MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. H. Murray, Main street, and on the streets by J. E. McCoy.]

July 13.—The heat of the past few days has been so intense that the most enterprising mind seems capable of but one idea—how to keep cool. The thermometer oscillates buoyantly between 90 and 92 degrees in the shade, and in the sun it simply ascends out of sight. Think of it, oh citizens of St. John! Draw long breaths of bracing sea air into your lungs, gaze fondly upon the rippling waters of your harbor, and then think of your neighbors in the railway hub, toiling patiently over their asphalt pavements, which are not only blistering, but smothering, extracting each breath with painful effort from the clinging mass and all too thankful that they did not sink deeper in the lukewarm bog; by the way, it only requires a very slight effort—very long to imagine oneself treading gingerly over the crushed portions of the celebrated brick lake in Barbours, when walking on the Moncton sidewalk.

Notwithstanding the great heat the streets were literally packed with spectators long before the hour appointed for the commencement of the race. The start was delayed fully an hour beyond the time appointed for starting, on account of the lateness of the north train, was well worth waiting for, being one of the most magnificent ever seen in the city. The members of the different lodges presented a most attractive and imposing appearance in their brilliant regalia, carrying handsome banners, and accompanied by several military bands. Owing to the heat the order of the procession was changed and greatly shortened, a most successful and successful race. The start was made at 10 o'clock, and the race was over in less than five minutes. The contest was between amateur nines from St. John and Moncton, resulting in a victory for St. John, who were carrying the banner of the "Cyclone" and the prize was a gold medal.

A very sad incident of the day and one which was calculated to cast a gloom over the proceedings, was the sudden death of Mr. James Hunter, who was taken ill during the procession at Ouellet park, and starting to return home he fell from a most immediately after leaving the grounds. Death was caused by apoplexy, which was doubtless brought on by the unusual exertion, the great heat. Mr. Hunter was a machinist in the I. C. R. shops and 60 years of age. He leaves a widow and a son and daughter, who have the deepest sympathy for the entire community in their sudden bereavement.

Amongst the visitors were Josiah Wood, M. P., and several other members of the Legislature.

Mrs. Ernest Given appeared in St. George's church on Sunday and looked very handsome indeed. She wore a close fitting dress of blue and white, and a close fitting hat of the same color. Her hair was dressed in the latest fashion. Mrs. Given is receiving this week, assisted by Miss Miliken.

Mr. Thomson, of Geneva, New York, is spending some weeks with his sister, Mrs. C. J. Butcher. The numerous friends Miss Thomson made during her last residence in Moncton are glad to have her with them again.

Miss Whitney and Miss Lucy Whitney returned last week from Boston, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mr. J. R. Malcolm, formerly of the chief superintendent's office, I. C. R., but now in charge of the New Brunswick railway, in the United States, is spending his summer vacation in Moncton and being warmly welcomed by his many friends after an absence of several years.

Capt. Masters and Dr. Doherty returned on Thursday from a fishing expedition to Tweedie's Brook, where they were successful in catching a number of trout. The catch was in all in proportion to the amount of sunburn which they bear upon their faces, and they must be lying on their backs beneath the burden of what is popularly termed "sunny spots."

Mrs. Willett, of Cornwallis, has been visiting her son, Mr. George B. Willett, returned home last week.

Miss Minnie Charters, who is a student of the Philadelphia Medical College, is spending the summer vacation at her home in Moncton. Miss Charters is the first lady student of medicine that has ever produced in Moncton, and she is naturally proud of her; she intends taking the regular course both of medicine and surgery, and then devoting her attention to some special line as a post-graduate course.

Miss McMarrie, of Montreal, is spending a few weeks at her home in Moncton, and her Moncton friends are delighted to welcome her back.

The excursion to "The Rocks" last Thursday was a very great success, the large number of people who took part in it, and the delightful day.

Mr. George H. Haun, travelling passenger agent of the I. C. R., accompanied by Mrs. Haun and Mrs. Haun, returned to Moncton on Friday morning to spend a few days.

The annual picnic of St. George's church Sunday school is to be held on Saturday at Point du Chene and no doubt a large number who have passed their Sunday school days will take advantage of the cheap train and spend a day at the seaside.
