MONCTON.

PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Boos S.ore, Main street, and on the streets by J E. McCoy.]

Jan. 11 .- When I opened my PROGRESS on Saturday, and turned my eager eye on my own particular column, my first thought was that one of the western cyclones we so often read about, had struck PROGRESS office and paid especial attention to my society letter; as I knew quite well that I had sent down at least a column. But anxious inquiries elicited the information that it was merely caused by an overcrowding of the society columns, and that all my beautiful notices not only of social events but of the weather, the observance of New Year's day and such-like interesting topics had only been born to blush unseen, in the waste paper basket. However by special dispensation I have been permitted to reproduce some of my news, which although not by any means as iresh as I could wish, is of too general interest to be quite consigned to oblivion.

In the first place let me apologize most humbly to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Sleeth for having caused them to masquerade in my letter under the name of of the compositors.

Two very sudden deaths took place in our circle lately, I say in our circle advisedly because although Mr. George Taylor, late gen-Helen Newton, entertained most happily a party of eral freight agent of the I. C. R., the news of whose death reached Moncton on Thursday week, the hours fly fast, and twelve o'clock arrived before death. He was essentially of our circle, since his home had been in Moncton for many years, and most of his interests were here too. The sad news came as a great shock to his Moncton friends, who Carrie Lord, Miss Flora Cooke, Miss Mina Mc- had no idea that Mr. Taylor was ill beyond the fact Kusick, Miss Mattie Rideout, Miss Lillie Eaton, | that his health was failing slightly and I believe he was no worse than usual almost up to the day of his death which was caused by hemorrhage of the stomach. Mr. Taylor was a man who was highly esteemed by all classes on account of his kindness of heart, his thorough integrity and his readiness to comfort and assist all those who were in difficulty or distress. He was an active churchman, a faithful friend and an upright citizen and was deservedly beloved by Mrs. J. C. McCulley, gave a very pretty children's all who knew him. Mr. Taylor was a native of party, at her residence on Wednesday last, for the Edinburgh, Scotland, but came to Canada at a very early age, and entered the railway service when quite a young man. He had been on the I. C. R. since 1872. He was superannuated on the first of last November on account of his failing health, and removed at once to Beaford, N S., where he died. Mr. Taylor had been a widower for many years, and left two children, Mrs. Cresswell, wife of Rev. A. J. Cresswell rector of Springfield, Kings county, and Drive Whist party at their residence last evening to Mr. J. J. Taylor C. E. of Virginia, U. S. The funeral services took place on Saturday, the body being taken to Sackville, N. S., the interment having been postponed until the arrival of Mr. James Taylor from Virginia. Mr. Taylor leaves numerous Bishop Neely of Maine, preached to large con- friends in Moneton who will sincerely mourn his

Another very sad death was that of Mr. John B. Elliott which took place at his boarding house on Main street at a late hour on Saturday week. Mr. Elliott had not been in very robust health but was able to attend to his business as usual, and was even feeling rather better on Saturday than for som . time previously, as he had been suffering from an attack of rheumatism. Shortly after retiring, at about eleven o'clock he was seized with a violent fit of coughing and when the occupants of the house hastened to his room to offer assistance, they foun a him in a dying condition. His medical attendant, Dr. Purdy, was summoned at once, but death had taken place before he arrived. Mr. Elliott was a son of place before he arrived. Mr. Elliott was a son of the late John Elliott, for many years a merchant of Moncton. He was born in St. John, was unmar-ried and had completed his 59th year at the time of his death. Mr. Elliott was a brother of Mrs. II. A. Whitney of Moncton, Mrs. Cleveland of Texas, and Mrs. Morrid, Miss Elliott, and Mr. Gilbert Elliott of Boston. The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Sunday afternoon from Mr. Whitney's residence. Miss Forster, of Dorchester, is spending a few days in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Cooke. Mr. H. G. Wadman received the sad news on Saturday afternoon of the death of his little son Lester which occurred at Hartsville, P. E. I., of typhoid fever. The child was spending the winter with his grandparents and was spending the winter with his cember, but was thought to be recovering. There was a very beautiful service held in the Wesley Memorial church on New Year,s day, the we sieve Memorial church on New Tear, so ay, the mu-ical part of which reflected the utmost credit upon the talented organist, Miss Lulu Baird of Woodstock. A feature of the service deserving special mention was the duet "Jesus Lover of my Soul," by Miss Baird and her sister, in which they accom-ponent the meabyes upon the guitar and viola. by Miss Baird and her sister, in which they accom-panied themselves upon the guitar and violin. It was simply exquisite, and I have heard it spoken of repeatedly in terms of warmest admiration. Another Moncton man has recently become a ben-edict, or rather one who was for so many years a resident of Moncton that he is almost looked upon as one of ourselves. I refer to Mr. George F. Fair, who was in business in Moncton for ten years and who recently removed to Butte City, Montana. Mr. Fair was married on the 17th of last month, at St. Paul, Minn. to Mrs. Jeanette Couch, formerly of Moneton. Mr. and Mrs. Fair will reside in Butte City in future; Their Moneton friends will unite in wishing them a great deal of happiness. There would almost seem to be an epidemic of weddings abroad, judging by the number of Moncweddings abroad. judging by the number of Monc-ton people who have taken the silken chains upon them recently. The latest wedding was that of Miss Toombes, eldest daughter of Mr. Benjamin Toombes of this city, who was married on Wednesday morn ing at the Central Methodist church to Mr. Fred Chapman of the I. C. R. office, son of Mr. R. A. Chapman, inspector of fisheries. The service was performed by Rev. John Read, in the presence of a large number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left almost immediately after the ceremony, by the morning express, for Halifax, where they will spend some days. They were accompanied to the station morning express, for Hallax, where they will spend some days. They were accompanied to the station by a number of friends, who speeded them upon their journey with good wishes and showers of rice. Miss Harris, Miss Wright, and Miss Dewar went down to St. John last week, to spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. J. DeWolf Spurr. Miss Harris, and Mr. J. H. Harris attended the Bachelor's ball in the Machanics' institute in the Mechanics' institute. Mr J. J. Taylor's Moncton friends will be sorry o hear that he is quite ill in Halifax, where he arrived last week to attend his father's funeral. Mrs. Joseph Bain of Truro who was spending a few days with her parents in Moneton, returned me on Saturday. Miss Campbell left town last week for St. John, where she will spend the remainder of the winter. Mrs. George McSweeney entertained the Whist club, and a few other friends besides, on Thursday evening, and a very pleasant evening was spent by those who were fortunate enough to be of the number We have had a very pleasant outbreak of gavety lately and some delightful parties. Miss Sarah Stronach set the example on Wednesday with a small but most enjoyable party. Mrs. McSweeney followed, and on Friday evening the party of the season was given by Mrs. C. D. Thomson in honor other measure the Misser Themson of St. John The of her guests, the Misses Thomson, of St. John. The guests numbered about 50, and as the host and host-ess were ideal, the music perfect, the floor all that could be desired and the supper delicious, it is not to be wondered at that the rosy hours flew and breaking up time came all to soon. On Monday evening Mrs. F. W. Sumner gave a delightful little dance for her sister, Miss Alice Mc. Ewen, on the eve of her return to Mount Allison ladies' college, when everyone enjoyed themselves to the full, as it is impossible not to do with Mr. and Mrs. Summer as host and hostess. Mrss Hennigar, departed on Friday morning for Halitax, to spend a tew weeks visiting triends. Miss Georgie Cole, daughter of Mr. E. C. Cole, return ed to Mount Allison, Ladies' College on Saturday, after spending her Christmas holidays at home. Miss Godfrey of Dorchester, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Fleet of King street. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones, left town on Monday evening for a short visit to Boston, from thence they will proceed to the South visiting several Southern cities, and remaining away for about a month. Mr. John A. Simpson of the I. C. R. audit office, died on Monday, after a long illness. Mr. Simpson was a very general favorite with all who knew him, was a very general layonte with an who knew hill, JAN. 11.-Mr. J. W. Y. Smith and Mrs. Smith of Dorchester, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milner. Mr. J. Walter Allison, of Halifax, was the guest this is a very general layonte with an who knew hill, his kind heart, and sterling character, having won numerous friends. He was but nineteen years of age, and his early death is greatly to be regretted. Mr. R. W. Jack, of British Columbia, is in town again, the guest of Mrs. C. F. H. Campbell. Mr. Jack intends returning to British Columbia shortly.
