The bride who entered on her father's arm, was preceded by her friend Miss Freeman, as bridesmaid, in a pretty gown of white and pink. The bride's toilette was a very pretty combination of white cloth and silk, cut low, with elbow sleeves, long train, and the conventional veil and flowers. The groom was supported by Mr. Thos. B. Ramsay, Amos Eddy, J. A. Melvin, Alex. Stout and J. M. J. McGinley and Ike Hendry. CHATHAM.

Dec. 6.—The Scotch concert on St. Andrew's night was a grand success. The general opinion is that it was the best amateur concert ever given in Chatham. The songs were wonderfully well rendered and the singers all looked charming. Mrs. Porteous' performance on the piano delighted the audience as did also her singing. Miss Mary Russell, of Newcastle, surpassed herself in "Within a mile of Edinburgh town" and was loudly applauded. She seems to have been the favorite of the evening. Mr. Tompkins played several "wild Scotch airs" on the bagpipes. "Callie Herrin" was sung beautifully by Miss Belle Edgar.

Invitations have been out during the past two weeks and it probably will be the most brilliant society event St. Stephen will have this season. When leaving Calais in October, his departure was greatly regretted, as it obliged him to discontinue a series of brilliant lectures, which he was giving to his literary friends.
