On Wednesday afternoon the only thing doing was a small snow shoe party, the guests at which had a capital tramp out to the Arm and across its snow covered ice. This is the first thing of the kind we have had this year, and it is to be hoped not the last; for any amusement which can be followed in Lent, and is fresh into the bargain is a windfall.

People have apparently got over the fancy for sleighing, which took such violent possession of now very good, I have not heard of one driving party this week. The Leicestershire regiment's proposed drive has not yet come off, but will take place I believe on the first vacant afternoon.

Colonel Rolph, who is a Canadian, has been visiting relatives in Montreal and Toronto. He returned on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wade, of Bridgewater, have been making a short visit to Halifax. The names of Dr. and Mrs. Muir, of Truro, and Mrs. F. D. Laurie, of New Glasgow, are among the passengers by the Taymouth Castle, on Thursday, for the West Indies.

The Leicestershire regiment leaves for the West Indies on or about the twentieth of March, rather earlier than was expected. There are such varied rumors about the regiment which is to take its place that one is quite as much at sea about it as though one had heard nothing, but of the things said on the subject the only tangible facts seem to be that it is a very young regiment, as regards its officers, and more given to sport than the Leicester regiment To the latter most people will feel sorry to say good-

One thing is to be hoped about the new regiment, that they will go in for skating. The rink this winter has been more than a trifle dull, chiefly for want of men who can dance on their skates. The once impossible sight of three sets of lancers of "ladies only," on one afternoon, has been a common one this season, while as to waltzing (with a few ex ceptions) those men of the garrison who go in for it, rather attempt than accomplish it.

In the way of tea, the subscribers to the private afternoons have this winter taken it in turn to supply it themselves, instead of it being provided by the committee. This has been a great relief to the latter, financially, as the tea and cake was a large item in their expenditure. There is money enough in hand, thanks to this sensible innovation, to have a band twice a week till the end of the season.

By-the-way, what has become of that time honored institution, the rink party. In old times a succession of them were usually given during Lent, but I have not heard even one spoken of for this season.

Invitations are out for a large euchre party on Thursday evening, at the house of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffus. It is to consist, as euchre parties almost invariably do in Halifax, of young, which means unmarried people. Poker is the game which is chiefly fashionable among the card playing married ladies of Halifax.

I hear that Colonel Hill will not leave this station quite so early as was expected, his successor not having yet been appointed. This will be good news to the many friends of Colonel and Mrs. Hill, who will doubtless have a good many small entertainments given for them. They will reside for the short time they are here, in the house in Spring Garden Road, where the bridegroom lived before his mar-

The Cookery School has biossomed out into a triumphant success, owing to the energy of the ladies interested in it, and also very largely to the pleasant manner, and great capability of Miss Ormond, the teacher.

Half past nine, every morning, for the last fortnight, has seen a large gathering of ladies in the class room, Mrs. Daly being one of the most regular and punctual. The dishes have all been sold as soon as made, while many of them were engaged by various ladies three and four days in advance. Some of the savouries were particularly good, as were the cold entries. We can look foward now to the first entertainment given by some of Miss Ormond's attentive scholars, as the probable first appearance in Halifax of many new dishes.

By the way, Sunday Suppers have been rather on the increase since Lent has come in; many people who would not give anything else, indulging in

On Monday morning at the Revere House, the residence of the aunt of the bride, the marriage took place of Miss Katie Priest Cullen, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Priest, and Mr. Arthur Beal, of St. John. The wedding was extremely quiet; the ceremony was performed by the Revd. N. LeMoine, rector of St. Mark's. Miss Priest was married in a travelling dress of fawn colored cloth and emerald velvet, in which she looked very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Beal left by the mid-day train on a short wedding tour. They will reside in future in St. John.

On Tuesday evening Colonel and Mrs. Jolly gave a small dinner at their house in Victoria Road. Mrs. Jolly is a charming hostess, and her small dinners and afternoon teas have always been the pleasantest things possible.

I understand that on the departure of Colonel and Mrs. Jolly, their vacant house will be taken by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hart.

I hear that the engagement is announced of Mrs. Peters, widow of the late Henry Peters, to a gentleman of Montreal. Mrs. Peters, was during her residence in Halifax, one of the most popular and charitable of ladies; if the above report is true, her fiance is to be sincerely congratulated.

On Tuesday the death took place of Mr. James A. Moren, eldest son of the late James Moren, Esq. Mr. Moren was always a well known person in Halifax, and a great frequenter of the Halifax club, where his familiar figure will be missed by other old habitues. Mr. Moren leaves a widow and daughters.

I hear that the next event in the way of fashionable weddings is going to be more or less of a disappointment to society. The marriage has been settled to take place in England, and not here. So that we shall not have the pleasure of witnessing the wedding of the charming lady in question. Another marriage, by the way, is I hear, off! This will be more news to the friends of the bridegroom MORRIS GRANVILLE.

Halifax, N. S.

The social event of this week was the fortnightly tennis dance, held on Monday evening, which was very pleasant, although the attendance was not quite so large as formerly. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dustan, Mr. and Mrs. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnstone, Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. Snow, Miss Davies, Miss Whiteway, (St. John's) Misses Simpson, Miss Frazer, Miss Primrose, Miss K. Davies, Messrs. Ross, Primrose, H. Primrose, Metzler, Macrae, Davies, Fraser, C. Fraser. Some of the ladies looked exceedingly well. Miss Whiteway, looked charming in yellow satin with chiffon trimmings.

Mrs. Snow wore a handsome gown of black silk, en traine, net trimmings.

Miss K. Davies a pretty pale pink dress very be-Mrs. Ives looked exceedingly well in cream silk, primrose trimmings. Miss Davies, pretty gown of black and mauve.

Miss Yorston (Truro) crimson silk with black net

Mrs. Dustan black silk with gold ornaments. A great many took advantage of the good skating on the harbor last Monday. The children's hearts were gladdened with a half holiday, and even the curlers deserted the rink to enjoy the "roaring game" in the open air. A few young gentlemen of Westville skated down in the afternoon, returning by the seven train, we noticed Mr. Calner, Mr. Munro, Dr. Wylde, Mr. McDonald and a number of Miss Whiteway and Miss Davies, returned home to Stellarton last Wednesday.

Mrs. H. G. Ives was "at home" to a number of her friends last Thursday, from four to six. Mrs. Ives made a charming bostess, and received her guests in a pretty gown of terra cotta cashmere, with white satin embroidered vest. She was ably assisted by Miss McMillan and the Misses Primrose, who served tea, coffee and delicious cakes down stairs. A number of those present were Mrs. Mc-Millan, Mr. and Mrs. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. John Davies, Dr and Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Clarence Primrose, Mrs. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Baillie, Mrs. George Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, Miss Gordon, Misses McDonald, Miss Yorston, Misses Simpson, Miss M. Gordon, Miss Falconer, Miss Fraser, Messrs. Ross, Metzler, Macrae, Dawson, Primrose, H. Primrose.

Mrs. Johnstone returned from Halifax last week. where she had been the guest of her daughter for some time.

Dr. McMillan and his daughter, Miss Annie, are spending a few days in Springville. The Pictou curlers drove up to New Glasgow last Thursday afternoon, for a friendly game with the New Glasgow curlers, the latter winning by a large number of points. A very enjoyable evening was spent at Mrs. Allan Ferguson's where the Club dance was held last Friday evening. Among those persent were: Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Tanner, Miss McDonald, Miss M. McDonald, Miss Bonn, Miss McKenzie, Miss A. #### ANTIGONISH.

PROGRESS is for sale at Antigonish Book Store. FEB. 22 .- Lent, the season of fasting and penitence, is upon us again and puts a stop to all our gaieties for a while. It is a long time since the town has been as gay as it has been this winter, and we hope to hear of a continuance of the gaieties after Easter. There was no band at the rink last Saturday evening on account of a good many of the bandsmen being away with the Savannah minstrels. The band evenings at the rink are very much enjoyed and it would be too bad if they were discontinued. Miss Annie Cunningham is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. S. S. Dickinson, Hazel Hill, Guysboro county. Mrs. Thos. Trotter is visiting friends in Halifax. Miss Cora Cunningham left for Boston, Friday, 17th, to be absent about six weeks.

Dr. Jakeman, Halifax, was in town for a few days Miss Desbarres, Halifax, is in town the guest of Mrs. T. Downie Kirk.

Colonel McShane spent Tuesday in town. Mr. C. N. Wilkies' many friends are sorry to hear of his continued illness and hope to see him about again very shortly. The Pictou curling club are expected here on Thursday or Friday of this week to play a match with the Antigonish club.

FEB.20.-Miss Edna Forbes is in New York, where she will spend a few months with relatives, at the same time taking up the study of stenography. Mrs. J. Nickerson, of Lockport, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Robertson.

Mr. F. W. W. Doane, of Halifax, spent a few days last week at " Glenwood," the home of his boyhood. He and Captain H. Doane made a flying visit to Cape Island in connection with an enterprise in which, if successful, both will be interested.

Mr. Walter Wilson, is quite ill with la grippe at his home. Mr. Charles Stewart, of St. John, was in town last week. Mrs. Wishart Robertson, on Friday, entertained a number of her married friends, at a small teaparty, in honor of Mrs. J. Nickerson.

AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst, by George Douglas and H. A. Hillcoat.]

FEB. 22.-A very merry party was given on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence Lowe, for her only daughter, Miss Maud. Upwards of fifty small maidens were present, who were very bright and charming in their smart frocks and gay ribbons. The little hostess had somewhat of a busy time, but she managed her fund of entertainment so cleverly and with such a pleasant manner, that time flew at an alarming rate. Mrs. Lowe excels in devising toothsome dishes for little folk, consequently the tea was the crowning point of the evening's pleasure. She was assisted by Mrs. Jodrey in attending to the wants of the youthful guests.

On Friday evening Miss Lowerison entertained the whist club at her spacious room on Victoria street. A few of her friends who are not members of the club were also present, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Miss Palmer and Miss McEwen, of Sackville, spent Sunday with Miss Lowerison.

Miss Cogswell, of Sackville, spent a few days of last week with her friend, Mrs. Courtney Bliss. On Saturday evening Mrs. H. Dunlap gave a very cheery little tea at her residence on Eddy street, to quite a number of young guests. Mrs. Dunlap is a charming hostess and her small gatherings are always most enjoyable affairs. It is currently reported that she has rented her handsome house to Mr. Biden, who will take possession in May, when she purposes going to Port Huron to make a lengthy visit to her daughter Mrs. Smith. Her many friends trust that she will not leave here for good and all,

The bride's handsome costume of autumn brown cloth trimmed with fur was most becoming, the dainty bonnet being a marvel of style and sweetly pretty. She is receiving this week, and is warmly welcomed to Amherst.

The debate on last Friday evening between the aspiring young politicians of Amherst, and the Saturday. students from Sackville, was a cleverly conducted rangle, and quite the best attended affair of the kind held here for a long time. The ladies were present in their prettiest chapeaux and were loud in their praise of the eloquence of the orators who were: Mr. Sprague, Mr. Indoe, and Mr. Rice of Sackville, and Mr. H. J. Logan, Mr. Rogers, and Mr. Ross, of Amherst.

Mr. Boyd Parker of Sackville, was in town on Friday. MARSH MALLOW.

On the same evening there were gay doings at the 'Rookery," as Miss Crowe's invitations were out for a snow-shoe tramp, to be followed by supper and entertainment at the house. The evening was not what many evenings have been, as conducive to snow shoeing, but, nevertheless, those participating enjoyed themselves, and enjoyed with considerable zest the supper provided by Mrs. Crowe. Dancing and "wicked" cards are things tabooed at the "Rookery," but a few hours were very pleasantly spent, notwithstanding the absence of the particular

Mrs. Herbert Jones of Weymouth, spent a short time here last week. Mrs. J. W. Anderson left recently for New York, where she will remain for some little time for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Anderson's removal will be greatly felt here, particularly in musical circles where she was a general favorite. It seems as
