[Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

Aug. 9 .- Captain Hemming, of the R. C. R. I has obtained a month's furlough and has left for Kingston, Ont., where Mrs. Hemming and family already are. They will visit the World's Fair before returning home. Lieut. Macdonell is acting adjutant during Capt. Hemming's absence.

The many friends of Mr. Racey, late agent of the Merchant's bank here, but now inspector of the bank, with headquarters at Haiifax, welcome him once more among them. Mr. Racey has come to relieve Mr. Mitchell, the present agent who is taking his holidays.

Mr. Mitchell left Saturday morning to join his family at St. Andrews.

Lieut Mersereau of the 73rd Batt., Chatham, is taking a short course at the R. C. R. I. Mr. Mersereau who is Inspector of schools for the Northern counties spent his early school days in Fredericton, and is renewing old friendships.

Rev. Mr. Weddall left on Tuesday for Lepreau, on his vacation. The pulpit of the methodist church will be occupied during his absence by Rev. Mr.

will be occupied during his absence by Rev. Mr. Brecken.

The music at the methodist church last Sunday morning was by a male choir, accompanied by the organ and a string orchestra and added greatly to the beauty and solemnity of the service.

The steam launch "Rita" arrived in the city Sunday, having on board a party composed of the families of Messrs. J. C. Robertson and Mow att of St. John. The party spent the day in the city and left in the evening for St. John.

GRAND FALLS.

Aug. 7.-The picnic for which the members of the R. C. church here have been preparing during the last few months took place last Wednesday, and was successful beyond all expectations; the weather which had ben unpleasant all the preceding week cleared up, and the day was all that could be desired. There were pleasures and sports in all parts of the grounds, and a great part of the pleasure of the day was contributed by the Anchores band. Rev Fr. O'Keeffe was untiring in his efforts to make the day a pleasant one for all. The sum realized from the picnic is in the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars. In the evening of the picnic day there was a play given in Victoria Hall by the Edmunston Literary Club, of which Mr F. LeForest is leader. The play, "The Father's Curse," was in French' but the acting was good, and even those who could not understand the words enjoyed it. Half of the proceeds of the play are to be donated to the R. C.

Both Had Eczema in its Worst Form

After Physicians Failed, Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured.

Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and restores the diseased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read the following from grateful parents: To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"We think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most valuable medicine on the market for blood and skin diseases. Our two children suffered terri-Worst Form of Eczema
