Aug 2.-This has been an exceptionally gay week. Every day and every evening there have been picnics, drives and parties of all kinds. One of the prettiest was a "tennis tea," given by Mrs. Henry Graham on Fri lay afternoon, on the lawn surrounding her residence. This entertainment was given for the amusement of Miss Annie Cooke, of Moncton, who is the guest of Miss Alice Graham. There were some thirty-five guests present, members of the Wildwood tennis club. Tea was served on the lawn at half past six, in the most dainty manner, and was greatly enjoyed. The guests amused themselves with tennis until the shadows grew long and then went into the house and spent an hour dancing, departing to their homes at ten o'clock. The ladies were all attired in tennis costume and looked very picturesque and pretty. These who enjoyed this pleasant entertainment were: Miss Alice Boardman, Miss Agnes Lowell, Miss Fiosom, Miss Julia Kelly, Miss Carrie Boardman, Miss
