[Progress is for sale at Amherst by George Douglas.]

JUNE 7.—I am sorry to have to report that we are not to have a tennis club this season. As every tennis player has looked forward to the time when the courts would be ready to play on, it seems a great pity. Dr. Hall, I am sure, did all in his power to make it a success; but after calling two meetings, which only ladies attended, it was decided to give it up. As this is absolutely the only form of amusement one can have here during the summer months, the players will have to resign themselves to playing on private courts.

In my note of last week concerning the proceeds of the promenade concert given by the band on the 24th, it should have read $150 instead of only $50. Mrs. E. Bido went to St. John on Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Grier.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Book Store, Main street, A. H. Jones, and at J. E. McCoy's.]

JUNE 7.—The members of the Moncton Choral society, which was organized a few months ago, gave their first concert in the Opera house on Monday evening, to an audience which considering the number of entertainments there have been lately, was fairly large and decidedly appreciative. The concert was under the direction of Mr. Harry Watts and reflected much credit upon his management, as well as upon those who took part. The choruses were well balanced, and carefully rendered. The instrumental and orchestral music brilliantly executed. Probably the lower of vocal music would have preferred fewer concerted pieces and more solos, those that were given were very thoroughly enjoyed. One of the gems of the entertainment was Mr. H. W. Twigger's beautiful sacred solo "Nearer my God to Thee" with violin obligato, by Mr. R. Archibald of Sackville. The quartette Annie Laurie, by Mrs. George Willett, Miss Baird, Mr. Wetmore and Dr. Bourque, was also very lovely and Miss Ethel Newhouse's solos met with an enthusiastic reception. Miss Alice McEwen made her debut before a Moncton audience as a violinist and played a classic selection very sweetly. Mr. George W. Daniel presided at the piano. The ladies of the society all appeared in full evening dress and the pretty costumes added greatly to the scenic effect while the stage beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants made a fitting background for the charming singers.

He was a prominent figure in athletic circles and the captain of the Moncton lacrosse team, taking a great interest in all outdoor sports. Mr. Boyd is a native of St. John and is therefore going home, so we can scarcely expect him to share our regrets to any large extent, but his friends in Moncton hope that he will not forget them soon and he will always be sure of a warm welcome whenever he returns to the city.
