The sudden drop in flour is one of the features of this week's grocery business. Our best Manitoba flour sells for $4,70, while our best Ontario is worth $4.05. Just think of these prices.

We have as well Western Grey Buckwheat, a delicious article for breakfast, and beg to call your attention to our entire Wheat, Rye and Graham flours.

It is no news to the majority of our old customers who patronized our meat store, that we are again in the business with new ideas, larger experience, and a splendid stock. The only difference this time is that we sell for cash and not on credit.

Fresh Beef, Lamb and all other meats incident to the season are constantly on hand, while those well known and almost staple articles, Dunn's Ham and Bacon, Lard, Sausages and Bologna, can always be had from us. All for cash.
