Sunday and Monday at his home in Halifax. Dr. and Mrs. Bliss of Amherst, and Mrs. A. B. Atkinson of Sackville, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nickerson of Coverdale. Mr. J. A. McBean's Moncton friends are glad to see him again. Mr. McBean has made his home in Chicago for the past year, and is spending a Christmas vacation with relatives in Moncton. Miss Perce of Richibucto is spending a few days in town visiting friends. Mrs. Samuel McKean entertained the Whist Club on Friday evening. A brief reference was made in this column last week to the death of Mrs. John Galt, sr., who was for some years a resident of Moncton. Mrs. Galt was the daughter of Mr. Daniel Lizars of the firm of Lizars and Son, publishers and engravers in the city of Edinburgh. She was born in the year 1821 at Orcharls, Renfrew, Scotland, at the home of her grandfather, Daniel Hutchison, and was educated in Edinburgh. In 1833 her parents removed to Canada, settling in Goderich, Ontario, where, in 1840, Miss Lizars was married to John Galt, eldest son of the well known novelist and writer, John Galt of Goderich. Mrs. Galt was left a widow while still a very young woman, and shortly after her husband's death she removed to Guelph, and afterwards to Stratford, Ontario. From thence in 1884 she came to Moncton, where she resided with her children for some years, frequently visiting her relatives in Ontario, and two years ago she decided to make her home in Fredericton, where she lived with her daughters until her death. Mrs. Galt was a woman of rare charm, and refinement of manner, keeping up the accomplishments of her youth to a degree rarely met with in a lady of her age. She was an excellent musician, a charming conversationalist, and one whom it was impossible to know at all without loving, while her gracious sweetness could not fail to impress those who met her for the first time. She was the embodiment of a lady of the old school, which alas, is too rapidly growing extinct. The deepest sympathy is expressed for the Misses Galt in their irreparable loss. Cecil Gwynne.
