St. John--South End. On Thursday evening Madame de Bury gave one of her pleasant little dances at her residence, North End. Miss Bradford, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. James Stratton, Hazen street. Miss Margaret Kinnear arrived from Chicago last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kinnear. Mrs. Ring, who has been very seriously ill the past week at her residence, Hazen street, is, I hear, improving. Her son, Dr. Allan Ring, came to St. John from Boston to attend her. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Britain have removed to Cape Breton, where they will in future reside with their daughter, Mrs. Douglas Smith. Mr. George Y. Crookshank (Ottawa), is on a visit to St. John. Miss Edith Boucher is visiting Mrs. James Ritchie at Annapolis. It is reported that the marriage of Miss Nellie Snider and Mr. Short which was fixed for next Tuesday, has been unavoidably postponed in consequence of leave being stopped at the Bank of B. N. A. at New York of which institution Mr. Short is accountant. Mr. Gerrard, of the Bank of B. N. A., St. John, has returned from New York, where he has been spending his holidays. A pleasant little dinner was given by the Misses Parks on Tuesday evening at their residence, Mount Pleasant. There were about twenty present. On Friday last Mrs. Hoy's friends gave most enjoyable dance in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anglin, who are at present in the city upon their wedding tour. Everything was most beautiful and the evening a most delightful one. A beautiful floor of hardwood, recently laid, charming music and exquisite floral decorations, the latter setting to great advantage the lovely dresses of the fair dancers. Of the married ladies there were but three, Mrs. Frank Anglin, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, and Mrs. Geo. E. Brown. Among the others were the Misses Burpee, Miss King, Miss Keator, Miss Jones, Miss Burnside and Miss Tibbitts, of Fredericton, Miss McMillan, Misses Dunn, the Misses Parks, Miss Troop, etc.; Count de Bury, Dr. Daniel, Dr. Thomas Walker, Jr., Mr. Hansard, Messrs. Coster, Keator, Jones, McLeod, Harrison, Robertson, Dr. Kenny, Regan, Ritchie, DeBury and others. On Wednesday Count deBury had a yachting party, also in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anglin. The guests were taken up the Kennebecasis as far as Hampton, calling at the Willows, on the return of the yacht. After spending an hour very pleasantly, the anchor was cast near Rothesay, where, after spending a delightful evening on the yacht, the party on board sailed into Millidgeville at half past ten on Thursday morning. Among those on Chisholm, Miss Travis, Miss Marie DeBury and a few other ladies and gentlemen. Miss Alice DeVeber has returned home from a trip to England. Miss Nellie Patton is spending a few weeks at Bathurst. On dit that a wedding will shortly take place between a young lady residing in Queen street and a young grocery merchant of Charlotte street. Miss Maud Kearns, Carleton, was the guest this week of Mrs. Allan Nixon, Sydney street. The Misses Adam, Elliott, Bow, are spending a few weeks in Fredericton. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stephenson, Carmarthen street, on the arrival of a son. Mr. R. L. Johnston returned home on Sunday after a week's vacation up north. Messrs. Frank Reuter and Will Knudell spent part of this week in Nova Scotia. Mr. Steeve Palmer left Friday for a pleasure trip up north. Miss Alice Armstrong is the guest of her friend, Miss Ethel Robertson, at Westfield. Miss Blanche Gooch, of South Bay, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in town. Miss Gertrude McFarlane is spending the summer at Westfield, the residence of Mrs. J. H. G. Kelly. Miss Evelyn Lynch returned home this week after a few days visit to Florenceville. The little daughter of Mr. Kelly, who has been so seriously ill is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. G. Tapley are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son. MEADOW SWEET. Mr. Robert Smith, of Macaulay Bros. & Co., left Sunday night for New York, from thence he will sail for England by the Majestic. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Glazebrook, of Montreal, are on a visit to the city. Messrs. Walter Hall and W. Bowman are camping out at Loch Lomond. Mr. Charles Macneil and family are summering at Oak Point. Miss May Titus, of Boston, is the guest of Miss Carrie Fairweather, Sewall street. Mr. Patterson, of the firm of Brock & Patterson, left on Monday for England. Mrs. Henry Estey, of Fredericton, and family, have taken a cottage at Crouville for the remainder of the summer. Rev. M. G. A. Hartley and Mr. T. S. Simms left Thursday for their ten-day ground at "Camp Liberty," Birch Island, Oranocote. Mrs. Bridges, of Fredericton, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Foster, Elm's Road. Mr. Wm. M. Donald, of New York, is on a visit to Mr. Robert Thompson, Jr., Rothesay. Mrs. Alfred Reuter, of her two sons, of Marysville, are visiting St. John. Miss Lawrence, of Boston, Mass., is the guest of her brother, Mr. Joseph Lawrence, King street. Miss Helen Spurdon, of Fredericton, is making Miss May Burdett, of Crouville, a visit. Mr. W. W. Allen and Mr. LeB. Robertson, left on Wednesday for Edmundston, where they will meet Mr. Busby Allen and Dr. Hardy, of New York. The party will go up the river in canoes. Prof. Duff, of the N. B. university, is spending his vacation in Lynn, Mass. Mr. Frank J. Mahon left for Montreal on Tuesday morning. Miss Katie Hall, who has spent the past eleven months in Bermuda, arrived home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Boston, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Duke street. Mrs. William H. Long and daughter will take the steamer Saturday at Montreal for Europe. They intend to reside in Berlin. Miss Myra Sherman and Miss Ida Allen, Fredericton, are visiting friends in St. John. Dr. M. J. Cochran and family who have been spending a few weeks with Mr. Alex. McDermott, left Tuesday night for Boston. The groom was accompanied by Miss McDermott. The Rev. Mr. Millian, Halifax, is the guest of the Rev. Mr. Fotheringham, Hazen street. Miss Annie Henderson and Miss Nellie Godsoe are staying at Upper Gagetown for a few weeks. Rev. Geo. Bruce is on his way home and will be in St. John about the second week in August. Mr. George Ellis has gone to Moncton for a few days. Mr. C. J. Moore, formerly of the Kentville academy faculty, is in the city. Mr. Alex. Gibson, Marysville, was in town this week. Mr. A. F. McColgan, a former resident of St. John, but now of Boston, is home for a vacation. Miss Mabel Jordan entertained a number of her friends on Tuesday evening. Mr. Charles McRally, Fredericton is the guest of Mr. Donaldson Hunt, Princess street. Miss Emma Goddard has accepted the position of organist of St. David's church. PURITAN. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sinclair, Waterloo street, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening, of July 20th, when their daughter, Miss Jeanie Sinclair was united in marriage to Mr. John B. Masson, of Boston, Mass. Rev. Mr. Fullerton officiated. The bride was attired in a dress of cream cashmere and Bengaline and carried a handsome shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Sinclair, who wore a handsome dress of heliotrope cashmere with point lace trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses; and little Miss Georgia Collins, in a dress of cream cashmere and carrying a basket of white roses. The groom was supported by Mr. J. Sinclair. The bride being a general favorite, was the recipient of many handsome presents, among which were the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Collins, Picture, (scene in Normandy). Mr. A. Tapley, salad bowl with fork and spoon. Mr. and Mrs. Robb, silver ice pitcher. Miss Gussie Slipp, china berry set. Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, silver toast rack. Miss Georgia Duncanson, picture ("Calling the Ferryman"). Mr. A. F. McColgan, half dozen silver orange spoons. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fairweather, Dorchester, silver hand mirror. Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Noble, fish slice and fork. Miss Ida Drury, silver berry spoon. Mr. J. W. Slipp, silver butter cooler. Miss Belle Likely, half-dozen silver fruit knives. Mr. Oscar D. Hanson, silver napkin ring. Mr. C. and Miss Morrison, individual cruet. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Noble, silver fruit spoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crawford, toilet vases. Mr. and Misses Campbell, chocolate jar. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Davis is visiting her aunt at Hatfield's Point, King's Co. Miss Laura Foot, of New York, who has many friends in St. John, has been making a stay here lately. She has now gone to Clifton. The latest engagement spoken of in society circles is that between a young lady who has been visiting Bermuda lately, and an officer of the garrison, who is stationed there. I also hear of the engagement of a young lady of King street, east, and an Upper Canadian gentleman. Mrs. Will Lee and her family are staying at the Bay Shore. Mr. Percy Holman, of the New England Magazine, Boston, is in this city on a vacation. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. F. Randolph and their children, of Fredericton, are at the Clifton House this week. Miss Emma Jack has recovered sufficiently from her late illness to proceed to St. Andrews with her friend, Miss May Legh, of England. They are staying there at "The Farm," the residence of Mrs. Mowatt. The silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson, of Rothesay, occurred on the 24th instant. In commemoration of this event, Mr. Robertson was presented by the employees of the firm of Messrs. Manchester, Robertson & Allison with a magnificent silver epergne for flowers (Continued on Eight Page.)
