J. W. Allen - - - - - Dartmouth, N. S. June 1 .- On Wednesday, the first of June, at St Stephen's church (the bishop's chapel), the marriage took place of Major E. J. Bor, royal engineers, and Miss Katharine Morrow, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Robert Morrow and Mrs. Morrow of Bircham, Halifax. The ceremony was performed

Bircham, Halifax. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. M. Webster, rector of St. Stephen's, assisted by the Rev. F. N. Norman-Lee, chaplain to H. M. forces. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Geoffrey Morrow, was attired in white satin duchesse, made very simply and trimmed round the skirt, long train and short bodice with thick ruches of ostrich feathers. The square collar was also trimmed with ostrich feathers, and a small half wreath of orange blossoms was worn in the hair covered with a plain tulle veil. The only jewels worn by the bride was a diamond and sapphire necklet, the gift of the bridegroom, and a diamond bangle. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanthi tied with ribbons.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Anna and Reta Stairs. Their dresses were of pale cowslip-yellow silk, with sashes of vivid apple-green surah; their plain skirts had delicate ruchings of the two colors mingled, and their hats were of cowslip open work straw, trimmed with the same delicately brilliant green as the dresses, and with quantities of cowslips. The bouquets carried by the bridesmaids were of yellow carnations and pale green ferns. They wore gold necklaces, the gift of the bridegroom. Col. Dudley North, C. S. O., was best man, the ushers were, Mr. Marsh, R. A., Mr. H. Stairs, and Mr. H. T. Jones. The service was fully choral, the mingled choirs of St. Stephen's church and the Garrison chapel met the bride at the church door, where she passed through a guard of honor formed by men of the Royal Engineers, and preceded her up the aisle. After the ceremony a reception was held at Bircham, the residence of the bride's mother, and later in the afternoon the bride and bridegroom drove to Bedford, from which place they took the train for Boston. The bride's travelling dress consisted of brown Harris tweed, brown hat with tiny rosettes of orange bebe ribbon, tan ling dress consisted of brown Harris tweed, brown ling dress consisted of brown Harris tweed, brown hat with tiny rosettes of orange bebe libbon, tan shoes and gloves. The guests consisted only of the family connections of the bride, and of the brother officers and friends of the groom.

Among Miss Morrow's presents were some cheques amounting to the sum of some fifteen hundred dollars. Many of her more valuable presents especially in silver, did not arrive from England in time for the wedding. Among the presents was a great quantity of beautiful silver, dishes, bowls, fern bowls, cream jug, claret jugs, bonboniéres, spoons, salt cellars, sardine dishes, muffineers, salvers, fish knives and forks, silver toilet sets, calendar, cardcase and so on throughout muffineers, salvers, fish knives and forks, silver toilet sets, calendar, cardcase and so on throughout a multitudinous list. There was much very pretty china, and other pretty things with a comparatively small proportion of jewelry. Amont the guests were the Lieut. Governor, Mrs. and Miss Daly, Hon. W. J. and Mrs. Stairs, Hon A. G. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Troop; Mr. T. S. Kenney, M. P., Mrs. and the Misses Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. James Morow, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. F. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Jones, Mrs. John Stairs, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Stairs, Mr. I. F. Stairs M. P., Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Jones, Mrs. John Scairs, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Stairs, Mr. I. F. Stairs M. P., and Miss Stairs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wiseman Stairs, Mr. and Mrs. G. Stairs, Coionel and Mrs. Ryan, Colonel Saunders, Lieut.-Colonel Hill, Major and Mrs. Maycock, Captain and Mrs. Alexander, Rev. F. N. and Mrs. Norman Lee, Mr. and Mrs. George Franklyn, Captain and Mrs. Maloney, Dr. and Mrs. Barefoot, Colonel Hill and officers R. E., Colonel Ryan and officers R. A., Rev. F. M. Webster, Major and Mrs. Waldron, Mr. George Esson, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Duffus, Mrs. James Duffus, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stairs-Duffus, Mr. and Mrs. George Stairs, Mr. C. Macdonald, Mrs. James Morrow, Dr. and Mrs. Read, Mr. Henry, Mr. E. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stayner, Mr. Gilbert Troop, the Misses Troop, Miss Hilda Stairs, Mr. and Mrs. John Duffus, Captain Duffus, R. A., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Troop, Miss Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, etc. Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Stairs, Mr. I. F. Stairs M. P.,

There were some very pretty dresses worn at this wedding. The mother of the bride wore black with much light jet and lace.

Mrs. Geoffrey Morrow looked extremely well in a tailor made gown of fawn colored cloth with a corselet bodice of nut-brown velvet, and a small brown

Mrs. James Stairs was in gray cloth with an exceedingly smart bonnet.

Mrs. F. Jones was in pale pink.

Mrs. Waldron was extremely well dressed, as were the Misses Kenny and Miss Daly.

Mrs. Carleton Jones, sister of the bride, wore pale gray blue. pale gray-blue.
Miss Hilda Stairs, her cousin, had a smart frock of gray and green.

Mrs. Troop wore terra cotta and gold, while her pretty daughters wore respectively, cream color, yellow and gray.

Mrs. W. H. Troop had an exquisite dress of pa'e pink and green with a flower bonnet.

On the whole but few of the gowns wore at last week's weddings were in evidence. Many of the more elderly ladies wore black, with touches of bright color, and the assemblage altogether was one of smartly dressed and fashionable people. The arrangements were well and thoroughly carried out, and the whole affair most brilliant.

Hon. W. S. and Mrs. Fielding have gone to England for the summer.

A farewell bachelor dinner was given to Major

A farewell bachelor dinner was given to Major Bor on Tuesday evening, by the officers of the R.A. and R.E. mess, with whom he has always been a very popular brother officer.

On Wednesday evening there was a small dinner on board H.M.S. Blake, which ship goes next week into the dry dock for repairs. The well known naval officers who returned in her, in the Canada, and the Magicianne, seem very little altered during the very of their absence from Halifax, a seafaring and the Magicienne, seem very little aftered during the years of their absence from Halifax, a seafaring life has had to all appearance indeed, rather a rejuvenating effect upon them.

The list of names in the proposed exchange here is an excellent one and promises well for the success of the undertaking.

On Saturday atternoon Mrs. Troop gave a large

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Troop gave a large tea at Maplehurst, where the presents belonging to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henry were much admired by the guests. Dr. Andrews, R.N., has been transferred to the Blake for the summer, if not permanently. His marriage with Miss Thomson takes place in September, and will be a very smart occasion indeed.

It is Miss Thomson's present intention to have pages in addition to the usual bridesmaids.

Mr. Spalding Whilom rector of Christ church, Cambridge, who recently turned Romanist, has returned to the Anglican fold. This is, says my Boston correspondent, the sixth change of conviction experienced by the reverend gentleman.

A good sign of the times is the establishment of a Woman's exchange in Hahfax. It is an institution which if it can be made to pay, is of incalculable value to poor ladies who wish a fair and equitable price for their work combined with a quick sale of it. Two institutions of the kind are now in a flourishing condition, one in Jamaica and one in Boston; the many advantages which can be had by belonging to the latter are simply wonderful, and show what a little organization and effort can do.

The amateur theatricals given on last Friday and Saturday evenings were not nearly up to the recent performance given by the same company in School. But, on the whole, the company is to be congratu-But, on the whole, the company is to be congratulated, for I believe they had a very poor chance to rehearse, and taken all in all things went very well. There were one or two bad hitches, especially on Friday night, but I noticed a great improvement on Saturday, for the ten actors seemed to be more jovial and not so depressed. The best performance was given by Mr. Fuller as Jack Talbot; his makeup as a curate was good and he looked as though butter would not melt in his mouth till it was melted. Mrs. J. C. Currie was very good, as also was Capt. Duffus, the others were poor. But Mrs. Geoffry Morrow made the best of a bad part, and showed that she is extremely painspoor. But Mrs. Geoffry Morrow man, as the poor a bad part, and showed that she is extremely painstaking in every detail. The receipts were not very taking in every detail, a goodly sum will be put to the credit large, but still a goodly sum will be put to the credit of the Wanderers for the purpose of buying materials for their mamoth bazaar in June. It would be better if amateurs did nit try such a long and sustained piece as Our Regiment, but would give two or three short pieces during the evening.

The Halifax garrison artillery gave a dinner on Monday night to Lieut.-Col. Irwin, inspector of ar-tillery. Amongst those asked to meet him were tillery. Amongst those asked to meet him were Col. Saunders, R. A., Col. Ryan, R. A., Lieut.-Col. Dudley North C. So., Col. Raymond and Surgeon Capt. Fowler, A. M. S. This is, I believe, to be the last of the mess dinners of this most enterprising corps for some time.

Mr. Geo. Jones, who has been here for the purpose of acting as groomsman to Mr. W. Henry, has returned to St. John.
