

SERMON.

The Fifth Commandment. BY. VEN. F. W. FARRAR, D. D., Archdeacon of Westminster.

Preached in Westminster Abbey.

"Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."—Exodus xx. 12.

Those who consider the circumstances of the case, and the large share which symmetry always played in the mind of the man, will not stand with the first four com- father!" mandments, which are duties to God. But it is the special dignity of this command-

God.

every one of us, whether our parents be of his supremest elevation. as the principle of all worthy life.

"Honor thy father and thy mother." We are bidden to honor because love is each should remember that any fault or respect, honor, obedience to the cominstructive and spontaneous. If honor vice is a means to misery, and perhaps to mands and wishes of parents was deeper towards our parents is love combined with | ruin, of all those whom he must have dear- | than now it is. In a past generation men reverence, the love must be honor touched with emotion. The word "honor" includes love. There can be no true honor without love. Of course a reciprocal duty ble bonds. I knew a mother once whose dishonoring terms in which many even is implied. If the commandment only boy was convicted of stealing at school. habitually speak of their fathers. I have says to every child, "Honor thy father and She lived in the outskirts of a little town, heard the story told among the young althy mother," it means no less distinctly, and so deeply did her boy's shame weigh most with admiration how once a worthless "And, ye parents, provoke not your on her spirits, that for years afterwards undergraduate told his father that he really children to wrath." Into that side of the it was only in the deep twilight that could not walk down the Highstreet of Oxduty there is less need to enter, because, she would ever enter the streets of the ford with him unless he dressed in more undoubtedly, the love of parents towards town by which she lived. I knew a son, fashionable clothes. Many fine young their children is tar more intense and a dignitary of the Cnurch of England, prominent than the love of children towards their parents. But the obliteration had disgraced himself by a dark and evil depend, almost seem to think it derogatory of this instinct on either side is one of the worst signs, on the one hand, of savage his career was ended for ever. His san father." For that term of respect and love dishumanisation, on the other of civilised set in obscure darkness, while it was yet a spurious conceit substitutes some cant or degeneracy. St. Paul's picture of Roman depravity in Romans i. culminates in the and so criminal itself, is ever the most all classes whose children take all the love charge that men had become insolent, remoreelessly cruel to detected crime- and self-denial of parents as the merest

tive, may depend on education. The Jews, shared that awful burden; he took his ing class who is earning his own living at from whose wisdom we may learn so much, poor, shamed, disgraced, ruined father sixteen often thinks it quite intolerable insisted upon it with intense earnestness. into his house until he died; for his that his parents should have the slightest It lay at the basis of the first sweet patri- sake he gave up all that makes like claim upon him in their destitute old archal life. The books of Proverbs and most sweet, for his sake he remained un-Ecclesiastes are full of exhortations to it married. It was a noble example of self- who is most experienced in London among and denunciations of its neglect. In Jew- sacrifice, all the more because it was known the young, "seems among some classes ish history Joseph the beautiful and pure to very few. But that good son received to be at a discount, and the parents of was set up as an example of filial love as conspicuously the blessing of God for his children of seven years old sometimes well as of youthful chastity. On the other filial faithfulness, and I am well assured come to me and say they have no sort of hand, such was the execration of Absalom, that now in that far-off land, where all is control over their own children." The the beautiful and happy, that to this day judged of truly, he has received his huneach Jawish child, as he passes by his legends from in the Walley of Jehosaphat, is St. Paul calls this Fifth Commandment never had, is ashamed of his father, taught to spit at it and to hurl a contumelious epithet at the resting-place of the bad, rebellious son. The modern canaille of the world care nothing for their parents, but only for themselves; but the deepest feelings of the best men have been always mingled with their love to their parents. The sacredness, or shipwreck, of this love has turnished to literature some of its most impassioned themes. Many of the most pathetic scenes in the is appended which points to Palestine Oh, I would urge upon you all more records of human life turn on parental and alone?" It is the old error that God care in the fulfilment of the Fifth Comstricken silence when his two eldest born, Nadab and Abihu, died by the foe of kind. outburst of weeping over that twice dead parents and truly honored them. youth, when with voice choked with anguish he sobbed forth, "O my son Absalom; my son, my son Absalom! would better land. Oh, is it not true that, Greeks beautifully called "blooming on God I had died for the O Absalom, my as a rule, the promise literally holds good, both sides," with fathers and mothers yet son, my son!" Think again in Grecian | both to nations and individuals? It is not a living, I entreat you remember that while history of the noble Pericles placing the wreath on the brow of his dead boy, turning aside to hide the tears, the strong heart certain utiltarianism result; it is simply a the rest of your lives by regrets that must at last broken, which, amid all the calam- natural inference. Individually, even the be for ever unavailing.

ities of war and pestilence and the murmurs of the people had continued subdued. Think of Titus, so moved by the false accusation of intriguing against his father that he hurried back from Jerusalem with headlong speed and burst into Vespasian's presence with ters, "Veni, pater; Veni pater—I have come, my father; I have come." Think of our proud Norman King Henry I.:

Before him passed the young and fair, In pleasure's reckless train; The seas dashed o'er his son's bright hair; He never smiled again.

Or of Henry II., when among the signatures of his other rebellious children he saw the name of his youngest and best loved John. Or the great Frederick Bar-barossa crying out bitterly on his son's death, "I am not the first who have suf-Jews. will readily believe that on those two tables which lay enshrined in the Ark, the the Ten Words were carved in their briefest form, each occupying a line, and that there were five on the first and five on the his knees before him with the cry, "Oh, second table. It may be objected that do not sully thy honor and thy name; no then this Fifth Commandment, the law of law of God obliges a son to be the instrute. The nation which produces bad sons will reference to parents, which is a duty to ment of divine vengeance against the

Again, how often has the thought of a it is the special dignity of this command-ment that it is a direct part of our duty to moments of life! When the young and gallant boy, Prince Conradin of Hohen-Our parents are not merely our neigh- staufen, last of his race, was dragged to bors; they stand to us in a special and in the scaffold at the age of sixteen, una Divine relation. All true authority is daunted to the last he flung the gage of founded upon and is a delegation of the defiance among the multitude, but as he authority of God. More especially is this bowed his fair young face over the block the case with parents. During our early be murmured, "Oh, my mother, how deep years they stand to us in the place of God. | will be thy sorrow at the news of this day. The word pietas meant originally the duty of men to God reflected in their duty to- that disastrous field of Corunna, the name wards their parents. Hence you will see of his mother was the last upon his lips. that the symmetry of the first five com- The truest men have never blushed to give mandments of the first table in one word is public proof of this filial devotion. No pietas, our duty towards God, and the symmetry of the second table in one word murdered President of the United States, is probitas, our duty towards our neighbor. won him warmer sympathy than the manly It is by its consecration of authority kiss which he gave to his aged mother that the Fifth Commandment applies to before the assembled multitudes on the day living or dead. It involves for each of us I can but glance at a difficulty which the enforcement of the truth that man is may perhaps touch a few in this vast not meant to live alone, but in families and assembly. They may be so unhappy as noblest days. The irresistible grandeur in communities; it is the corrective of each to have unworthy parents, parents who which arrayed her warriors to conquer was man's insolent tendency to make himself, have ruined their families and dragged founded on the paternal authority. Corioregardless of all others, the centre of all them down by vice and shame. "Are lanus spared Rome only at the tears of his the universe. The fitth commandment is | we," they may ask, "to honor those who | mother, Volumnia; and when Virgil wrote the surest basis of all right government. are dishonorable? Are we to reverence the great epoch of the republic he could Selfishness, the brutal predominance of in- those to whom no reverence is due?" I find no greater name for his here than dividual appetites and interests, self-asser- answer that they must not be like those Pater-tather, and Fidus-faithful. Drytion, the vulgar claim of every man against Jews whom Christ so bitterly rebuked be- den translated the Eneid, but he could his fellows, "I am just as good as you" cause they tried to shift off one duty by make nothing of those epitaphs-"sire," these are the disorganiring, the abruptive, another. Our parents have loved us, their and "the pious hero," or "the one to whom the anarchic elements of society, which end | children, in spite of all our intractableness, | his parents were also a law," would have in plunder, houses shattered with dyna- our waywardness, our indifference. Are seemed supremely ridiculous to the dissomite, and cities blazing with petroleum. the children to show no forbearance to the lute weaklings of a godless age. But the But all the elements of noble progress, all sins of their parents? Alas, for earth if promise of the fifth commandment holds the securities for peaceful happiness, all the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility, depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on man's frank and the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depend on the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility depends on the fair sum of six thousand years' tradition of civility dep glad submission to those whom God's pro- When Noah lay in shame in his tent his son a jewelled debauchee like Otho, God vidence has set over him. On the west and his grandson, Ham and Canaan, earn- began to wipe out their glory as front of the cathedral of Amiens the symbol of defiant vulgarity, debased by its own ery, but Shem and Japhet earned an undy- upside down. And when Napoleon, who self-exaltation, is that of a man snapping ling blessing for the reverent faithfulness knew something of the glory of nations, his fingers with Cockney impudence in the which covered their father's shame. Oh, was asked what was the chief want of the face of his bishop. But of all these wider by all the tender memories, by all the sweet French nation, he replied in the one applications it is impossible now to speak. sanctities, by all the holy sorcery of home, word, "Mothers." The weakening of I must speak only of the direct command- let us never forget that in our families, the bond between parents and childment to filial duty which indicates divine everywhere, and always, we must bear one ren is always in nations a dangerself-repression, not worldly self-assertion, another's burdens; and it has always seem- ous and evil symptom. Undoubtedly we ed to me one of the very strongest bonds in England need to be on our guard in ot blessedness in a large family is, that this matter. Within living memory the ly loved. Blood is thicker than water. would have been disgusted and shocked The bonds of nature which unite us to at the petulant, disrespectful demeanor every member of our families are indissoluwhose father, also a man in high place, deed. By that deed he forfeited all, and to use the grand old honored name, "My day. The world-which, being so wicked haughty, boastful, disobedient to parents, utterly forsook the poor, guilty man; he matter of course, as something due to without natural affection.

But his their own transcendent merits, and give Prial affection, however, though instinc- wirtuous son did not forsake him; he nothing in return. The boy of the work-

"the first commandment was promise," and at that promise I must now glance. drops his "h's," or does not know the con-"Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." It | led her to mistake herself for a lady, looks showed infinite misapprehension when down on her worthier mother from the Heylyn, the biographer of Archbishop height of her interiority, as a person to whom Laud, remarked, "How can the honor she must leave the whole domestic drudgery we pay to parents have anything to do with this commandment, seeing the promise Many of the most pathetic scenes in the is appended which points to Palestine filial love. In the bible think of Aaron's was giving local rules to the Jews, not mandment. Each of you is somebody's eternal principles of morality to all man-

God, and Aaron held his peace. Think of Jacob's wail over his lost Joseph, "I a doubt whether this promise holds true. you will not have that somebody always. shall go down into the grave upon my son Good sons, alas! die, cut off in the flower "O, though who hast yet a mother," said mourning." Think of the hero David's of their youth, who dearly loved their Richter, "thank God for it." And you,

Yes, but that death may be in God's boys of Westminster school, and other sight the reward-longer days in the young persons in this assembly, whom the boy who loves and honours his parents will, as a rule, be more prosperous, be longer lived, be more happy, be more blessed, than the bad son. It is so in the nature | may not be inappropriate to call the attenof things. A distinguished officer in the army told me that, in the experience of a long life, he had tound that exactly the come in late, especially those who have new same had been said of him by and old admiral, who said of all the midshipmen people, and it must be a serious annoyance to who had passed under his rule he had never known one to fail to turn out well They wear it unconsciously, and prefer who wrote weekly his loving letter to his that you would not notice them. The home. It is the prodigals, not the good | Sunday services are at half-past ten and at sons, who bring down upon themselves a half-past seven for the benefit of all who curse. "Show me a boy who loves his desire to spend an hour in worship, but for mother," says a recent writer, "and I will all those who have recently visited the tailor, show you one who will make a faithful and milliner, and dressmaker, the morning friend, a noble lover, and a tender service begins anywhere from half past ten husband; show me a boy to whom homelife has no attractions, because it is too slow, and I will show you never to trust the very tardy ones the announcement is that man with anything which constitutes | hereby made that the benediction will be the happiness of others." A young boy the only portion of the service in which was once going to sea as a midshipman, they are respectfully invited to participate.' but as he got into the boat he saw his mother's springing tears: "Fetch back my trunk," he said, "I am not going to break my mother's heart." "George," said his mother to him, "God has promised to bless the children who honor their parents, and I believe He will bless you." That boy grew up to be George Washington, first President of the United States of America.

But the main intention of the promise was not individual, it was national; and all history has contributed its national fulassuredly not have good citizens. Loveless sons very soon produce disorganized societies and decadent nations. Take but two ancient peoples by way of illustration. Why was one Spartan worth ten other Greeks upon a battle-field? It was because Spartan boys were trained in parental obedience. When the Spartan mother gave her boy his shield with the words,-"Bring back this or come back upon it,"-her word made him invincible. When the Spartan boy complained that his sword was too short, and the mother said, "Then add a stride to it," she armed him in triple steel. Obedient sons make unflinching patriots; and it was because honor to parents meant honor to our country that those three hundred Spartans stood against the vast host of Persia, at Thermorpylæ, and when they lay buried under the darts of their enemy Simonides wrote their epitaph-

Go, tell the Spartans, thou that passest by, That here, obedient to their laws, we he.

Nor was it otherwise with Rome in her gentlemen who are not worthy to tie the shoe-latchets of the fathers on whom they loveless synonym. There are tathers in because, though far superior to himself he ventions of etiquette; the daughter whose smattering of shallow accomplishments has whilst she is reading sickly romances or murdering flabby music on the piano. child, and if all the world deservedly hate you, your father or mother, through good my young hearers, boys of the choir,

The following notice has been distributed in the pews of a Massachusetts church: "It tion of the audience to the bad habit they have fallen into of watching people who have their raiment made asubject of remark.

Late-Comers to Church in New Clothes.

A gentleman is one who understands and shows every mark of deference to the claims of self-love in others, and exacts it in return from them .- Hazlitt.

to eleven, and the evening service ten minutes before eight. For the benefit of

That it is not wise to experiment with cheap compounds purporting to be blood-purifiers, but which have no real medicinal value. To make use of any other than the old stan-dard AYER'S Sarsaparilla—the Superior Blood-purifier—is simply to invite loss of time, money and health. If you are afflicted with Scrofula, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Eczema, Running Sores, Tumors, or any other blood disease, be assured

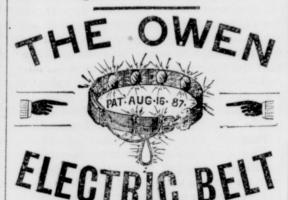

It Pays to Use

AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and AYER'S only. AYER'S Sarsaparilla can always be depended upon. It does not vary. It is always the same in quality, quantity, and effect. It is superior in combination, proportion, appearance, and in all that goes to build up the system weakened by disease and pain. It searches out all impurities in the blood and expels them by the natural channels,*

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Cures others, will cure you

Incorporated, 1887, with Cash Capital of $50,000.

AND APPLIANCE CO.

49 KING ST. W., TORONTO, Ont G. C. PATTERSON, Mgr. for Can.

Electricity, as applied by the Owen Electric Belt and Appliances,

Is now recognized as the greatest boon offered to suffering humanity. It is fast taking the place of drugs in all nerwous and rheumatic troubles and will effect cures in seemingly hopeless cases where every other known means has failed. It is natures remedy, and by its steady, soothing current that is readily felt, POSITIVELY CURES

Sciatica. General Debility, Impotency, Lumbago, Nervous Diseases. Dyspepsia, Varicocele,

Sexual Weakness. Female Complaints, Kidney Diseases. Liver Complaint, Lame Back. Urinary Diseases, RHEUMATISM.

It is certainly not pleasant to be compelled to refer to the indisputable fact that medical science has utterly failed to afford relief in rheumatic ases. We venture the assertion that although dectricity has only been in use as a remedial agent for a few years, it has eured more cases of Rheumatism than all other means combined. Some of our leading physicians, recognizing this fact, are availing themselves of this most potent of nature's forces,

To Restore Manhood and Womanhood

As man has not yet discovered all of Nature's laws for right living, it follows that everyone has committed more or less errors which have left visible blemishes. To erase these evidences of past errors, there is nothing to equal Electricity as applied by the Owen Electric Body Battery and Suspensory. Rest assured any doctor who would try to accomplish this by any kind of drugs is practising a most dangerous torm of charla

We Challenge the World to show an Electric Belt where the current is under the control of the patient as completely as this. We can use the same belt on an infant that we would on a giant, by simply reducing the current. Other belts have been in the market for five or ten years longer, but to-day there are more Owen Belts manufactured than all other makes Electric Insoles. - Dr Owen's Electric insoles will prevent Rheumatism and cure Chil-plains and Cramps in the feet and legs. Price $1,

Beware of Imitations and Cheap Belts. AT Our attention having been attracted to an imitation of the Genuine Owen Electric Belt, that is being peddled through the country from town to town, we desire to warn the public against

Our Trade Mark is the portrait of Dr. A. Owen, embossed in gold upon every Belt and Appliance manufactured by The Owen Electric Belt and Send for Illustrated Catalogue of Information, Testimonials, etc.

THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT CO'Y, 49 King St. W., Toronto. Ont.

Mention this paper. Head Office, Chicago,

THE CREAT REMEDY FOR Nearly Two Million in the Dominion in Ten years ... Rheumatism REMEMBER THE PAIN SURE CURE & Neuralgia KILLER Ask your Druggist for it and take nothing else.

An Established Fact.

THE Blue Store has become an established fact and though only a year old has become one of the leading Clothing Houses in the City.

Please call and examine our Stock of Men and Boy's Spring and Summer Clothing, and be convinced that our stock is one of the largest and best in the trade.

> BLUE STORE, COR, MILL AND MAIN STS. (North End.)

City Market Clothing Hall, 51 Charlotte St.

Head quarters for fine Ready-Made and Custom Clothing. Special agent for Melissa Rain Proof Coats.

T. YOUNGCLAUS, Proprietor.

COLLEGIATE SCHOOL,

STAFF HEAD MASTER:
REV. ARNOLDUS MILLER, M. A.,—Classics and
Science. Toronto and Victoria Universities, Ont. RESIDENT ASSISTANT MASTER:
MR. JAMES C. SIMPSON,—Mathematics, German.
Previncial Certificate, Province of Ont. Late of the Engineering Staff, Canadian Pacific R. R.

RESIDENT ASSISTANT MASTER:
MR. ROBERT SIMPSON,—English and Classics.

FRENCH: CHARLES G. ABBOTT, Esq., B.A., Kings College

WRITING, DRAWING AND BOOK-KEEPING DRILL AND GYMNASTIC INSTRUCTOR:

SERGT. A. CUNNINGHAM,-Late Instructor in TEACHERS IN PIANO AND VIOLIN MUSIC: PROF. W. H. WATTS. MISS GOURLAY.

VIOLIN :- J. W. S. BOULT, Esq.

TRINITY TERM COMMENCES APRIL 6. GCIRCULARS giving full information, will be sent on application to THE HEAD MASTER.

Famous fiction by the World's Greatest Authors!

A CHARMING SET OF BOOKS, EMBRACING

the Greatest Novels Ever Written BY TEN OF THE

GREATEST AUTHORS WHO EVER LIVED

If you will study the biographies of the great authors of our day, you will observe that in most instances their reputations were made by the production of a single book. Let but one work that is really great—one masterpiece—emanate from an author's pen, and though his future efforts may be trivial in comparison, his name will live and his works be read long after the author has passed away. A well-known New York publishing house has issued in uniform and handsome style ten of the greatest and most famous novels in the English language, and we have perfected arrangements whereby we are enabled to offer this handsome and valuable set of books as a premium to our subscribers upon terms which make them almost a free gift. Each one of these famous novels, was its author's greatest work—his masterpiece—the great production that made his name and fame. The works comprised in this valuable set of books, which are published under the general title of "Famous Fiction by the World's Greatest Authors," are as follows:

EAST LYNNE

EAST LYNNE. By Mrs. Henry Wood. JANE EYRE. By Charlotte Bronte. JOHN HALIFAX, GENTLEMAN. By Miss Mulock. ADAM BEDE. By George Eliot.

THE WOMAN IN WHITF.

By Wilkie Collins.

By Miss M. E. Braddon. VANITY FAIR By W. M. Thackeray. THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII, By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. THE THREE GUARDSMEN. By Alexander Dumas. PUT YOURSELF IN HIS PLACE. By Charles Reade

Each of these great and powerful works is known the world over and read in every civilized land. Each is intensely interesting, yet pure and elevating in moral tone. They are published complete, unchanged and unabridged, in ten separate volumes, with very handsome and artistic covers, all uniform, thus making a charming set of books which will be an ornament to the home. They are printed from new type, clear, bold and readable, upon paper of excellent quality. Altogether it is a delightful set of books, and we are most happy to be enabled to afford our subscribers an on portunity of obtaining such splendid books upon such terms as we can give.

Our Liberal Premium Offer! We will send the ten great novels above named, comprising the splendid complete set of "Famous Fiction by the World's Greatest Authors," also Progress for one year, upon receirt of only $2.50, which is an advance of but 50 cents over our regular subscription price, so that you practically get this beautiful set of books A.T.8 EDWARD S. CARTER.