ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wall, in Calais at G. F. Treat's.]

Nov. 22.—One of the pleasantest entertainments of the week was the drive whist party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Murray. Drive whist occupied the evening until eleven o'clock, when supper was served; after which waiting was indulged in until a late hour. Mrs. Murray received her guests in a pretty evening costume, of pale blue, with trimmings of white, which was extremely becoming.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Murray have a charming way of entertaining, which is very pleasant to their guests. Among those who were invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Vroom, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Whitlock, Captain and Mrs. McAllister, Dr. and Mrs. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inches, Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Blair, Mrs. Wetmore, Miss Jack, Miss Annie Stevens, Miss Kate Stevens, Mr. Henry Todd, Mr. Moses McGowan and Mr. Harry Patrick.

Mrs. Frank Corey entertained most pleasantly on Friday evening, a party of friends with the game of bridge, which is most popular here at present.

The reception given on Monday evening by the young ladies of Christ church guild, was most successful and greatly enjoyed by the guests, of whom there were about sixty. Games occupied the evening and at 10 o'clock refreshments were served. This is the first affair of the kind the ladies of the guild have ever undertaken, and those who planned and arranged it, are to be congratulated upon the success and pleasure of it.

The young ladies of Trinity church, are rehearsing a pretty and amusing play, called "The Company's Husbands," which they hope to present to the public early next month.

Hon. A. MacNichol, has purchased the handsome mansion owned by the estate of the late Mr. Sullivan Hall, and will occupy it this week. It is an elegant home and will be nobly graced by the beautiful and accomplished daughters, and handsome, clever sons of Mr. and Mrs. MacNichol. Mr. and Mrs. Foster and their daughter, Miss M. Foster, will occupy the pretty home, Mr. and Mrs. MacNichol leave.

Orange blossoms seem to have been in great demand here lately and in some of our most respectable young citizens have taken a very active interest. The marriage, on the 11th inst., of Mr. Joseph A. Wall, a very promising young lawyer of this town, to Miss Minnie Condon, of Guysboro, was quite a charming event. The happy couple returned from P. E. Island, where they had been spending their honeymoon.

A quiet wedding took place on Thursday morning of last week at the residence of Mr. John Dexter, in which his daughter, Laura, was married to Mr. John Blanchard, of the firm of McCurdy & Co. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. B. Munro. The bride's wedding dress was of a dark green trimmed with beaver, and she was assisted by Miss Lillie Macdonald, Mr. Paxon Clark acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard, amid showers of rice, took the train for a trip through the western part of the province.

The cathedral of St. Ninian was the scene of a very pretty event on Tuesday, when Mr. J. J. McPherson was united in marriage to Miss Libbie MacDonald, the Rev. Hugh Gillis officiating. The bride looked handsome in a heliotrope costume with beaver trimming, and was attended by Miss Maggie MacNeil. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McPherson supported the groom. Among the many presents received was an elegant dinner set from the choir of the cathedral, of which Mr. and Mrs. McPherson were active members. The happy pair left by the noon train for Boston and New York on their wedding tour.

We extend our congratulations to the three newly married couples.

Miss Mary Crockett entertained a few of her friends to a dancing party at her home in West River on Thursday evening.
