

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A. Hartley, and Mrs. J. C. Rogers. The Duke and Duchess received hearty congratulations and handsome presents.

One of the teachers in the Albert school, is confined to her home by diphtheria.

I hear of the near approach of a wedding, between a well known society young lady here, and a North End young gentleman.

The carnival that was to be held on the open-air rink, Wednesday evening, was postponed for a week.

Dr. Travers removed to the city the first of this week to permanently reside.

Mrs. Lingley with her family will go to Calais to join Mr. Lingley, who has employment there, they will make Calais their home in the future.

Mrs. Lingley will be much missed in musical circles, she was a valued member of the Baptist church choir.

Miss Hal Olive who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard White here has returned to Sackville.

Miss White's many friends were glad to see her out again this week after being housed some time with cold and sore throat.

Miss Myrtle Gunter of Fredericton will spend a month with her cousin Miss Estelle Smith.

Miss May Walker, who has spent the fall and winter with her aunt, Mrs. Beddell, left for her home in North Carolina, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Buren, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sharpe.

Miss Fullerton, has a mild attack of diphtheria.

There was a very quiet wedding at the residence of Mrs. Young, Winslow street, on Wednesday morning, when her daughter, Miss Annie Young, was united in marriage, to Mr. Nichols, of Nova Scotia, by the Rev. C. Paisley. The happy pair took the boat for their future home in Nova Scotia, immediately after the ceremony.

Miss Addie Sutton, of South Bay, was the guest of Mrs. Gregory, part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, spent a few days in St. Stephen this week.

A merry party of young ladies and gentlemen, numbering about 50, left the West end on Tuesday evening for a sleigh drive. Their destination was Loch Lomond. After arriving at the Ben Lomond house an excellent supper was served and a little dancing was indulged in, after which the party left, returning home soon after midnight.

The choir of the Baptist church enjoyed a sleigh drive on Tuesday evening. They returned to the residence of E. J. Sheldon, Esq., where a good supper was served.

Mr. Harry Traflet is very ill with inflammation of the lungs.

Mrs. D. J. Hatfield with her family will remove to St. Stephen to join Mr. Hatfield who is there now. They will reside there in the future.

The Rev. Mr. Kempton will hold a series of Cottage Prayer Meetings weekly, beginning, I believe, next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chipman Olive gave a tea party one evening last week—a farewell to Dr. Travers.

Miss Gussie Turner is visiting her sister, Mrs. Flett, St. George street.

Mrs. H. A. Glasgow entertained a few of her West End friends to supper last evening; music and cards were the features of the evening.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Feb. 29.—Society has been unusually gay during the past week, and particularly so at the west end of the town, for every night there has been an entertainment given by some prominent lady.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Wetmore gave a card party. Whist, occupied the first of the evening, and afterwards the whole company joined in the game of "grab," which made great fun and merriment.

There was also some charming vocal and instrumental music, and supper was served at twelve o'clock.

On Wednesday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Seth Whitney, entertained a party of friends at tea, later in the evening they received several other guests, and whist and dancing were enjoyed. This party was made for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker, of New Bedford, Mass., and was a very pleasant affair.

Capt. and Mrs. Howard McAllister, on Thursday evening, gave a very delightful musical and card party. Among the invited guests were Hon. James Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murchie, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mrs. Hunter Duncan, Mrs. Waterbury, Mrs. C. H. Clarke, Miss Turnbull, Miss Maud McAllister, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Young invited a number of friends to join them at tea at their beautiful home, Dover Hill, on Friday evening. After tea the evening was devoted to dancing and singing. This was a particularly merry party, as Mrs. Young's parties usually are, and was thoroughly enjoyed by their guests.

Mrs. George J. Clarke also gave a tea party on Saturday night at her beautiful home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd entertained the International whist club at their residence last evening.

Mrs. J. M. Murchie invited some guests to drive to "Fairfield" yesterday afternoon, where they had "high tea" and snow-shoeing in the evening.

Mrs. Waterbury gave a children's party on Saturday evening, it being the occasion of her young son's Master Willie Waterbury's thirteenth birthday.

Mrs. Henry S. Murchie sent out cards of invitation on Monday to her lady friends to a reception and drive whist party at her residence, from four until eight o'clock.

One of the most novel and pretty entertainments we have had for children was the dolls' carnival given by Mrs. David Melvin, at her residence on Monday, for the amusement of her niece, Miss May Clarke.

Prizes were given for the prettiest dressed doll. The first prize was awarded to Miss Fernie Grimmer, whose doll was attired as Dolly Varden. The second prize to "A Spanish Lady," was given to Miss Maggie Black, and the third prize to a "French Nurse," fell to the lot of the doll owned by Miss Helen Ryder. A special prize was given to "A Sailor Boy," a doll dressed like a sailor, the only one in the large collection of dolls and was the pet of Miss Alice Bates. The judges were Mrs. C. H. Clarke and Miss Abbott, who also admired the dolls who were dressed as "Night" and Little Bo Peep. Supper was served at seven o'clock and the young guests spent the time until nine o'clock in dancing and various games.

Mrs. Percy Lord and Miss Newton most pleasantly entertained the Round Table whist club at the home of Miss Newton, on Thursday evening last.

Miss Lizzie Clark arranged a snow shoe tramp for last Friday evening. It being a most charming moonlight night, all who were there had a most jolly time.

Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer, has arrived home after a fortnight spent with friends in St. John, Sussex and Fredericton.

Mrs. Henry Graham and her daughter Miss Alice Graham are this evening entertaining a party of young people who have gone on a snow shoe tramp and will return to their residence for supper and an hour or two of dancing.

Miss Nellie Smith is this week visiting friends in Somerville, Mass.

Miss Noe Clarke on Saturday afternoon invited on a sleigh ride to Rockaway cottage at the Lodge. The some dozen young ladies and gentlemen, to go party left here at four o'clock arriving at the Lodge in time for supper. In the evening those who wished went snow shoeing, the others remained in the cottage to dance. They returned to town shortly before twelve o'clock having had a most delightful outing.

Mrs. T. J. Smith, and Mrs. Wetmore, invited a large party of ladies and gentlemen to go on a snow shoe tramp, to Mr. C. C. Whitlock's lumber camp near Baring. The party leave this evening at seven o'clock, and drive to the camp, and start from that point for the tramp. Supper will be served in the camp on the return of the snow-shoers. Much pleasure is expected from this excursion.

Mr. G. Arthur Murchie, has returned from New York city.

Miss Maud McAllister, and Miss Alice Waite, leave this week, for a visit in Boston and New York cities.

Mr. Grimmer intends to make an extended tour on the Continent, lasting several months.

Miss Clara Rideout, has gone to Portland, for a short visit.

Miss Mary Deacon, has gone to Boston for an extended visit.

Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, has returned to Calais, after a pleasant visit in Bangor.

Dr. Hunter Duncan, has gone to New York City, for a few days' visit.

On Monday evening the Windsor, that ever popular place for parties and balls, was ablaze with light, and the sound of the merry violin could be heard without, as well as within. It was the occasion of the calico ball, of which so much has been said and so much pleasure anticipated during the last two weeks. There were about one hundred and fifty guests. Miss Jessie Whitlock and Mayor Chipman as reception committee, received them as they arrived in the parlors. The dining hall was converted into a ballroom and at nine o'clock dancing began, and continued until a late hour, to the strains of Herriot's orchestra. It was an exceedingly pretty ball, there was such an absence of dark dresses. Nearly all the costumes worn by the ladies were light and gay colored which gave a brightness to the ballroom one seldom sees. All the gowns worn were of cotton and were very dainty and stylish. The gentlemen wore neckties made of calico, and one or two appeared in vests of the same material, which added greatly to their beauty and brought them many compliments from the ladies. The ball was a brilliant success, but with such a committee as Messrs. J. T. Whitlock, J. D. Chipman, W. F. Todd, J. E. Ganong, G. Arthur Murchie, H. A. S. Pethick, and R. W. Whitlock, it could not help from being most enjoyable. Supper was served at 12 o'clock.

The following is a list of those who were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Neil, Mr. George O. Dexter, Mr. Hanson, Mr. S. McConkey, Mr. E. B. Snow, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. H. P. Graham, Mr. Thomas Blair (Halifax), Mrs. Jessie W. Moore, Miss Cora Maxwell, Captain McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Parker C. Pike, Mr. Wm. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inches, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Dostan, Mr. J. C. Campbell (Montreal), Mr. C. A. Boardman, Miss Boardman, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. C. Frederick Stewart, Miss Alice Waite, Mr. W. R. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. George H. McAndrews, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Pike, Mr. Frank Smith, Mrs. C. H. Clarke, Miss Clarke, Mr. W. H. Edwards, Miss Emma S. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Tucker (Boston), Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murchie, Mrs. R. H. Duncan (New York), Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. V. A. Waterbury, Miss Annie Stevens, Mr. R. W. Sawyer (Boston), Miss Annie Douglas, Mr. Wallace Downes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods, Miss Mina Downes, Mr. and Mrs. E. Graham, Miss Annie Murchie, Mr. A. Cameron, Miss Whitlock, Miss May Foster, Mr. Smith O. Dexter, Miss Nellie Hill, Mr. R. A. Wetmore, Miss Annie Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Whitlock, Mr. Charles Vanstone, Miss Bessie Bixby, Mr. T. R.
