The weather was rather against amusements a the end of last week and the beginning of this. Spring was indulging in its well known inclemency, and the two enterprising football and bicycle clubs have had to hide their heads. Our weather has not equalled St. John's; that is our only consolation.

The Badminton club has been revived with some brickness, as it is held in the drill shed under cover. This is an R. A. and R E. organization I am told, and all lady players are guests, not subscribers. Miss Ross takes a great interest in the game, and plays very well as does Mrs. Maycock. Miss West who is now in England, was formerly one of the most energetic of Badminton enthusiasts.

A very pleasant At Home was given by Mrs. Weatherbe on Saturday last at her house in South street. There was just enough people to make the afternoon a success, and the usual tea party crush was delightfully wanting. This was owing to the forethought of the hostess, [who had divided her friends into two lists, to the second of which invitations have been issued for this afternoon, (Sat.) Mrs. Weatherbe, who is a very excellent hostess, was ably assisted last Saturday by her niece Miss Minnie Johnstone, of Stellarton.

On Monday evening the Orpheus Club had a full house for the repetition of their sacred concert. A few small changes had taken place since the first performances. Dr. Slayter singing the music formerly alloted to Mr. Gillis very well indeed; and the places left vacant by the Leicestershire men in the orchestra being very acceptably filled by bandsmen from the Liverpool regiment. On the whole this re peated concert was a tremendous success, and an improvement upon its first hearing. Mrs. Hagarty, as well as Dr. Slayter and Mrs. Taylor, sang particularly well, and the Orpheus Club gave their nonsubscribing patrons an evening of thorough musical enjoyment. I am sorry to hear that the club expect to lose their clever conductor at the end of this season. It is to be hoped that Mr. Porter will reconsider his present intention, if this report is true. Apropos of organists, I hear that the new organist and choir master for St. Luke's cathedral is expected on the steamer now due from England. The German Men of War which came into Halifax to coal on Saturday last made rather a small sensation. What with the saluting from and to the Citadel, and the appearance in the streets of threes and fours of smart foreign officers, attention was generally attracted to the Empress Augusta and Saturday afternoon; perhaps it was untair to judge while our German visitors were coaling, but they did not seem to me as well and smartly kept as

The City Club are the pioneers of ladies' club life in Halifax, and I fancy it will be a long time before their pleasant example is followed by the more conservative and older club in Hollis street. The second Thursday in every month has been set apart by the City Club as a day when members may ask ladies in to dine, and among the ladies who accepted this povel invitation last week were Mrs. Arthur Corren and Miss Lawson.

On Tuesday evening Sir John and Miss Ross gave a small dinner at Bellevue for Miss Dundas of Scotland, who has been spending the winter in the West Indies, and goes to England by today's steamer.

The conversazione held by St Andrews lodge on Tuesday evening was a very large and successful affair, capitally managed and carried out. An address of welcome was given by Worshipful Master B. W. Swinerton, of St. Andrews lodge, and one of historical interest was well delivered by M. W. G. M. Fraser. There was a charming little musical programme, of which Mrs. Hagarty and Mrs. Taylor were the stars, and altogether the most enjoyable of evenings was spent. A great many members of the craft had come in from various parts of the province for the purpose of the celebration of St. Andrew's one hundred and 25 anniversary, and the gathering of ladies showed how kindly an interest they took in an institution dear to the hearts of their male friends

The chaperones on Tuesday evening were Mrs. I. C. Mahon, Mrs. S. M. Brookfield, Mrs. Allan Crowe and Mrs. B. W. Swinerton. Among the guests were many very prominent members, and not least of the attractions of the evening was a very good little

The bazaar given on Tuesday at the Church of England Institute in aid of the church at Grand Pre, was very successful when the state of the weather was considered. There were so many pretty things at it that it was continued on Wednesday with a very gratifying result to Mrs. Weatherbe, and o her people interested in the welfare of the little church. The pink tea was delightfully pretty, and quite as good as it looked. The salad bowl competition turned out to be a very clever little idea for making money, due I think to Mrs. F. Jones. The salad bowl was filled with small bits of paper, folded with a quotation written upon each. The purchaser bought one, guessed the author of the quotation, and the most correct guesser and largest investor in this literary salad, won a prize. That of Tuesday was won by Miss Lawson, and was a smart little tea-tray. About two hundred dollars has been realized for the object of this modest little bazaar.

Invitations were issued on Monday for a small dance Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Al. Bauld, Victoria road.

The surprise party has appeared again; a very pleasant one was given to a certain popular Halifax hostess last week, by the most intimate and daring of her young triends. I hear of another to take place in an empty house, now waiting for the arrival of its owners on the first of May.

Judge Hodgson, of Charlottetown, has been spending this week in Halifax. Mrs. Ryland, once very popular here as Miss Kaulbach, has been making a short visit to her Mrs. Wickwire, who has been spending the winter with her danghter, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, returned this week to Canning.

Colonel Saunders has returned from leave in England, and Surgeon-Major Lees-Hall, is expected by

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Sedgewick, are in Halifax; and Mr. Jack Bingay, and Mr. F. Flint, of Yarmouth, are registered at the Halifax Hotel. Miss Bingay is still the guest of Mrs. A. M. Duoll, and will remain until the return of Mr. Douil from the Queen Hotel, Halifax. The funeral will take place in St. John, where the late Mrs. Sheraton is buried. Miss Sheraton arrived from Charlottetown in time to take leave of her father, who has for a long time resided with his son, Mr. A. B. Sheraton. Mr. Sheraton was aged eighty years, and was a native of Stockton on Tees, England, and a grandson of the celebrated Sheraton whose artistic reputation is connected with Chippendale.

I hear that we are to have old friends at Bellevue when Sir John Ross' stay here expires It is not thought, however, that General Stephenson will receive the appointment, but another man equally well known in Halifax.

I hear on good authority that an old summer fixture in Halifax, abandoned for the past couple of years is to be revived. The Banker's regatta is once more to be held on the North West Arm, and will probably be as successful and pleasant an occasion as in its most palmy days.

It is not often one sees a "clerk in holy orders" in arms against the S. P. C. Much interest is taken in the "dog case" at present, and rumors of develop

WINDSOR.

APRIL 18 .- A concert given by the children in the Sunday school room of Christ church last Tuesday the Sea Eagle, as the ships' names go in English. | was very successful. The room was crowded and A great many people boarded one or the other on | the little ones performed their various parts very prettily. Mr. Acklam and Mrs. F. A. G. Onseley assisted them with a song each, both received encores. With these exceptions the entertainment English ships of the same order. Their officers | was entirely by the children and reflected great credit upon those who trained them. Mrs. Vroom. Miss Dimock, Miss Campbell and Miss Hind were,

I believe, those who undertook this arduous task. In Miss Dimock's absence on Saturday last, Miss Harvey played the organ in Christ church in the morning, and Dr. Willets played in the evening. Rev. F. W. Vroom occupied the pulpit, Ven. Archdeacon S. Weston-Jones, being ill with a very bad

The death of Miss Rose Hiltz took place very suddenly last Tuesday morning, after only a few days illness. She was the daughter of Mr. Daniel Hiltz. The funeral was on Friday. The "Y's" of which she was a member sent a very handsome floral tribute in the shape of a "Y." Mr. and Mrs. Harley spent last week in Windsor with Mrs. Hind on their way to Digby where Mr. Harley has been newly appointed rector.

Mrs. Lewis Rice, from Truro, is visiting her mother Mrs. J. B. Black.

Miss Louise Blanchard has gone to Newton, Mass., to visit her sister, Mrs. C. White, her friends will miss her very much.

Miss Jean Smith and Miss Evelyn Smith, have gone back to school at Aylesford. Miss Ethel Shand, who has been home from school for a rest, has returned to Wolfville. Miss

Kate Neily, who has been visiting at Mrs. Shand's accompanied her as far as Hantsport. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, have gone to New York to consult the physicians there, about their little daughter, Alice, and their friends will be pleased to hear that she is likely to recover. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curry have gone to New York

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, arrived on Saturday to visit Mr. Whithead's mother, Mrs. Willetts.

Mr. Clarence Morris is home from Dalhousie. Miss Georgie Morris' friends are very sorry to hear of her illness, and hope soon to see her about at "Thornton." Rev. S. W. Clift, was a visitor with Miss Annie Pratt, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Wilcox.

Mr. Theodore Roberts, who has been with his brother, Prof. Roberts, for a short time, is recovering from his attack of la grippe. Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham, left on Saturday morning for Boston; Mr. Graham possesses considerable talent as a caricaturist, and we hope he may develop his talent, and win for himself success, in this or whatever other sphere he may work in. Rev. Anderson Rogers was in Wolfville on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Meikle supplied his pulpit here in the morning, and Rev. Mr. King, in the evening. Rev. Mr. Meikle has been holding evangelistic meetings for some weeks past, and has had crowded congregations every evening; still there are enough useless young m n left to stand on the street Mr. P. S. Burnham, has returned from New

PARRSBORO.

PROGRESS is for sale at Parrsboro Bookstore.] The society event of last week was the very delightful progressive party given by Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson on Friday evening. As a host and hostess Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson have nothing to be desired. Attwelve o'clock refreshments were served, and afterwards came the distribution of the handsome prizes. Mrs. D. P. Young and Mr. N. C. Nordby were the winners of the king prizes, a toilette bot le in a silver can, and a cigar can of Russia leather. The progressive prizes fell to Miss Rice and Mr. Campbell, a bottle of perfume and a silver photo frame; the booby prizes, a game of tiddledy winks and a small whistle attached to a card on which was inscribed a legend, were respectively the lot of Mrs. Robert Aikman and Mr. Cooke. Miss Lizzie Aikman returned from Boston last

BRIDGETOWN.

APR L 19 .- Among the society events last week was the marriage of Mr. Horace Bailey, London, and Miss Mary Murdock. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, "Mount Pleasant." The bride wore a very pretty dress of cream cashmere. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left by the 1.15 train for Hamilton, Ontario, their future home. The bride was the recipient of numerous and costly presents. Mrs. E. I. Simonds, St. John, is the guest of Mrs.

Alfred Hoyt.

Miss Ethel Johnson, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Edith Quirk, has returned to Welfville.

Mrs. Hastings Freeman has returned to Halifax, accompanied by her little daughter, Blois.

Mr. Campbell (Montreal), spent Sunday in town, also Mr. Max Murdock.

Mr. S. Landon Cowling, who for four years was a resident of Bridgetown, was up from Annapolis on Friday, accompanied by his father. Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Huntingdon, who have been visiting at "Riverside Cottage," have returned to 600 2 APRIL 18 .- Christ church was dressed with flowers on Easter-day I believe for the first time in its history to the great pleasure of its usual worshippers and of the large congregation that attended the morning and evening services. The pulpit and lectern were almost hidden by banks of fllowers in pots, very beautifully arranged, and the fount was filled with Easter and calla lilies; cut flowers in vases were also placed on the chancel window, above the communion table, and the effect was very pretty. The music was good and the services bright and hearty.

Mrs. D. McNeill Parker had a large "at home" on the 11th which was largely attended and was much enjoyed by the guests. I think there were between seventy and eighty ladies present. Some very smart frocks were worn but the late season keeps the tailor-made gown largely to the fore. Mrs Parker and her daughters were assisted in their pleasant duties by Mrs. Davies, Miss Louise Black, Miss Dustan and Miss Norah McKaye.

Mrs. Milsom also had a small party on Tuesday evening, for her daughter Miss Lena, who is attending schoo' at Mount St. Vir cent, and who was at home for the Easter holidays. The juveniles erjoyed themselves to the utmost, for Mrs. Milsom is capital hostess, and her parties are always voted "very jolly," by both big and little people.

The Misses Sadie Oland and Lily Lago are also pupils at "the Mount."

Mrs. Murray Dodd, (Sydney,) black net and satin. she and her children have been spending the winter with ter people. She brought out with her a young Scotch lady, Miss Jenny Dees, who if report is be believed, has left "home and native land," to marry a countryman of her own, a gentleman who has lived amongst us for several years. Miss Dees made her first appearance in society here, as a guest at Mrs. Parker's tea.

I hear there is a wedding definitely settled to come off upon the 26th, when Mr. Prescott Johnstone is to marry Miss Alice Hare of Bedford. I do not yet know where the wedding is to be, but I imagine that it will be either in St. Paul's Halifax, or very quietly at the little Bedford church, owing to the serious illness of the fair bride's father. If possible I will send an account of the wedding in my next letter.

Mrs. J. Walter Allison is visiting her husband's mother and sister in Sackville, N. B.
I am sorry to hear of the tedicus illness of Mrs. Van Barnevelt, who with her husband has been in Dartmouth all winter. Their summer home is, I believe in the Magdalen Islands, but they usually spend their winters in Halifax or Dartmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Van Barneveit have made many friends here, who will miss them greatly when they leave.

Mr. and Mrs. C. DeWo te McDonald have been in St. John, N. B., attending the wedding of Mrs. McDonald's sister, Miss Pat Robinson to Mr Percy Powyes, which took place in Trinity church on the 5th. Mr. McDorald has I hear, taken a house in Halitax and moves over with his family on the "regulation first." #### DARTMOUTH.

APRIL 14 .- The recital given last month in Christ church in aid of the organ fund was quite a success, and was listened to with pleasure by a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Helsby was assisted by Mr. W. R. Foster, of Darimouth, and Mr. Cummings, of St. Paul's, Halifax, as soloists and by Mr. Page as violinist.
