

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]
SEPT. 13.—"Surf" cottage, the summer residence at the ledge of Mr. J. T. Whitlock and his sisters, Misses Margaret and Jessie Whitlock, has been the scene of several merry parties since my last letter. On Thursday a party of twenty ladies were invited to tea and an evening of whist. Two carriages and a large party took the guests to the cottage. It was a jolly party—all congenial friends—and all who were there enjoyed it greatly. In this party were Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. C. H. Clerke, Mrs. John E. Algar, Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. J. G. Stevens, Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, Mrs. Waterbury, Mrs. W. W. Inchev, Mrs. Parker Grimmer, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Wetmore, Mrs. G. W. Ganong, Mrs. E. G. Vroom, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mrs. R. W. Grimmer, Mrs. C. C. Whitlock and Mrs. Will Whitlock.
On Saturday evening Mr. J. T. Whitlock entertained a party of gentlemen friends with a supper and cards. The gentlemen who enjoyed this pleasant outing were Messrs. J. F. Grant, Henry Graham, John Black, J. D. Chipman, W. F. Todd, J. G. Stevens, George J. Clarke, G. W. Ganong and Henry Todd.
Last evening the Misses Whitlock again extended their hospitality and invited a party of lady friends numbering about thirty-five to a golden rod party. All the decorations were yellow, and golden rod the only flower used. I hear it was a most delightful affair and that the ladies took no account of time, so did not return to St. Stephen until a late hour. "Surf" cottage is to be closed this week, much to the regret of the numerous friends of the Misses Whitlock, as it has been such a pleasant place to visit. During the summer months one needed a breath of cool sea air, and now after a long drive of five or six miles a call at "Surf" cottage means welcome and a pleasant ending to the drive.

He was a prominent merchant in Calais and took great interest in social and political affairs. From 1853 to 1887 he was one of the Governor Robie's staff, at Augusta, Me., and was United States consul, at St. Stephen during the administration of President Harrison. He married Miss Laura Augusta DeLuc, the niece and adopted daughter of Mrs. Matilda Marks, widow of the late Colonel Nehemiah Marks. The funeral services took place on Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. C. G. McCully of the congregational church. The floral tributes were the most beautiful ever seen here, and showed the esteem and respect with which Mr. Neill was held in the St. Croix. His death at the age of fifty-one years, although expected, was a shock, not only to his devoted and sorrowing wife who has the sincere sympathy of all, but to his many friends who have associated with him through life.

Now that nearly all the church and charity affairs are off for the season, rumors are current that several prominent people are interested in a "Driving Whist" party to occur, I understand if successful in the new curling rink, a balling beautifully adapted to the requirement of such an entertainment lacking only a spectators gallery which want will be temporarily arranged, much will depend on the managerial appointments, as without some practical knowledge of so difficult an undertaking the success is very doubtful.
