WINDSOR.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and Dakin's Bookstore.] FEB. 7 .- The races at the rink on Monday evening were most interesting. The one mile race between A. R. Shaw, of Windsor, and F. Hiltz, of Dartmouth, was very exciting. Shaw won by a very short distance. There was another one mile race between Hedley Richardson and Ralph Smith, which was won by Richardson who, although quite young, gives promise of being a very fast skater. Mr. Patterson, of Dartmouth, gave an exhibition of fast skating which was much enjoyed. Mr. Patterson manages to get over the ice in an amazingly fast manner but at the same time is a very graceful skater.

The death of Mrs. Bowman which occurred last week has removed one of the oldest inhabitants of Windsor. Her son Mr. Maynard Bowman and Mrs. Bowman, of Halifax, were in Windsor at the time of her death, but returned to Halifax on Tuesday. Mrs. Taylor, of Halifax, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vroom had a small but a very pleasant five e'clock tea on Thursday.

A rather serious accident happened last week to

Mr. Joshua Smith's son Clarence, who while coasting, collided with a team and was badly cut and bruised. Several other minor mishaps occurred, but notwithstanding this, the beautiful moonlight nights and the smoothness of the hills tempted many young people out.

Mrs. Medcalfe and her little son, who have been visiting Mrs. Curry, returned to Yarmouth on Saturday.

Mr. Goudge and Mr. Ouseley are home again from Halifax, for a few weeks.

Rev. Albert Carmen, D. D. of Ontario, preached in the methodist church, on Sunday evening, in the interest of Mount Allison University.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Coffin who seem to have had an unusual share of trouble lately. They were in Halifax for some days last week on account of the very serious illnes of Mr. Coffin's mother. While there Mrs. Coffin received word of the death of her father Mr. Warren Doane, after an illness of only a few days. There was great excitement among the gentlemen over the civic elections which took place today. Dr. Gossip was elected mayor by acciamation and Mr. C. FEB. 7 .- Although the weather or. Friday last was very unfavorable, the children's carnival which took place at the skating rink was very successful, in many ways rivalling that of the older folk's, which took place the previous week. The costumes were very unique, and showed considerable taste and care in the getting up. About half-past nine a great many of the spectators took advantage of the opening of the ice to the public, and joined the young masqueraders.

The last carnival of the season will be on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14th. This festival promises to be one of the most successful ever held here.

Mies Kate Christie returned recently from Truro, N. S., where she has been during the holiday season, the guest of Miss Yourston.

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Millen met at their home, Main street, on Friday of last week. The evening was a very enjoyable one, eards music and dancing occupying the hours. Miss Mollison, who is the guest of Mrs. Millen, intends leaving soon for her home in St. John. Mrs. Robert Harris, who has been visiting friends in town lately, returned the latter part of the week to her home in Halifax.

The unusual number of gaieties at present is due in a measure to the fact that the Lenten season is so much earlier than for some time past. In consequence, all the societies and clubs in town seem to be making arrangements for a cessation of their pleas wes until after Easter. The Yarmouth whist club hand its last meeting at the residence of Mr.

club hear its last meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Burrill recently, additional guests being invited for that evening.

Mrs. Frank Wilson has been visiting a short time at Barrington with her daughter Miss Sadie, who is spending the winter with relatives in that place.

This afternoon Master William Cook, the eldest son of Mr. Howard Cook, while crossing the lower part of the Milton Lake, broke through the ice and was drowned before assistance could be rendered. The sympathy of many friends is tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

Miss Putnam of Maitland, Hants Co., N. S., in tends spending the remainder of the winter with her brother, Dr. A. Putnam, who has recently started a practice in this town.

The New Glasgow Sons of Temperence visited their sister division at Little Harbor on Thursday evening of last week. The roads were splendid but the evening was a rather cold one for driving. Some of the members played truant to attend the "at home" of the Forty-nine club.

There was also another gay party left town in sleighs that evening, in number about fifty. Their destination was the Hotel Grant, at Bridgeville. On arriving they found the hotel brilliantly lighted, and bright cheery fires in the various rooms to welcome them. Soon the stirring strains of music were heard, and all joined in the pleasant pastime of dancing, until near midnight, when a nicely arranged supper was served. Afterwards dancing was resumed for some time and party did not break up until the "wee sma' hours," when they drove back to town. Only one accident belel them. That was the tipping of one of the sleighs, the occuppants of which were thrown out and one young lady lost a Willie Alger, Arthur Penna, George Cox and

Feb. 8 .- The carnival at the St. Croix skating rink on Thursday evening was a grand success. As it was the first carnival given for several years. The rink was filled to its utmost with spectators, and the skaters numbered some one hundred and fifty. The judges, who were Miss Harvey, Mr. W. H. Cole and Mr. Armstrong of St. Andrews after a lengthy discussion awarded the first prize to Miss May Carter who represented Portia and looked her part to perfection. The girls prize fell to Miss Gertie Henry, who was very quaint and lovely as little Saint Elizabeth. Mr. Frank McCluskey as Robin Hood, took the gentlemans prize and Master Willie Waterbury, as cupid, the boys prize. A great deal of dissatisfaction was expressed by the spectators in regard to the decision of the judges, many feeling that the lady who represented Priscilla and Mr. Thomas Main as Micauber should have received the prizes, but the characters were all so well gotten up it was rather difficult to decide and the majority of the people were quite satisfied.
