Nov. 22 .- Mrs. W. A. Gibson is this week receiving her bridal calls at her home on St. John street. The bride, who is a great favorite among her num-erous friends, is charmingly attired in a dress of golden brown satin. She is being assisted in this pleasant duty by her friend, Miss Whelpley, who makes a most charming bostess. Miss Jack has returned home from a delightful visit to Chicago. Miss Johnston went to St. John this morning to spend Thanksgiving with friends. She will not re-morning for a few weeks' visit to Boston. Miss Skinner, of St. John, is the guest of the Misses Powys, College Road. Mr. J. Fraser Gregory spent Sunday in the city, the guest of his father, Mr. Geo. F. Gregory. After a long visit spent in St. John, Miss Fannie Burnside is expected home to-morrow. She will probably be accompanied by Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen. Hazen.

Our correspondent of a St. John "Daily" is able to be out again after his dreadfully exhaustive walk of several Sundays ago. His feet are somewhat tender yet; otherwise he seems quite well. His last coherent words on the road were, "Come boys let us sit down again and have a smoke before the Sun goes down." Mr. Hall, of Montreal, who has gained so many friends for himself during his short stay here has returned home again. Miss Sadie Sterning, entertained a large number of her young friends to a birthday party last night. Miss Magrie Allen expects to leave on Dec. 1st. for Boston, where she will enter the Waltham hospital, in training for the profession of a nurse. Waltham hospital seems to be a particular favorite with our girls as quite a number of them are already within its sheltering walls. Miss Besste Jack, is expected in a few days to visit her friends the Misses Allen at the residence of Sir John Allen. Col, Mrs. and Miss Maunsell have returned from their trans-atlantic tour, and are being warmly wel-comed by their numerous friends here. Mr. Willard Carr, of Woodstock, is visiting friends here. Miss Burpee is the guest of her cousin, Miss Bridges, of Waterloo Row. Miss Maggie Cochran, of Boston, is here visiting her brother, Hospital Sergt. Cochran, of the R. R.

The many friends of Sir John Allen will be pleas. ed to hear that he is steadily improving. He ar-rived home on Sunday, having come from S. Andrews in Mr. Timmerman's private car. Mrs. W. T. H. Fenety is in St. John, visiting her sisters Mrs. Paddock and Mrs. M. B. Dixon. Mr. Archie Tibbitts has returned home from a

Nov. 22.-Lieut-Governor Boyd lectured in the presbyterian church, last Thursday evening, under the auspices of the woman's home missionary soci-ety of that church. His subject was "Katrina and Arthur Bonnicastle." The Rev. J. M. Robinson acted as chairman. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the governor. The lecture was very much enjoyed as his honor's lectures always are. While in town Governor Boyd was the guest of Rev. J. M. Robinson

M. Robinson. One of our oldest, most respected and prominent business men, Mr. Edward McSweeney, passed peacefully away on Monday evening. Mr. Mc-Sweeney's death was not unexpected as he has been failing in health for some time. The deceased was best known as the senior member of the firm of Mc-Sweeney Brothers. The dry goods business has been closed out for some time, and of late years Mr. McSweeney has devoted himself to carpets and furniture. Deceased was the eldest son of the late Peter McSweeney, one of the pioneers of this place and also one of the earliest magistrates. Mr. Mc-Sweeney was 56 years old and was one of the most useful campaign workers in this country of the liberal party. Deceased leaves surviving him a wife and two children, three brothers and seven sisters. The brothers are George McSweeney, of the Brunswick hotel, Moncton; Peter McSweeney, Nov. 20 .- The event of week before last was a dance at the residence of Mr. Potts of Black River. A large party of young folks drove out about eight o'clock and were hospitably received by Mr. and Mrs. Potts. Dancing was indulged in unto the wee sma hours. Supper was served at midnight to which ample justice was done. Music was furnished by Professors Basterache and Mooney. They all report a grand time.

On Friday of last week a surprise party went to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John McFaddon, where they were made welcome, Mrs. F. proving equal to the occasion, kindly taking up her carpets, so as to allow them to dance. Baskets were brought out about twelve o'clock and contents served with tea and coff.e. It was a very enjoyable party, with but one drawback, our friend, Capt. "Pete" having Dorchester and Memramcook.

We hear with regret of the intended departure of two of our young men, Mr. Joe Burk and Mr. Jas. Hannigan. They are bound for the neighboring republic, and will be much missed in social circles. Rumors of an appr-aching marriage, by which Shediac will lose one of its fair ones and Buctouche will gain one, are heard.

The Boston Comedy Co. closed a three night's engagement here on Saturday evening, the house being crowded on each occasion. The scenery, costumes, etc., are all new and elegant and one can scarcely realize the dreadful loss which the company sustained by fire a few months ago; the plays produced were, with one exception, new to Springhilt audiences and were thoroughly appreciated. Miss Edwina Grey received a most flattering reception when she appeared on the stage Thursday evening and throughout this engagement her interpretation of the various characters has been most satisfactory, her costumes were also very much admired. As "Nana Sabib" and "Jessie Brown" Mr. Webber was thoroughly dignified and provide an intervention of "Jacques" in "The Honeymoon" and the ubiquitous Yankee in "Miralda" was in-tensely amusing.
