APRIL 12 .- One of the prettiest and pleasantest tea parties given here for some time was that of Mrs. Wa'ter Bradnee's Friday evening, at her beautiful home "West Wolde." "High tea" was served at seven o'clock, afterwards whist and music occupied the evening. There was also an hour of waltzing, which was greatly enjoyed by the younger guests, for the floor on which they danced being made of polished pine, was most delightful to waltz-

ers. The invited guests were, Mayor and Mrs. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clerke, Captain and Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, Mr. and James G. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Teed, Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Murchie, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inches, Dr. and Mrs. Deinstadt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Captain and Mrs. Mc. Allister, Mrs. Hunter Duncan, Judge Stevens, Messrs. J. T. Whitlock, John Stevens and J. E.

The testimonial concert given to Miss Louie Taylor, by some of her musical friends, on Thursday evening, was pronounced generally to be the finest concert ever given in St. Croix hall. The audience was large and composed the elite of St. Stephen; it being most noticeable the absence of Calais patronage. More noticeable, perhaps, from the fact that whenever Calais talent appears in St. Croix hall, the willingness of St. Stephen to extend its patronage to help swell the audience and the proceeds. The singing of Mrs. C. W. Harrison was exquisite, and created much enthusiasm among the audience. The reading and dancing of "The Minuet" by Miss Margaret Alexander was most pleasing, graceful and artistic. Miss Taylor and Miss Marian Ogden received great attention and admiration for the excellence of their violin solos. The piano solo of Miss Clarke, the banjo playing, the singing of the Warren Quartette, all helped to make the concert the great success it proved to be. Miss Taylor is to be congratulated upon the arrangement of so admirable a programme, and the music loving public hope she will at an early date give them another APRIL 12 -The tea and fancy sale, which took place last Thursday evening, under the management of the Willing Workers Guild, of St. George's church, was most successful, the proceeds being in the vicinity of $120. The vacant shop in Victoria block, where the sale was held, was so prettily draped and decorated as to be quite transformed from its ordinary appearance, and the various tables presented a very bright and attractive picture. The fancy table was presided over by Mrs. Hanington. Mrs. G. W. Daniel, Mrs. S. F. Wilbur and Mrs. I. W. Binney, while Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Mrs. Geo. C. Peters, Miss Forster, Miss Nellie Croasdale and Miss Greta Peters took charge of the refreshment table. These hard working ladies are to be warmly congratulated upon the success of their undertaking, the receipts of which will go a long distance towards paying off the small debt still remaining on the new rectory.

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.) APRIL 12 .- I am really sorry to say that I was unable until to day to send to Progress an account of the ball given in the Masonic hall on Easter Monday evening, under the auspices of the "Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers." I will now try and give your many readers a description of this enjoyable gathering, which was a most brilliant affair. The spacious hall was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and Chinese lanterns, and presented a most charming appearance. The committee, Messrs. E. R. Kean, W. F. Smallwood, D. K. Cool, W. J. Coffey and W. C. Hunter, deserve credit in making this, their first entertainment, surpass anything of its kind yet held here. The music, furnished by the McEachran orchestra of Chatham, was excellently rendered, and would compare favorably with any city orchestra. About ninety couples took part in the opening number, "The Grand March and Circle," which was led by Mrs. W. Gross and Mr. Norman Sinclair, of Moncton.
