Jan. 2 .- Tuesday St. John's day was an interesting one for the Free Masons in Windsor. In the morning there was a beautiful choral service at Christ church conducted by Rev. Dr. Willetts, pres. Oattey's orchestra, and was exceedingly good. ident of Kings college and a very impressive sermon was preached by Rev. F. Norman Lee of Halifax. A very good dinner was partaken of at the hotel "Thomas". Among the guests present were Rev. F. Norman Lee, Archdeacon Weston Jones, Mr. Dodwell and Mr. Mellish of Halifax. The Free Masons kindly entertained their friends in the evening at Reform club hall about four hundred invitations having been issued. The chair was occupied by worshipful master J. Curry, who with kindly words welcomed the guests. Mr. J. Godfrey Smith of Halifax kept the audience in a good humor with his comic songs and resitations. Rev. Norman Lee in a manner that touched the hearts of all present. Mr. Dodwell who has a fine voice also sang very pleasingly. The duet by Messrs Curry and Mc-Murray was much enjoyed as was also Mr. McMurray's solo, in fact there was not a dull number in the whole performance and the members of Welstord lodge are to be congratulated on the very successful way in which they entertained their friends. Mrs. Carver has returned from Londonderry. Miss Maud Haley is visiting in Kentville. Mrs. James King has gone to Ottawa to visit her daughtdr Mrs. St. Clare. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Drysdale have been spending a few days in Windsor.

There was a very pleasant party at Mrs. Onseley's, last Thursday evening.

Miss Miller and Miss Sadie King, are visiting friends in Halifax.

Mrs. Henry Dimook had a very large children's party on Friday evening. The children all spent a delightful evening and for them, the hour of ten came all too soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie are visiting in Truro. Mr. Mosher, who is attending Mount Allison College, is spending his vacation in Windsor.

Mrs. Norman Dimock, had a small party on New Year's eve.

Miss Jane Curry is in Halifax, visiting her brother Dr. Curry. One of the pleasantest parties of the season, was given by Mrs. Henry Dimock on Monday evening, in honor of her daughter, Miss Armstrong, of Middleton, who is spending a few weeks at home. Rev. Arnoldus Miller and family, left Windsor, this week, to make their home in Upper Canada. Mr. Miller who has been head master of the Collegiate school, for several years, and Mrs. Miller carry with them the good wishes of their Windsor friends.

JAN. 4 .- The usual midnight service in Christ

New Year's calls. Monday evening the annual reception in the Y.M.

C. A. hall was largely attended and well conducted in every way. The music was in charge of Prof. | Miss Christie McKaracher, Miss Daisy Bell; Messrs. Sterne who displayed his usual good 'aste in the Basil Bell, Wal. Jackson, Clarence Hoyt, F. Mcvarious selections. The singing with but few exceptions was by the St. Stephen's choir.

Mrs. Hodson gave a unusually pleasant party to a large number of her friends on Monday evening, some of whom managed to take in a part of the "reception" before enjoying her hospitality. The honored guests I understand were Mr. and Mrs. Cummings who are visiting the hostess.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Sterne gave a charming party to the little friends of Master Sterne who was a very clever host; a magic lantern display and pinning the tail on the donkey were among the best appreciated things of the evening except the delicious tea and ever welcome "sweets."

Possibly the last "tree of the holiday season was given on Monday evening by Mrs. Munro to her little pupils, who are always pleased to meet at her home. The school room was converted into an unusually inviting place, in the corner of which was an little guest in addition to which each received a pretty souvenir of Mis. Munro's painting.

Miss Ethel Chapman has gone to spend a few weeks with friends in Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Tremain have returned from Miss Ella Hilson arrived home on Wednesday from a visit to friends in Halifax. Dr. and Mrs. Bliss, have returned from Moncton, where they spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Miss Binnet, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. T. Pipes for several weeks past, will leave for her home in Arrichat the last of the week. She has established herselt in Amberst society so very pleasantly that she will be greatly missed by the numerous friends made during her visit. Miss Bessie Wilson is spending her holidays in will leave again on the first of the week for their various schools, leaving a very unpleasant blank. It is currently reported that Prof. Barnaby will return to Amherst from Philadelphia at an early date. MAITLAND.

JAN. 4 .- PROGRESS has lately made its appearance in our village, and judging from the rapid sales I should say it was bound to become popular. Twenty minutes after its arrival on Saturday not one copy could be had and the "woe-begone" expression which accompanied your genial agent's " All gone, Sir," baffles description. All this goes to show that the people of Maitland know a really good thing when they see it.

Mr. E. R. Stuart is spending his vacation at Trinity rectory, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Martell. The concert given by the Forresters in the "hall" was a great success. A good programme was presented, and where all acquitted themselves so well although suffering from a severe cold sang "Daddy" it would be hard to particularize. Miss Bessie Bar. brick's reading was especially good, as was also Miss McArthur's. Mrs. Creelman and Mr. Brown sang a very pretty duett, and Mrs. Martell's contralto solo was an excellent number. Mr. Leonard Rine's beautiful tenor voice was heard to advantage in all the choruses. A very pleasant feature was at the close of the entertainment, when Mr. Isaiah McDougall (on behalf of the lodge) presented Rev. G. R. Martell and Mr. C. W. Brown, each with a handsome dressing case.

[PROGRESS is for sale at the Eclectic Book Store. JAN. 2.-Christmas and New Year passed quietly away and services appropriate to the season were held in all the churches. St. Mary's was as usual prettily decorated and the presbyterian church was attractive tree bearing a well filled stocking for each | very prettily trimmed with evergreens and flowers. Monday was observed about town as a festive day, and the people were entertained in the evening by the Orpheus club, in the Market building.

Miss Laura Crawford, for several months assistant in the telephone office, returned to her home, Charlottetown, laden with good wishes for the New Year from her Summerside friends.

The Methodist entertainment was very successful, and many passed a pleasant New Year's in Ludlow Hall. On the same day the Presbyterians had a grand tea in Market Hall.

Wednesday the 28th. inst. the home of Mr. Mc Nutt was the scene of gaiety when his daughter Miss Edith was married to Mr. D. R. Currie. The bride was dressed in white silk with veil and orange blossoms and looked charming. Her sister Miss Janie was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue silk Rev. Henry Dickie supported the groom. About twenty-five guests were present and a very happy Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Read celebrated their golden wedding on the 28th inst. The bride and groom still look well and I would not be surprised if they reach the diamond celebration in domestic bliss.

Miss Eva Graves left us about two weeks ago for Montreal, where she will spend the winter, with Mr. The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school gave a very pretty Christmas concert in the hall.
