

'White and dazzling in the moon's fair light she looked.' Nothing remarkable about that! She was fair to look upon, as a matter of course; and the dazzling effect was produced by her white robes—cleansed and brightened by a liberal use of

LOGAN'S STERLING SOAP.

That's one of the peculiarities of Sterling Soap. Clothes washed by it always attract attention by their purity and brightness.

WM. LOGAN, ST. JOHN, N. B.

Caught on the Fly--the Housekeeper WHO DOESN'T USE SCREENS.

BUY OUR EXTENSION SCREEN.

The equal of any on the market.

Wire Flower Stands, Ice Cream Freezers, and other Seasonable goods.

SHERATON & KINNEAR,

38 KING STREET. TELEPHONE 358. P. S.—We also have some Door Screens, which we are selling very cheap.

Do You Buy TEA and COFFEE, Strawberries and Sugar, FOR CASH?

HARDRESS CLARKE, 73 SYDNEY STREET.

Wedding Presents.

You will find the Largest Assortment of Wedding Presents at

C. Flood & Sons.

We have just received a choice assortment of SOLID SILVER, CUT GLASS PIANO and BANQUET LAMPS. Also, choice China Ornaments and best quality Plated Ware in endless variety. Our goods are the best and prices you will find reasonable.

LATEST IN PHOTOGRAPHY.

Mantello, Corona and Parisian Panel.

Enamel Work and Grouping a Specialty.

J. H. CONNOLLEY,

St. John, N. B., 75 Charlotte St., Cor. King.

St. John—South End.

Miss Sancton, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned to her home, New York, on Tuesday last.

Miss Hazen and her niece, Miss Ethel Hazen, returned on Tuesday from a trip to St. Andrews.

Mrs. Widder, (nee Miss Laura Wetmore) of London, Ontario, is in the city. She is staying with her mother, Mrs. Rainsford Wetmore, of Dorchester street.

Mrs. Wm. Blair, Ottawa, arrived in St. John this week, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Crookshank, Sydney street.

Dr. Frank Scovill, of Brighton Eng., son of the late Canon Scovill, formerly of St. John, arrived in the city this week.

The Misses Ridd, Windsor, are visiting St. John. A garden party in connection with St. David's church will be held on the grounds of Mrs. John Burpee, Mt. Pleasant, on Thursday next.

Miss Ethel Hansard is visiting Mrs. Montgomery Campbell at Sussex.

Miss Gertrude Mills has returned from Windsor, to spend the summer vacation.

On Monday evening Mr. and the Misses Jones gave a theatre party, when they invited about thirty of their friends to be present at the Opera House to see Mr. Power's new play, "The Sins of the Fathers." After the performance the party finished the evening at Mr. Jones' residence, Sydney street, where a supper was prepared.

On Thursday evening the Misses Millidge gave a very pleasant juvenile party for a number of young people who are home from school for the holidays, at their residence, Rockland Road.

The same evening the club called the "Brownies" were entertained by Mrs. George K. Berton, Hazen street.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAvity have returned from a trip to Chicago.

The friends of Mrs. Boucher were greatly shocked to hear of her somewhat sudden death, which occurred at her residence, Parade Row, on Wednesday morning, from heart failure.

Although for the past two months she had been in delicate health, it was not thought her end was so near. Mrs. Boucher has been a widow for many years.

The sad and very recent death of her daughter, Miss Nellie Boucher, at Boston, will be remembered, and much sympathy is felt for her daughter, Miss Edith Boucher, who is now left entirely alone.

Mrs. Ernest Peim, the eldest daughter, resides near Boston, also does two sons.

Judge Savary (Digby) was in St. John this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. F. P. Otty, whose death occurred on Saturday last.

The friends of Mr. Maule Drury, of the Bank of Montreal, Chatham, will regret to hear he is laid up in the hospital there, from an attack of typhoid fever.

Rev. Mr. McNeil has returned from an extended trip to the West.

Col. Tucker left this week on a fishing trip up North.

Mrs. Grant, wife of Major Grant, who has spent the last few years in England, returned to St. John this week.

Mr. William Craig, of Quebec, is spending his vacation in the city. He is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. S. Otis, North End.

Mrs. Andrew Malcolm, who has been ill for several weeks, was able to be out for the first last Sunday.

Mrs. Babbitt left by the C. P. R. Thursday evening for the Pacific Coast, to join her husband, Dr. Walter Babbitt, who has left this city some time ago.

Mrs. Babbitt will be greatly missed among her many friends.

Mrs. Willoughby Hatch, of Princess street, has returned home from the States, having had a very pleasant trip.

Miss Mary Wiman, of Yarmouth, who is staying with her aunt, Mrs. John Ballock, will return to her home the first of August.

Louise Holden has returned home from Halifax, where she has been attending the Ladies' College.

Miss Blanche Draper will leave next week for Boston, where she will visit friends.

Mr. Wm. Malcolm, of Annapolis, spent this week in the city.

Rev. L. G. McNeill, of St. Andrews church, has returned from his trip to the coast.

Mr. Walter E. Graham of Annapolis, Montana, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Wm. M. Alcorn of Annapolis, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. James Guit of Montreal, spent Tuesday in the city.

Miss Allie Robertson, who has been spending a few weeks at Westfield, returned home Monday having had a very pleasant visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Doherty of the Royal Hotel, have returned home from Boston.

Miss Lillie Donohoe returned home last week from Boston, after spending a very pleasant time while there. Miss Donohoe was the guest of Mrs. Robert Dixon, formerly of St. John.

Mrs. Saunders, of Tacoma, (widow of Captain W. C. Saunders) is re-visiting her friends in St. John.

Messrs. S. S. DeForest, C. W. DeForest and W. H. Quinn, have been enjoying a fishing excursion at Quinn's Lake.

Miss Janie Robinson who has been the guest here for some weeks of her aunt, Mrs. W. H. DeVeber, is now staying with Mrs. Morris V. Paddock.

Mr. D. W. McCormick has been spending some days in Boston, en route to accompany his daughter, Miss Nellie McCormick, who during the past year has been a student at Wheaton's Seminary, Norton, Mass.

Mr. C. A. Everett has returned from an extended trip to the World's Fair.

At the law examination held last week, Messrs. Sherwood Skinner, Bowyer S. Smith and John Montgomery, passed successfully.

Miss Jane Stevens, Bangor, is the guest here of Mrs. John L. Carter, Mount Pleasant.

Miss Sarah Nicholson, who has been spending the past few months in Bermuda, returned to St. John last Thursday, and is staying with her sister, Mrs. Murray McLaren.

Mr. E. S. Gifford and his bride are back from their bridal tour.

Canon and Mrs. DeVeber have gone to Woodstock, where they are staying with their son, Mr. William DeVeber.

Messrs. Henry Leonard, Thomas Peters, J. Y. Ellis and T. Amos Godsoe, left this week for the Metapedia, on a fishing trip.

Miss Kate Bayard left a few days ago for the Neropis, where she intends spending a fortnight with her nephew Mr. Robert Bayard.

Mr. J. W. Myers has returned from a pleasant visit to the World's Fair.

Mr. Fishereau of the grenadier guards, A. D. C., at Bermuda, arrived here last week to make a sojourn with friends in St. John.

Miss Lily Adams and Miss Mary McMillan, have returned from the church school, Windsor, N. S. to spend their vacation at home.

Rev. J. W. Manning is confined to his residence through illness.

A most successful garden party was held on Wednesday afternoon and evening in the beautiful grounds of Mr. Alfred Seely, Mount Pleasant, under the auspices of the W. W. Workers of the German street baptist church. The large assemblage present enjoyed the strawberries and ice cream, and listened to the enlivening strains of the band of the 62nd Fusiliers.

Miss Bessie St. Clair Schofield (daughter of Mr. John Schofield) this city, graduated last week at the Ladies' college, Halifax.

The Misses Millidge entertained a large number of their friends at a dance last Tuesday evening at their residence, Rockland Road.

Mr. Stuart Milligan of New York, brother of Mr. J. C. Milligan of this city, is spending a holiday with his sister, Mrs. John.

Miss Marion Shaw returned home on Monday from a visit to Boston.

Miss Louie Jack is now the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James R. Ruel, Gormain street.

Mr. D. Willet and Mr. J. Bond spent last Saturday at Leek Louie, near St. John.

Bishop Sweeney has been visiting Cape Tormentine and Shediac lately.

Mr. Willie Connell who has been attending college at Worcester, Mass., returned last Tuesday to spend the vacation with his parents here.

Lady Smith, of Dorchester, and her friend, Mrs. Joshua Chandler, spent part of this week in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, and Dr. and Mrs. Murray MacLaren have been enjoying a fishing excursion together at Skiff Lake.

A very pleasant evening was spent recently at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Everett King, the occasion being the celebration of their china wedding.

Mr. Frank J. Reynolds returned home last Friday from the University of Ottawa for his vacation.

Miss Bertie McLeod left on Tuesday for Ottawa, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. S. J. Jenkins.

Mr. J. M. Johnston has returned home from a trip to Boston.

Mrs. Charles F. Kimear, who is now staying with her daughter at Port Hope, Ontario, intends leaving that place about the 1st of July, for Chicago, where she will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William Coleman formerly of this city.

The ladies connected with St. Paul's church, will hold a ladies' and garden party in the grounds of Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, who has kindly placed them at their disposal for the occasion.

DELTA.

The death of Mr. G. W. Daniel's father, Mr. Thomas Daniel, occurred this week at Magnolia, Mass., he died with regret by the numerous friends of the family.

As a former resident of St. John he will be remembered by the older residents. He died of heart failure in the 84th year of his age, leaving four daughters and two sons.

Now that the public schools are closed many teachers and pupils will leave the city for their summer outing—a few of the former will enter the bonds of matrimony.

Miss Lottie Barlow was married this morning to Mr. Stephen Busby in Ottawa's Square Methodist church and left by steamer for Boston on their honeymoon.

Another popular teacher, Miss Hattie Clarke, will be married July 5th, to Mr. Daniel Morrison, of this city.

Mrs. J. R. Gilliland, of Brownville Junction, arrived here Wednesday, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Thomas, Broad street.

Mr. George F. Barker is visiting his uncle, Mr. George F. Crosby at "Elm's Farm," Albion, Maine, for the benefit of his health.

Mr. James B. Gillespie is on a visit to St. Stephen where he will sing a solo at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

ARCTS.

St. John—North End.

Miss Lottie Belyea, is visiting Miss Lingley of Westfield.

Miss Maggie Shaw, returned from Fredericton on Monday, accompanied by Miss Mamie Coleman, who is at present her guest.

Dr. Wm. Christie, Dr. G. A. Hetherington, Messrs. D. Nase, D. Parry, Ald. W. A. Chesley and a couple of others spent several enjoyable days last week fishing at Disappointment Island.

Miss Mabel Smith of Douglas avenue, left last week on a visit to Boston.

Master Thomas Morris, returned last week from St. Mary's College, Montreal.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Parker Hamm on the arrival of a young daughter.

Dr. J. P. McInerney, returned on Saturday from a pleasant fishing trip up North.

Dr. Wm. Vanwart returned last week from New York.

Miss Emma Daly returned on Thursday last from Nova Scotia where she attended school the past winter.

Mrs. Higgins of Boston is here on a visit to her sister Miss Carr.

Miss Emma Anderson of Musquash is here on a visit.

Mr. Thomas Hillyard returned on Saturday from a fishing trip to Caribou.

Messrs. M. DeBury, A. Murphy, B. Stevens and M. Cochran returned from the Sacred Heart convent on Monday for the summer vacation.

Miss Ella McAlary and Miss Maggie Grey left for Rhode Island on Wednesday last, their friends, Miss Hattie Green and Miss Tena Otis seeing them safely on their journey.

FRANTS.

St. John—West End.

A pretty lilac wedding took place in Carleton Methodist church on the eve of the 21st. The principals being Miss Hannah A. Kindred and Mr. Leslie Wetmore, confidential clerk at Hunter's dry goods store.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Pabley. The bride looked pretty and graceful in lilac crepon trimmed with silk and chiffon.

The bridesmaid, Miss Bertie Kindred, wore cream chamois, with lace trimmings, and both carried bouquets of white lilies.

Mr. Ormond Wetmore did the honors for the groom. The decorations of the church with lilies were beautiful.

The presents received were: A bamboo picture case; Miss M. Belyea; a silver pickle stand, Mr. Harry Clarke; one dozen each silver knives, forks and spoons, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wetmore; one-half dozen silver spoons, Mrs. J. Coram; counterpane, Mrs. Rollie; silver castor, Mr. and Mrs. Wood; twenty-five dollars in gold, Mr. Thomas Hunter; hand worked table cover, Miss M. Wetmore; morocco card case, Miss L. Belyea; silver pickle fork, Mr. Flewelling; butter knife, Miss L. Flewelling; quilt, the Misses Wetmore; tin and cut glass dishes, the Misses McJunkin; flower basket, Mrs. H. Gardner; stationery, Mr. F. Corbett; tidy, Mrs. E. Dunham; cheese plates, Mrs. Short; hand-painted banner, Mrs. Currie; clock from the Temple of Honor; clock from Millidge Rolston; one dozen tea knives, Ormond Wetmore; a handsomely carved hat rack from the groom's fellow clerks; silver tray, cut glass tea set, and toilet set, Miss Addie Coram; silver pickle stand, Mr. and Mrs. Smith; a bronze candlestick from four young ladies friends; morocco cabinet album, Chas. Morrison; handsome pitcher, Miss Belyea; napkins, Miss A. Kindred; table mats, Miss Jennie Sutter; hand-painted table mats, Mrs. Webb; dinner set consisting of one hundred and forty-four pieces, brothers and sisters of the bride; vases, Miss King; vase, Master Colby Gardner; hand-worked table cover, Miss Bertie Kindred; handsome tidy, Miss Bell McJunkin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Coes are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Mrs. Marshall is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rolston.

Rev. Geo. A. Hartley is not yet able to attend to his pulpit duties.

Mr. Short and Mrs. J. Coram, of Greenwich, are visiting Mrs. Geo. Bisset.

Mr. William Dougherty, of the cut tom house, is congratulated on the arrival of a little stranger to his home.

NED.

Mrs. Saunders, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Carrie Saunders, of Tacoma, formerly of West End, arrived here last week to visit friends; Miss Carrie will visit Miss Beattie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coster are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a little son at their home last week.

Miss Annie Irvine left on Friday for Fredericton, to visit her friend Miss B. Hayes.

The death occurred on Tuesday morning of Mr. James E. Hamm, a well known business man of this place. Mr. Hamm has been suffering for a number of weeks with heart trouble which at last caused his death. He leaves a widow and three daughters, Alice, the wife of J. Alfred Clark, and Misses Edith and Grace.

Miss Edith Peters returned on Saturday from Moncton.

The marriage of Mr. Thos. O'Reilly, jr., and Miss Florence Hayes, took place at the church of the Assumption on Wednesday last at 6:30 p. m. The ceremony was performed by the priest in charge during Father O'Donovan's absence, before a large congregation. The bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, entered the church, looking extremely pretty in a very handsome brocaded silk and tulle gown. She was attended by Miss McGourty, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly left the church and drove to the residence of Capt. Hayes, where a reception was held, after which they drove to their own house on Duke street, amid showers of rice and old shoes. The presents were numerous, some coming from the United States and Canada. The bride and groom have the best wishes of all their friends for a long and happy life.

Mr. Robert Fulton spent a day or two in Annapolis this week.

Mr. J. A. Gregory and bride, are expected home in a few days.

[Continued on eighth page.]

MACAULAY BROS. & CO., 65 to 69 King Street.

What 15 Cts. Will Do.

One Dollar's Worth of Briggs' Stamping Patterns will be Sent Free by Mail on Receipt of 15 cts. in Stamps.

In order to reduce our large range of numbers in these Now, Celebrated Stamping Patterns, we have put up one dollar's worth in each package in Assorted Designs, such as Sprays, Groups, Corners, Centres in Braiding Designs, Embroidering Designs, Outline Designs and Painting Designs. Briggs' Stamping Paper Patterns are the best, most satisfactory and clean to work with. Simple, because only a warm iron required. This simple instruction with each package. They stamp any material from Smooth Silk or Cotton to Heavy Flannel.

MACAULAY BROTHERS & COMPANY.

The novel feature about this picture is the REDUCTION. But the reduction, although big—is nothing compared with the Reduction that MITCHELL, the Shoe-dealer, 61 Charlotte Street, is Now Making From His Former Prices.

YOU have money, and want Boots and Shoes; WE have Boots and Shoes, and want money,—

Let Us Swap!

This is our motto: Best goods at lowest prices. Large assortment always on hand. If you patronize us you can be assured that you will be satisfied. All our goods are marked at prices to effect quick sales. We know we can please you as to price, simply because we bought our goods right.

MITCHELL'S SHOE STORE, 61 Charlotte Street.

A. GILMOUR, For Summer Wear. LIGHT TWEED SUITINGS, SERGE SUITINGS, LIGHT TROUSERINGS, LIGHT VESTINGS.

AMERICAN HAIR STORE. 87 CHARLOTTE STREET, ST. JOHN N. B. J. W. RAMSDELL, Proprietor.

Advertisement for hair goods and perfumes. Includes list of products like 'HAIR GOODS of every description', 'TOILET WATERS AND FACE POWERS', and 'CORSETS'.

First Electric Cars all over, June 27, 1893. Call and Leave your orders. JOHN HOPKINS.

Advertisement for ladies' department. 'We have made great additions to the stock in our Ladies' Department since it was moved down stairs. CORSETS'.

Two Special Lines of Long Waisted Corsets at $1.10 and $1.25 are having a large sale. We show all qualities and sizes of Summer Vests,—Long and Short Sleeves.

DANIEL & ROBERTSON, ST. JOHN, - - LONDON HOUSE RETAIL.