At 6.24—On Thursday evening the handsomest residence of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Swan was thrown open to more than 300 guests. It was the occasion of the annual party for the year, for which invitations were given more than a week ago. It was most delightful party, for there were gathered the flower, wit and beauty of both St. Stephen and Calais, with a fair sprinkling of guests from Boston New York city and Baltimore. The house is so neatly arranged and so spacious that one could not realize so many guests were present. The floral decorations showed great taste in their arranging and the refreshments were of the most elegant production. In the drawing rooms the corners were masked off with ferns and golden rods which gave a most effective effect. The walls were covered with flowers were brilliant with bright lights and Japanese lanterns, and as the grounds surrounding the house are well kept and the lawns are so extensive, afford opportunities for strolls that are seldom enjoyed on such occasions. Dr. and Mrs. Swan received their guests in the long drawing room. Mrs. Swan, in her elegant black and white dress, with diamond ornaments.
Beside her stood her niece, Miss Flora Swan, of Portland, Me., who wore a gown of cream silk with black lace trimmings and a black and white lace. Fruit punch and ices were served continually and supper was partaken of throughout the evening. After a number of the older guests had said their adieus, the drawing rooms were given over to the younger people. The ladies were ruled the hour. The ladies were beautifully dressed. Among the strangers were Misses Mary and Lettice, who were in elegant London. Eng. who wore an elegant costume of black richly adorned with lace, and a profusion

The tennis tournament which I mentioned in my letter of last week, between the Algonquin club, of St. Stephen and the Bangor club, of Bangor, which as was expected, owing to the failure of the St.
Andrews ladies and gentlemen to arrive. The Bangor club, who were always ready to be always ready for any emergency, enjoyed two days of tennis among themselves, and on Friday evening they were defeated by the St. Stephen ladies and gentlemen. The tennis tournament was the result of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, who, with their usual generosity and hospitality, offered them the use of their tennis court. The tennis court beautifully decorated with flowers, and the ballroom made gay with flags and bunting. The trees in the lawn were hung with bright colored lanterns, and the grounds were so well kept and the house a looking mansion presented a most festive appearance. Mrs. Todd was assisted in receiving the guests by her daughter, Miss Alice Cullinan.
Miss Alice Cullinan and Miss Mina Downes. Dancing to the strains of Herrick's orchestra was the amusement of the evening and it did not commence until 10 o'clock. Fruit punch and lemonade were served at intervals during the evening, and at twelve o'clock supper was served. The guests who were always present. The ladies all looked exceedingly well in their pretty summer costumes. There were several very odd looking dresses, but lack of space prevents me from describing them. The guests were gratulated on the success of their entertainment, but with such assistants as Mr. Harry Petrick and Miss Alice Cullinan, it is not surprising that Mrs. Todd's residence provides, it could not help from being a most charming affair in every way.
