DEC. 20 .- Everyone is so busy preparing for Xmas that but little is going on 10 the way of entertaining.

The Current news club met at Hawthorne hall, the residence of Judge Stevens, on Thursday evening, and spent a delightful evening discussing pleasant and instructive subjects. Euch member of the club is expected to discourse five minutes upon any subject that may come before the club.

The question club enjoyed a pleasant meeting with Miss Annie Harvey on Friday.

The dramatical and musical entertainment in Trinity church school room, last Thursday evening, was one of the best amateur affairs ever given here. The entertainment opened with a piano duett by the Misses Bradnee, called "The Sleigh Ride." Then followed a play called "The Company's Husbands." Miss Nellie Mcredith, as the spinster chaperone, played her part in a most admirable manner. Miss Cora Algar and Miss Berta Smith, as the "brides of six months," received many compliments for the finished and lively way they sustained their role. The mysterious females, who proved to be "Bob" and "Tom," the husbands of "the brides," were performed by Messrs. Hazen Grimmer and Harry Graham, and were most laughable. After the play, Miss Mattie 'Harris, in her usual pleasing style, recited "The I wo Thanksgiving Dances." She was accompanied! on the piano by Mrs. C. D. Hill. Mrs. Hazen Grimmer sang "The Lost Chord," and received a well-deserved encore. Tho much cannot be said in praise of the trio on concertina, organ and piano, given by Mr. Walter Bradnee, Miss Annie Porter and Miss Kate Bradnee. There were several tableaux which were pretty and well arranged, "The Choristers," six young girls singing the Christmas anthem, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." "Leda," which was represented by Miss Love, was a most charming picture. "The Three Fates," and "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," completed the series of tableaux. Miss Millie McMonagle, a very young lady recited "The Young Prisoner," in a masterly way for one so young, and shows what she will be able to do in the future. The entertainment closed with singing "God Save the Queen." A telegram "oun Mr. D. W. Brown, C. E., from St. John's, Newfoundland, saying he would sail that week in the "Alaska," for Halifax, has arrived. Mr. Brown has been in Newfoundland for seven months, employed as engineer on the Hall's Bay railway now in construction there and is coming home to spend Christmas with his family.

PARKDALE, Ont., Feb. 27th, 1888.—Gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to let you know I have derived great benefit from the use of Nerviline. I have been a great sufferer from Neuralgia in the face, and last two years was quite a martyr to the malady. So soon as I observed the Nerviline advertised I ob- tained a bottle from our druggists, Messrs. John Gray & Co., Parkdale, and the effect was marvel- lous; pain ceased and I can enjoy sound sleep at night, and rise refreshed. I cannot speak too highly	[PROGRESS is for sale in Shediac by R. W. Abercomby and Fred Inglis.] DEC. 20.—Mr. J. D. Weldon, visited Moncton on Friday. Miss Jennie Webster also spent Friday in Monc- ton. Mr. Arthur Rogers, of Montreal, spent Sunday in town.
