

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Hall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Mar. 8.—This week began quite as gaily as last. On Monday evening there were no less than four parties two of which went out of town. A very pleasant and lively party of some fifty ladies and gentlemen left in the train at 8 o'clock for Moore's Mills to dance in the Moore's Mills hall which was most generously lent them by Hon. William Douglas, ex-M. P. for that purpose. This happy party was arranged and planned by Mrs. T. J. Smith, and Mrs. Waterbury and was one of the jolliest, society has yet enjoyed. Dancing began at nine o'clock and was kept up until a late hour when supper was served. The guests then took the train for home and arrived in the early morning having enjoyed themselves greatly.

The Micam-was snow shoe club enjoyed another of its jolly outings on Monday evening. This time Fairheads were their choice and a very good choice, for there every one enjoyed themselves. The club drove to Fairheads and then went on their usual tramp. On their return, supper was served and after some time spent in conversation by the ladies while the gentlemen enjoyed a quiet smoke, all were ready to turn their faces towards home. The club intend to have another tramp at an early date.

Through the invitation of the Misses Richardson, a large party of their young friends drove to the Stone House at the Lodge on Monday evening and enjoyed a dance and supper. This was a very merry party, and the young hostesses are congratulated upon the success of it.

Invitations were given yesterday by Mrs. Fredrick Ham for a children's party last evening, but so many of the young people being engaged elsewhere it is postponed until to-morrow night.

Mrs. Dehnstadt gave a very delightful party at her residence last evening for the ladies while her little daughters Misses Edith and Grace. There were some thirty little girls present, who all looked very pretty in their light gay dresses. The boys were not invited, much to their disgust and to the delight of the girls, for one safely remarked, "There never was a house yet big enough to hold a boy comfortably." Games were the chief amusement, and as Mrs. Dehnstadt has a happy way of entertaining, very young people, all the young guests enjoyed it extremely.

Miss Kate Washburne entertained several friends on Wednesday evening last. They first went on a snow-shoe tramp to Little Range, returning to Miss Washburne's home—the rest of the evening was spent in playing duplicate whist. Supper was served at twelve o'clock.

Miss Little Eaton entertained the Young People's Whist Club, on Wednesday evening.

Miss Alice Graham invited a number of her young friends, to join her in a snow-shoe tramp one evening last week. After snow-shoeing for two or three hours, they returned home, and enjoyed waltzing, and whist during the latter part of the evening. This was one of our most delightful parties, that was enjoyed last week. Among the guests were: Miss Berta Smith, Miss Cora Algar, Miss Noe Clarke, Miss Kitten Melick, (Cambridge Mass.), Miss May Toller, (Ottawa), Miss Maggie Todd, Miss Florence Clenden, Miss Ida Boardman, Miss Mina Downes, Miss Mabel Murchie, Miss Alice Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Murchie, Messrs. L. T. G. Thomas Blair, George Dexter, Smith Dexter, George Downes, Henry Gillespie, Mark Mills, W. A. Mills, Frank Cullen, Howard Murchie, H. A. S. Pettib, and Arthur Murchie.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mowatt, are visiting Mrs. Mowatt's mother, Mr. Clarke Clarke. They are contemplating a trip to Scotland, to spend a few months among Mr. Mowatt's relatives, and expect to sail early in April.

Dr. and Mrs. Wood, have gone to Gouldsboro, Maine, on a short visit.

Miss Sara Keating, has returned from St. John, after a pleasant visit of two months in that city.

Miss Alice Sutton of St. John, who has been Miss Clewley's guest has returned home.

The third annual concert and ball of the St. Croix Rifle Club was held in the Calais Milltown opera house last Thursday. A number of ladies and gentlemen from Calais and St. Stephen drove to Milltown to attend it. The hall was most artistically decorated with flags, bunting, rifles and deer and moose heads. The music and dancing was unusually gay, and those who were there enjoyed it extremely.

Mrs. Almon Teed gave a very jolly snow shoe tramp for the entertainment of her sister, Miss Rose Brittain, and her friends, on Friday night. Mrs. Teed also entertained, on Monday evening, a party of friends. Music and conversation occupied the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Murchie invited a few friends to a snow shoe tramp and supper at Fairheads, one evening during the past week.

Mrs. Howard McAllister gave a very pleasant tea party to a number of girl friends on Thursday afternoon, friends of her little daughter, Kathleen. The reception and drive whist party, given by Mrs. Henry A. Murchie, at her residence last Friday from four to eight o'clock, was greatly enjoyed by the ladies who were present. There were several tables of whist. After playing two hours the prizes were awarded. Mrs. A. E. Neil and Mrs. Ernest T. Lee received the first prizes, a lovely silver pin tray and a Linoges bon bon dish. The second prizes lot to the lot of Mrs. Henry B. Eaton—a handsome chocolate pitcher—and to Mrs. Harvey, a souvenir coffee spoon. Mrs. Fred Hall and Miss Annie King were made happy with the "booby" prizes, which were pretty little dusters. Directly after the distribution of the prizes, supper was served, and the ladies left for their homes, having most thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Bolton accompanied by Miss Bolton, left this morning for a short visit in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Kingman, of Boston, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Grant, gave a very enjoyable whist party on Tuesday evening. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Vroom, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Dr. and Mrs. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill, Mrs. C. H. Clarke, Mrs. Bolton, Miss Bolton, Miss Whitlock, Miss Annie Stevens, Mrs. Henry Graham, Mr. J. T. Whitlock and Hon. George F. Hill.

Miss Grace Hinds returned last week from New York, after a pleasant visit of several weeks.

Miss Ellen Nelson is still in Boston studying music.

Rev. O. S. Newnam went to Fredericton for a short visit yesterday.

Miss Kate Stevens left on Monday for Halifax, to visit her sister, Mrs. William Torrance.

Mr. George Downes has returned from Boston.

Mr. Lyman Washburne's friends are sorry to learn he is confined to his home with a serious cold.

Miss Louie Taylor is recovering from her illness.

Mrs. Ralph Wood arrived home on Saturday, after several weeks spent at Newport, Rhode Island.

Miss May Toller left this morning for Fredericton, to visit her aunt Lady Tiller.

Mr. Thomas Blair left on Saturday evening for Halifax. Mr. Blair made many friends here during his short stay, who greatly regret his departure.

Mr. H. H. Barnard of Mott Haven, N. Y., has been spending a short vacation in Calais.

Miss Grace Nichols has returned from a lengthy visit in Boston.

Hon. L. G. Downes has returned from Augusta, Maine.

Miss Berta Markee is still quite ill and confined to her home.

Miss Jean Sprague of St. John, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. G. Vroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker, returned to their home in New Bedford, Mass., on Wednesday.

Mr. Edward McAllister, arrived home last week, and will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weston McAllister.

Mrs. Augusta Harlow of Quincy, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Barnard.

Mr. John Wetmore of St. John, was in town on Friday.

Mr. H. D. Pike, has gone to Boston for a short visit.

Mr. Fred Lowell has returned home after a two weeks visit in Boston and vicinity.

Mr. John Black of the bank of Nova Scotia, returned from Montreal on Saturday, having spent a fortnight in that city.

Dr. and Mrs. Myrall, are spending a few days in Boston.

Mr. Sherwood Skinner of St. John, was in town on Friday.

Mr. Henry B. Eaton has returned from New York city.

Messrs. James Murchie and W. A. Murchie, have gone to Florida for a three weeks visit.

Mrs. Nelson D. Skillings of Winchester, Mass., is visiting friends in Calais.

Hackmore Cures Coughs and Colds.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenny and J. H. Hawthorne.]

Mar. 8.—The town is full of visitors on account of the opening of the legislature which will take place tomorrow. Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley arrived yesterday and are at "Somerville." As Lady Tilley is proverbial for her lavish hospitality she is at all times a great acquisition to society.

Attorney General Blair arrived here Monday.

Hon. James and Mrs. Mitchell are at Mrs. Barker's, Brunswick street.

Dr. and Mrs. Stockton have taken apartments at Mrs. Black's for the session.

Mrs. W. K. Allen gave another of her delightful afternoon At Home's today.

Mrs. George Allen and Miss Fannie Burnside entertained a number of friends to a coasting party on Saturday evening, after which a hot supper was served at the residence of Mrs. Burnside.

Miss May Whelpley returned home from her visit to St. John on Saturday evening.

Mayor Chipman of St. Stephen was in the city yesterday.

Miss Brown of Hampton has been spending a few days in the city the guest of Mrs. H. C. Creed.

Miss Nellie Wetmore of St. John, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Miss Sterling, who have been visiting relatives in the city, left to-day for their home in Boston.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson of Dorchester, is at the Queen, and Mrs. Emmerson will join him in a few days.

Mrs. Oswald Smith of Dorchester, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Crockett.

Dr. and Mrs. Alward and Mr. and Mrs. Powell are at Mrs. Andrew Phair's for the session.

Mr. Geo. F. Beverly of St. John, visited his relatives in the city this week.

Mr. R. R. Rankins of St. John, spent a few days with friends here this week.

Mrs. Logan who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Edgecombe, returned to her home in St. John on Tuesday.

Miss Roberts and her brother Theo. leave on Friday for a visit to Windsor and Wolfville, N. S.

Hon. A. S. White and Mrs. White, of Sussex, are at the Queen for the session.

The Young Folks Society of the baptist church, to the number of about 80 had a delightful drive to Kingsclere on Monday evening, where they gave a Symposium in the public hall, after which supper was served and the return to the city was accomplished about one in the morning.

Miss Bona Johnston entertained her friends to a delightful dancing party on Friday evening.

Mrs. Landry, of St. John, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Everett, St. John street.

Mrs. J. S. Armstrong, of St. John, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whelpley mourn the loss of their little five year old boy, Harry, whose death occurred from diphtheria last evening.

Major H. Montgomery Campbell, Mrs. Campbell and children, of Fox Hill, King's Co., are in the city, the guests of the Major's mother, Mrs. Campbell, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, of Dorchester, are staying at the Queen.

Miss Nan Thompson gave a "small and early" dancing party on Thursday evening. A delightful evening was spent in tripping the light fantastic and at eleven a dainty supper was served. Those were: The Misses Lia and Agnes Tabor, Miss Lillian Beckwith, Miss Annie Phinney, Miss Ella Whitaker, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Edith Hilliard, The Misses Maggie, Carrie and Nan Babbitt, The Misses Whitehead, The Misses Katie and Daisy Beckwith, Miss Winnie Godkin, The Misses May and Maud McKee, Miss Bessie Gibson, Miss Edith Gibson, The Misses Bona and Nellie Johnston, Miss Mabel Barbour, Miss Hare, Miss Anna Blair, Miss Joe Thompson, Miss Florence Mitchell, Miss Flossie Wilson, and Messrs. Aubrey Tabor, Bud Babbitt, Walter Chesnut, Mort. Fowler, Maxwell, Gus George, Fraser, Harry Gibson, Roy Vanwart, Shute, J. Tibbitts, Chas. Allen, and Geo. McKee.

The choir of St. Paul's church, with a few invited guests, had a pleasant drive to Sheffield on Tuesday evening.

Dark rumors says that a wedding will soon take place in presbyterian circles, when one of the legal lights will take unto himself a musical partner for life. They will reside not far from the shadow of the church.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Payson have returned home, after a pleasant visit of six weeks to the upper St. Francois.

The many friends of Mrs. J. Henry Phair were much shocked to hear of her death, which occurred the evening after several weeks' illness. To her husband and daughter are extended the sympathy of the community.

Much sympathy is also extended to Mrs. Currier, in her loss, by death, of her husband, Capt. Currier, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, who passed peacefully to rest on Friday last, at the ripe age of 85 years.

Miss Mary Rainford of Grand Falls, is visiting at Mr. H. B. Rainford's.

Mrs. Chesnut gave a pleasant tobogganing on Monday evening for her son, Walter.

The Bread and Butter club had a snow-shoe tramp last night.

Miss Sutherland of St. John, is the guest of Miss Wark at Salamanka.

Dr. Baker of St. John, was in the city this week to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Capt. Currier.

Mr. Edwards of the Queen, returned home on Monday, from a visit to Halifax. CRICKET.

SUSSEX.

[Progress is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Boal and Geo. D. Martin.]

MARCH 8.—Mr. C. H. Fairweather, paid a short visit to Moncton last week.

Miss McNeil, of St. John, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Golding, went to Moncton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Drummond, returned from Moncton, where she was spending a few days with her daughter.

Mr. John Ross, of the firm of Ross & McPherson, furniture dealers, met with a very serious accident on Thursday. He was on a ladder, fixing some of the masonry, when he slipped and fell to the ground, and broke his right leg. Mrs. Ross was in St. John visiting her mother, she was summoned home on account of the accident.

Mr. Richard Roach, of St. John, was registered at the Queen, on Thursday.

Mrs. Adam McIntyre, of St. John, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Nelson Arnold, at the "Willows."

Mr. Andrew Brown, Chatham, was in town last week.

Mr. Stanley Murray, of Boston, is spending a few days at the Depot house.

Mr. P. N. Theall is visiting friends in Shediac.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. White paid a short visit in Sussex, the guests of Mrs. Andrew Price.

Mr. A. E. Dodge, the popular telegraph operator, is ill at her sister's residence. Her place in the office is being filled by Mr. Stewart, of Moncton.

Miss Lizzie Robertson returned on Tuesday from a three weeks' visit to Moncton.

Mr. Ernest Whitaker, of Hampton, and Mr. Arthur Keith, St. John, were in town on Saturday.

Canon Forsythe, Chatham, spent Monday in Sussex.

Mrs. Bain, St. John who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Upham went to Moncton for a few days visit.

Dr. Wilson, St. John paid a short visit to Sussex this week.

Mrs. A. McLean of the Depot house spent Sunday in St. John.

Miss Lizzie Hallett went to Dorchester on Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Flewelling is visiting friends in Clifton.

Rev. J. P. Sutherland paid a short visit to St. John this week.

Mr. J. W. Hart went to Clifton Wednesday to attend a meeting in connection with the creamery there.

Mr. LeB. Tweedie, Hampton, was in town on Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening, some of the young people drove to the residence of Mrs. George Dobson, Lower Cove, where a very pleasant time was spent.

Among those present were: The Misses Culbert, Ryan, Trices, Ross, Keith, Gorham, Robinson, Keith, Worden, Price, Golding, Hunter, the Misses McLeod, Barnes, Carmichael, Messrs. Keith, Hall, Keith, Trask, Shaver, Chestnut, Saffren, Price, Carmichael, Golding, Charters, Thompson, Robertson, Dehou, and Messrs. Miller.

Mr. K. Shivers, Campbellton, spent Wednesday, in Sussex.

Dr. Somerville, Springfield, was in Sussex, Wednesday.

Mrs. Lawson, Norton, spent Tuesday in Sussex.

Mrs. Sydney Welton and family, arrived in Sussex, on Wednesday, they are at present visiting Mrs. G. J. Smith.

Mr. Gilbert Bent and Mr. Fairweather, St. John, spent Tuesday in Sussex.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant went to St. John, Tuesday, to visit friends.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

MARCH 8.—A most enjoyable time was spent on Tuesday evening at the Tantramar Rink, the occasion being a skating party given by Dr. J. O. Calkin, Mr. B. B. Teed, Mr. Herbert E. Henderson, and Mrs. B. Eaton Patterson, kindly assisted by Mrs. F. McDonald and Mrs. Thos. Estabrooks.

The services of the Princess Louise artillery band were engaged for the evening and the music was well rendered. The ice was all that could be desired, and the many graceful forms of the skaters gliding around with various colored lights made a scene never to be forgotten. A dainty supper was served about ten, to which all did full justice. The committee should feel highly elated over their success as every one enjoyed themselves. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phinney, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Actkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pickard, Mr. Amos Actkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Mack, Misses Ayer, Landers, Masters, Crompton, Mack, Stockton, Lovitt, Crowe, McEwen, Coie, Vickerson, Woods, Large, Palmer, Fawcett, White, Black, J. Black, Smith, Agnes Smith, Alice Smith, Ethel Smith, Ayer, Fawcett, J. Fawcett Ogden, Blyden, Bell, Shewen, Rennie, Norris, Freeman, Cogswell, Estabrooks, Robinson, Letson, (Chatham) Scammell, (St. John) Wills, Hanson, Actkinson, Phinney, Anderson, C. Anderson, Chapman and Sprague. Messrs. Allison, Black, W. Black, Smith, Silliker, Campbell, Silliker, Warren, Gibson, Potts, Rice, Burill, Sprague, Payzant, Butler, Fawcett, Smith, Harrison, F. Harrison, Rennie, Mosher, King, Hetherington, Kirkpatrick and Shewen.

The "Bread and Butter Club" met at Miss Gretta Ogden's on Saturday. There was a full attendance and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. "Drive Whist," which by the way is very popular now, was played during the evening. The prizes, which were extremely pretty and appropriate, were won by Miss Edith Willis and Mr. Frank Harrison, and the boobies were carried off by Miss Gwendolen Shewen and Mr. Harry Butler.

The band at the rink attracted quite a number of skaters on Friday night.

Miss Etuel Lowerston, of Amherst, and Mrs. Thorne, of St. John, are the guests of Mr. Horace Fawcett.

Mr. T. S. Kirkpatrick, of St. John, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Emma Ayer, is visiting friends in Amherst.

Mrs. C. W. Harrison, went to St. John on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, spent Saturday in town.

Mr. W. C. Milner, spent part of last week in St. John.

Dr. George Munroe, of Amherst, and Mr. Purdy Hanford, were in town on Thursday.

Miss Bertha Burgess, of Hansport, is the guest of Mrs. H. A. Powell.

Some of our very young ladies enjoying a snow-shoe tramp on Thursday last, and very pretty they looked in their bright suits and caps, among them being, Misses Lena Powell, Daisy Estabrooks, Susie Webb, Florence Webb, Dora Wood, Gladys Shewen, Lizzie Ogden and Katie Brecken.

Mrs. C. W. Hanson, entertained quite a number of the College students to a "Rink Party," it is needless to say they all enjoyed themselves. 1893.

Hackmore Cures Coughs and Colds.

DORCHESTER.

MAR. 7.—Last week's notes went too early to mention Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith's pleasant At Home on Thursday. Mrs. Smith was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Mrs. J. Fred Allison, of Sackville. A large number of her lady friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buck returned last week from Boston, and are the guests of Mrs. John Hickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chapman are the proud possessors of a little girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Piercy are also to be congratulated on the arrival of a small stranger to their home.

Mr. Chas. S. Cole spent part of last week in Dorchester.

Miss White, of Mount Allison, spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Hay.

Miss Crompton, of the same institution, was the guest of Mrs. J. McGrath, on Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Emmerson has returned, and will spend the remainder of the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Tait were in Sackville on Saturday.

Dr. E. B. Chandler, of Moncton, was here on Monday on professional business.

Mr. Al. Gross and Mrs. Gross, were at the Dorchester Hotel, Monday evening.

Mr. J. A. Edwards, of Fredericton, and his niece, Miss Edwards, were in Dorchester a few hours Monday evening.

Rev. J. Roy Campbell went to St. John on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson left for Fredericton Wednesday evening. Mrs. Emmerson will remain there during the session.

Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, who will also pass the time of the session at the capital, left Wednesday evening for Fredericton.

Mr. M. G. Teed has been very sick, but is now improving.

Mr. W. W. Brownell is seriously ill.

Mrs. J. A. McQueen, accompanied by her sister, Miss Etta Chapman, left on Monday for Amherst, to be absent a week or two.

Hon. A. D. Richard left for Fredericton on Thursday.

Mrs. Lizzie Bishop went to Fredericton on Wednesday to visit friends there.

County Court is in session, having opened on Tuesday—Judge Landry presiding. A large number of strangers are in consequence in attendance. Among the outside lawyers present at the opening were Messrs. Wells, Smith, C. W. Robinson, Geo. P. Thomas, H. Atkinson, E. Girouard, of Moncton; and Messrs. Powell, Bennett and Teed, of Sackville. The medical profession seemed to be as strongly represented as the legal, as I noticed no less than nine doctors in town on Tuesday.

BAIE VERTE.

MARCH 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, Southampton, are at the parsonage, the guests of Mr. L. S. Johnson.

Mr. Edward Ogden, Sackville, was in town on Monday, the guest of Mr. Black.

Miss Copp, of Bristol, is visiting Mr. Albert Copp.

Mrs. Rose and Miss Beckwith were the guests of Mr. Bedford Harper, last week.

Mrs. Albert E. Wilson, St. John, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Black.

Mr. Woodford Avard, of Shediac, was in town on Saturday.

Saturday the 4th being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Prescott's marriage, a large number of friends and relations, assembled at their home to congratulate and wish them long continued happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were the recipients of many pretty and valuable presents.

Mr. Arthur Copp, of Brooklyn, was in town on Monday. Mr. Copp goes to Port Egin to take charge of the school, in the absence of Mr. Wells, M. P. P., who left on Monday night's train for Fredericton.

Another Baie Verte boy has distinguished himself abroad. Mr. E. P. Carey, B. A., who so successfully led the graduating class of '92 at Mount Allison, has recently been awarded high honors of a tangible nature at Harvard College.

Mrs. Read entertained the sewing circle on Thursday.

Mrs. Woodford Avard, Shediac, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Clifford Copp, Baie Road. OMEGA.

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Barry Smith and John Loane & Co.]

MARCH 8.—On Tuesday evening, of last week, Miss Mabel Jewett entertained a snow-shoe party, after a long and merry tramp, at her father's residence, Broadway.

No less than three small parties were given on Thursday evening.