

TRURO, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's, and at D. H. Smith & Co.'s.]
JAN. 18.—Mrs. Andrews, Hantsport, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Bligh.
Those who attended the Social, in the crypt of St. John's last Thursday evening, enjoyed a few hours very pleasantly. These evenings at St. John's are of a particularly interesting character, apart from the entertainment, which is always good. That of last Thursday evening, was no exception to its predecessors. Recitals by Miss McMillan and Miss Riche; song by Mrs. Brine and Miss Hyde; piano; duets by Prof. E. H. Swart and Miss Hyde, always favorites, and a piano and violin duet by "Miss King" and Mr. Williams were some of the numbers of a most interesting programme.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickie are here from Canada, Kings Co., visiting Mrs. W. L. Dickie.
Mr. Williams, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kent, whom he accompanied here from England, is an addition to musical circles here, as he possesses a fine voice, and is a good violinist of some ability.
