AMHERST.

[Progress is for sale at Amherst, by George Douglas and H. A. Hillcoat.]

FEB. 1 .- My last letter appears to have reached PROGRESS to late for insertion. Fortunately festiv. ities were on a very limited scale last week, but some few items though a little passe will be of pleasant interest, among which may be mentioned the delightful drive enjoyed by the independent and sociable nine on Friday evening of last week. The merry party left town in the early part of the evening arriving at Sackville in time to enjoy a few hours' skating in the rink, afterwards partaking of supper a the Temperence hotel, before returning

His Lordship Bishop Courtenay administered the rite of confirmation te a large number of candidates in Christ church on Monday afternoon of last week. He was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Harris at the vicarage and left by the evening train for Montreal. Rev. Mr. Bliss, of Westmoreland and Rev. Cecil Wiggins attended the service.

Miss Chipman, of Bridgetown, who has been visiting Miss Harding, went to Sackville last week, where she will spend the remainder of the winter the guest of Mrs. Warren.

Mr. Charles Bulmer, who has been in the service of the I. C. R., for the past three years, has gone on a trip to Denver, expecting to return in the spring via Chicaga to visit the World's Fair. Miss Main has gone for a visit of a few weeks with Mer sisiter Mrs. D. A. Bishop, Truro.

Miss Maggie Christie spent a few days with friends at River Hibbert.

A delightful whist party was enjoyed at the handsome home of Mrs. D. A. Chapman last Wednesday evening. The guests were a happy number of mar-ried and single friends of the hostess who as usual spared nothing that would add to the pleasure of those present. The very pretty prizes fell to the lot of Miss Fannie Sleep and Mr. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Inglis Bent visited Dorchester last Miss Rogers, organist in the Baptist church, went to St. John on Wednesday for a fortnight's visit. Her place in the church will be supplied by Mrs. Sherman Rogers during her absence.

Mrs. Brown has returned from Halifax to remain the rest of the winter in Amherst to the great delight of her large number of friends.

Mr. Harry Smith is also in town for a few days. Miss Maud Tighe left on Thursday to visit friends Kentville. Miss Chandler of Dorchester, is the guest of her friend Mrs. Ketchumn.

Senator Dickey has gone to Ottawa. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dickey who will visit her daughter Mrs. Maynard.

Mr. Arthur Dickley, M. P., left for Ottawa last week to attend parliament.
Mr. H. G. Ketchumn has gone for a trip of a few weeks to Montreal and Ottawa.

Mrs. Trueman, who has been paying a visit to her daughter, returned to her home in St. John last Among the small and pleasant teas of last week was one at the home of Mrs. Ketchem. Although not large in number it was excellent in every other way. Later in the week she entertained the members of the Young Ladies' Guild, a new institution recently organized in connection with Christ church of which she is president. Mrs. W. Douglas is her amiable and capable assistant.

The A. M. B. band, accompanied by the young ladies of the national drill will give a concert in Sackville on Friday evening. Mrs. Tupper and Miss Campbell will also assist.

Judge Morse will favor the public with one of his lectures this week. A sleighing party was enjoyed on Friday evening by thirty or more of the young folks, who seemed to and pleasure in their merry undertaking. Although the evening was intensely cold they gathered at the home of Mrs. Christie after the drive and enjoyed a

ANTIGONISH.

FBB. 1 .- Plenty of snow, lovely fine weather and a good moon has made the town quite lively for the | payers in Ward 1. last week. There were two sleigh drives last week, both of which we very much enjoyed. The first was to Locaber, on Tuesday, where the party stopped at and Mrs. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Malden, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Brine, Mrs. L.C. Archibald, Miss Cunningham, Miss C. Cunningham, Miss N. Nooten, Miss Gossip, Miss Miss Violet MacDonald; Messrs. Clayton, Cunningham, W. and H. Archibald, A. Boreham, J. Turnbuil, W. Foster and Dr. Agnew. It is rumored that the two sleighs that started late got lost, and instead of Locaber found their way to Pitcher's Farm. The party arrived home about one o'clock.

The second drive was to Bayfield and here the party was entertained at Mr. Edward Randall's hospitable home. It is said that this drive surpassed the first one. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gray, Mrs. J. A. Kirk, Mrs. L. Archibald, Miss McNair, Miss B. Cunningham, Miss A. Cunningham, Miss Gossip, Messrs. Steeves, W. Curry, H. Archibald and H. Graham. Dancing was kept up until one o'clock when the party started for Antigonish where they arrived about three.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT JAN. 31 .- The reception by the members of St. Stephen Encampment, "Knights Templars" on Thursday evening, was the most brilliant affair that has taken place on the St. Croix for many years. Over five hundred invitations were extended including the members of Hugh de Payen's Commandery of Calais with ladies, other masons, and many outside friends, nearly three hundred guests being present. An efficient committee of ladies took charge of the refreshments and a supper was served from ten until two.

The occasion was the opening of the new apartments in Freemasons' Hall, containing, in addition to the usual ante-rooms, a thoroughly equipped kitchen, and large banquet-room, opening by means of folding doors, into the spacious hall, which has been newly furnished in crimson plush and antique oak. The ceiling is a light buff and the walls are a delicate fawn, with a frieze of rich terra cotta, intersected by gilt mouldings, with curtain to harmonize. On the walls were numerous masonic pictures, also crayon portraits of Past Masters, Samuel Welock, George F. Pinder and J. T. Whit-

The hall was lighted by a large brass gasolier in the centre, containing fifteen jets in the form of candies, representing, doubtless, the fifteen shining lights composing the committee of whom were, Noble and Eminent Commander J. Ripley, F. M. Murchie, R. W. Grimmer, J. M. Murchie, Andrew Mungall, R. W. Whitlock, Secretary to Committee. The ladies reception committee were: Miss Whitlock, Mrs. B. Ripley, Mrs. W. W. Inches, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. John L. Ray, Mrs. James

The floor managers were Messrs. J. Whitlock, J. Chipman, W. S. A. Douglas, Frank E. Perkins, George J. Clarke, W. F. Todd, Frank W. Smith, Dr. J. M. Deacon, W. A. Dinsmore, F. L. Rey-

Dancing commenced at half past nine o'clock, excellent music being furnished by Baa's orchestra, assisted by Mr. B. D. Wyatt, of Boston, as prompter. A well arranged programme was participated in by a large number of guests, while others enjoyed whist and bagatelle, card rooms being conveniently located in Vroom Brothers' warerooms down stairs. A pleasing feature of the evening was the Knight Templar quadrille where the uniforms of the knights and the beautiful costumes of the ladies formed a brilliant spectacle. The encampment of St. Stephen was further represented by fraters Henry A. Berry, George F. Cox, H. J. Burbank, Hon William Douglas, John L. Ellwell, S. R. Gilmore, J. C. Henry, W. J. Louden, J. R.
