The first yacht race of the season took place on Saturday last for the challenge cup presented by Captain Leonard Russell. There would have been a large assemblage at the pretty little club house for the opening day had it not been for the weather which was wet and windy. The band from the Blake which was to have played by kind permission of Captain Hamilton and officers, could not play and | World's Fair. While there she will be the guest of only a few enthusiastic people turned out to see the her father Dr. John Clarke, and her son, Dr. yachts come in. Five boats started, the Youla, Howard Slayter. Wyne, Lenore, Albatross and Mentor, and the cup after a splendid race was won by the Wyne. Mr. H.Wylde's boat the Youla looked very like winning, when a heavy squall struck her and damaged her she come in first the cup would have become the some time.

The race today is for the cup given by Lord Alexander Russell.

Another function crushed by the wet weather was the "visitors day" at the South End tennis ground. This also has been postponed until today, weather permitting.

and pretty tea for her daughter Miss N. Abbott. The afternoon was delightful, and many fresh and pretty summer frocks were worn. Mrs. Abbott who received was in black, Miss Abbott in a very pretty fawn colored frock, while Miss N. Abbott was most becomingly dressed in pale pink. People left early, as there was tennis going on at the Garrison ground, which always attracts a large contingent of ladies.

Colonel Hamilton and officers, King's Liverpool Regiment have issued invitations for two tennis parties-one for this week and one on Wednesday the 28th. Last year's tennis parties at Wellington Barracks were so pretty and well managed that it will be difficult for the new incumbents to improve on them. The officers of the Leicestershire regiment were invariably the best of hosts. * * *

On Tuesday evening the officers of the R. A. and R. E. gave a large dinner to Captain Hamilton and the officers of H. M. S. "Blake." This is the first function given for the ship since its arrival.

Among prominent provincial visitors this week are Mayor Gilhs of Annapolis, and Mrs. Gillis; Mr. J. Murray Lawson and Miss Laura Lawson of rigging, effectually disposing of her chances. Had Yarmouth; Mr. S. Crabbe and Mr. Wakeford of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mr. Edward Grant of New property of her owner who has aiready won it twice. Glasgow; and Mayor Oscher of Lunenburg. These As it is it will remain in circulation probably for are only a few among the many representative masons who have arrived here to attend the annual session of the Grand Lodge.

Mr. Daly and Colonel Clerke leave on Monday for Cape Breton. They will remain about a fort-night for the salmon fishing.

Among the ladies presented to Her Majestv, the Queen, at one of the May drawing rooms, were the Misses Jones of St. John, daughters of Simcon Jones, Esq. Miss Jones wore a particularly pretty On Monday Mrs. John Abbott gave a very large and pretty tea for her daughter Miss N. Abbott. The afternoon was delightful, and many fresh and menty summer from the centre of the back with a butterfly knot. Miss Edua Jones' dress was a petti-brocade came from the centre of the back with a butterfly knot. Miss Edua Jones' dress was a petticoat and corsage of corded si k, arranged with rib-bons and snowdrops. Her train was of ivory duchesse satin lined with silk, and came from one shoulder. For the benefit of my readers I may say that the skirt of a court dress is always called a petticoat, and that the train is always a quite extraneous attachment. Mrs. Walter Stopford, (nee Miss F. Baker,) of Yarmouth,) was also presented on her marriage. She wore a gown of white bengaline trimmed with old rose point. Her train was of white brocade with a rattern of cherry blossoms, and was lined with white silk.

* * * A paragraph in one of our Halifax papers, on "the pretty girls of St. John," has excited great interest here. It is curious what a difference there is be-tween a St. John and a Halifax girl, and it must be admitted at once, that the former is far better and more elaborately dressed. As for being prettier, it is not fair to compare the very limited number of young girls which exist here, to the larger contin-gent the sister city can show. Girls are not such a factor in society, here, as there; the young married gent the sister city can show. Give a for such a factor in society, here, as there; the young married women not only outnumber them, but with a few, brilliant exceptions, outshine them, in smartness perhaps, more than in locks. A St. John man remarked lately, that Halifax girls might be divided bru fly into three sections,-the popular and pretty

JUNE 14 .- Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen went to Dorchester on Tuesday to attend the trial of Mrs. Stevens, among whom I noticed were Dr. and Mrs. Tupper, Misses Hickman, Campbell and Rogers, and Dr. Hewson. Mr. H. G. Ketchum, who has been spending the winter in England, in the interests of the ship railway, returned home on Saturday. Mrs. Biden, who has been visiting friends in St.

Miss Fawcett, of Sackville, is the guest of her friend Miss Adda Purdy, Havelock street. 'Miss May Hanford entertained a large number of her friends to a boating party on Christie's pond. As this was the first of the season no doubt it was a very enjoyable event. The guests were, Misses Christie, Phelan, McKinnon, Black, Hanford, Strothard and Sutcliffe, Messrs. Moffat, Rogers, Pride, McKinnon, Douglas and Hanford. Mr. B. D. Bent went to the Capital Tuesday evening to attend the Grand Lodge of Freemasons. Mrs. Bent accompanied him on the trip.

Mrs. Goodwin, accompanied by her daughter, left on Tuesday evening, for Kaslo, British Columbia, to join Mr. Goodwin, who has been there for the past two years. Miss Goodwin will be greatly missed, as she was an earnest worker in the cause of temperance.

Miss Lucy Andrews, is visiting friends in Spring.

Rev. J. H. Strothard, went to Pugwash on Tuesday, to attend the district meeting. Several of our townspeople drove to Westmorland, on Sunday, to attend the confirmation service, conducted by Bishop Kingdon. Messrs. E. E. and J. H. Hewson, in company with Mr. and Mrs. George Hewson, left Monday evening for the World's Fair, Chicago. On their return, they will visit Montreal, Quebec and other points of interest along the route. Mr. A. C. Casey spent Friday in Sackville. Rev. Mr. Lavers occupied the pulpit of the baptist church at both services on Sunday, Mr. Steele being away. Mrs. Harrison and daughter of Napan, were in town on Tuesday. Mrs. A. D. Munro, who has been visiting triends in Annapolis and St. John, returned home on Tuesday. A very interesting missionary meeting was held in the methodist church on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. An address was given by Miss Hart, returned missionary from China, also a debate on the subject of missions by the Misses Black, Sutcliffe, Chapman and Strothard. The picnic on Wednesday next to St. John, under the auspices of the Pioneer Division, and Concord Lodge, promises to be a great event. Judging by the number of tickets already sold, a large number of our citizens intend to avail themselves of the cheap rates to visit the beautiful city by the sea. Our base ball players are enthusiastic over the recheap rates to visit the beautiful city by the sea. Our base ball players are enthusiastic over the re-sult of the game between the Standards of Halifax and the Y. M. C. A., the score standing 21 to 19 in favor of Amherst. On Tuesday morning General Montgomery. arrived by the Quebec express. A guard of honor from the Liverpool regiment and from the R. A. and R. E. lined the station as far as was practicable, and the in-coming General was received by very nearly all the officers of the garrison in full uniform. General Montgomery-Moore is accompanied by Captain Colborne as A. D. C., Captain Apsley Smith as Military Secretary. The whole party will spend the next week with Major and Mrs. Waldron at the Oaks, until Bellevue House is ready for them.

There were no ladies at the station on Tuesday, as there were at Sir John Ross' departure, nor was it such a pretty sight as the former occasion. General Montgomery-Moore's wife and family did not accompany him, but will arrive early in July.

One has been delighted to hear lately that two well-known Halifax families have come in for for tunes; Surgeon and Mrs. Keogh having received the very pleasant sum of seventy thousand pounds by the death of an uncle, and the Messrs. Charles and John Wylde having discovered what is probably a valid claim to some wonderfully valuable property in New York. It is to be hoped this last will turn out as fortunately as the first case. Mrs. Keogh, by the way, is a sister of Mr. T. E. Kenny, M. P., and a daughter of the late Sir Edward Kenny.

On Tuesday evening the Orpheus hall was absolutely packed with an audience made up of those lucky people who had received invitations to the Conservatory of Music concert. The little stare was prettily decorated with palms and when the chorus came in all dressed in spotless white, and the conductor was found to be no less a person than Miss Homer also dressed in white in a Greek dress admirably suited to the fine lines of her figure, the scene was really idyllic. The first part of the con_ cert owed a very great deal to the untiring assistance of Miss Gladys Tremaine, who did yeoman's service with her violin. Mr. Boak and Mr. Ward gave the opening number, the Liberty Ductt, from "I Paritani" very successfully, and that with Mr. Ward's song later in the evening, and the delightfully rendered accompaniment of Mr. C. H. Porter in the cantata, was the only masculine assistance the concert had.

Miss Helen Moore had a success in the "Intermezzo" of Mascagui. Miss Tremaine playing the violin obligato, while Miss Francis Foster accom. plished a concerto by Mendelssohn most success. fully, Miss Page supplying the orchestral part on a second piano. Miss Louise Wilsor's charming voice was shown to great advantage in a song by Bohen. Miss A. Murray was among the ladies indebted to Miss Tremaine, who played the violin obligato to Gounod's "Sing, Smile, Sleep," very well.

The cantata was the success of the evening, the fresh young voices of the soloists and chorus taking books, pictures, jewelery, linen, lace and exquisite the audience by storm. It was one of the prettiest concerts possible, and Miss Homer is to be congratulated very heartily on the charming concert given by her pupils.

Helen Russeli's English Sports has been the best advertised show ever seen here, the moral of which s self evident. It is being well attended also, and s not at all the class of thing the bills and the local moralists would lead one to suppose. * * *

The masonic body were to the fore on Wednesday evening when they gave a reception to the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia. There was a large attendance of ladies, and a great many beautiful toilettes were to be seen.

In the morning there was a masonic procession to St. Paul's church. Rev. Heber Bullock gave the sermon at this service which was attended by a great many members of the craft. * * *

lozen, who may be called "belles," the "not ready and the "left over"-a defination sweeping, as it is true. As for their dressing, it is not good form in Halifax, to wear very light or ornate dresses in the street; they are kept for garden parties, or worn at home; this is a very English fashion and a very sensible one St. John is many ways a great deal nearer the United States than are we. Another thing is that there is no such thing here as the King street promenade. Fashionable women go to town in the morning, and eschew it rigidly in the afternoon. A curious little detail in the way of dress, is very noticeable in St. John girls, with the very lightest of toilettes they wear black suede gloves. That is a thing you never see a Halifax girl do, except with a black or gray gown. Tan kid with heavy black stitching, or plain tan, is her almost invariable wear.

On Tuesday next Mrs. Tucker is lending her pretty little place, "Pine Grove," on Tower road, to the committee of the Woman's Work Exchange, who will hold a garden party there. A more charming place could not be imagined, and it is within such easy distance of the street railway that a large attendance is very certain. The entrance fee is to be the nominal one of ten cents; a band will play during the afternoon and strawberries, ices and tea will be for sale. So many smart people take an in-terest in the Exchange, that the success of this garden party is pretty well assured. The proceeds are to clear off an existing debt.

An account of the piano-forte recital which is to be given by Mrs. Wallace on Friday evening must be deferred till next week. The programme an-nounced is a charming one, and Mrs. Wallace is kindly devoting the proceeds of the sale of tickets for the recital, to the purchase of new books for the reading room of the Conservatory of Music.

* * * Mrs. Thomas Boggs and her daughter in law, Mrs. Beaumont Boggs, have arrived from British Columbia, and will spend the summer in Halifax. Mrs. F. D. Corbett has returned from Cornwall,

The silver cup presented by Messrs. Hiram Walker and Sons, which is to be competed for at next Wednesday's race-meeting, has arrived and is on exhibition at Messrs. Hattie & Mylius. It is exceedingly pretty and well worth the winning. MORRIS GRANVILLE.

DARTMOUTH.

JUNE 13 .- The second bride of the season, Mrs. Wallace Anderson, received her friends upon the Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday of last week She was assisted by her aunt Mrs. Dowie, Mrs. Davies and Miss Oxley of Halifax, and wore a beautifully made and fitting gown of rich green velvet, with ruffles of pale green and pink chiffon at her neck and wrists.

Her gifts, which were among the handsomest I ever saw, here or elsewhere, were chiefly from relatives and friends in Scotland and England, but there were also some handsome ones from Dartmouth and Halitax. They completely filled a large dining room, and comprised everything that the heart o woman could need or desire in gold, silver, bronze, crystal, rare china from various parts of the world, work. The Rev. Mr. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart with other friends, who are always to the fore in charitable deeds, visited the Mount Hope Insane Asylum on Friday 2nd, and gave an entertainment which was greatly enjoyed by the patients, as well as by the officials connected with the establishment. The following ladies and gentlemen from Dartmouth assisted, and did their best to make it a success : Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Creighton, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Forbes, Misses McKay, Allen, Dustan, James and Mitchell, Messrs. Dustan and Dymond and the Rev.

Mr. Carson, of Pictou. Mr. W. J. Read, merchant of this town, died at his residence, the Glascom Farm last Monday, after a very brief illness. He was much esteemed and respected here, as an upright man and useful citizen, and will be greatly missed. Mrs. Read and her lit le children have the sympathy of many friends. The Rev. Mr. Smallman, for some time pastor of the baptist church here, has resigned his charge, and intends taking a theological course abroad. He leaves about the middle or end of August. At a recent meeting Judge Johnstone on behalf of the church, presented Mr. Smallman with a well-filled

Twenty-four little girls will take part in it, and a gipsy camp in one of the acts is, I remember, a very pretty scene. I wish Mrs. Sircom every success in her undertaking (by which I mean a crowded house), for in such clever and energetic hands as Mrs. Sircom's the success of the operetta itself goes without ALICK. saying.

The bride looked very pretty in a costume of white silk, veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Heartz, of Yarmouth, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Loyd Guptill supported the groom. The bride was given away by her brotherin law, Mr. Fulton Titus.

The church was prettily decorated with flowers by friends of the young couple. Dr. and Mrs. Turnbull left the same afternoon by Monticello for a honey. moon trip to Fredericton amid showers of rice and accompanied by the good wishes and congratulations of their many friends. The happy couple will reside in Musquodoboit, where the groom enjoys a large practice.

The news of the death of Mrs. Eber Turnbull on Sunday morning, was a shock to her numerous friends and relatives.
