On Saturday afternoon Mrs. G. E. Franklin gave a very pleasant tea for the French Admiral, and the officers of the "Naiade" and the "Magon," who came round the Arm from the harbor, in steam launches.

I hear by the way, that the etiquette observed as to official visits, saluting, and other details by the officers of the French ships is extremely strict. The festivities which were to have been extended to the "Naiade" and "Magon" were very much curtailed by the news of the terrible accident to H. M. S. "Victoria" on the Mediterranean Station.

There was a small attendance at the Yacht club on Saturday, partly on account of the not very fine weather and partly because nearly every one had been invited elsewhere. Summer this week has been a missing quantity and the theatre has proved a very acceptable resort in the chilly evenings.

There has been some cricket this week, but not of a very drawing nature to society. Friday's match between the Wanderers and St. John was probably attract a large field of spectators, but the fact of there being no fiercer club this year keeps the cricket interest at a low ebb.

Last Thursday's tennis tournament at the Garrison ground proved one of the most delightful little events possible. It was strictly a military affair, between representatives of the R. A. and R. E. and the Liverpool regiment. The band played delightfully all the afternoon, and the space reserved for spectators was crowded with ladies and non playing men.

The Liverpool regiment had cards out for a tennis party on Wednesday.

Two or three small but very cheery tea parties took up the afternoons of Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Ferris was among the ladies who were "at home" on Monday and had of course hosts of visitors. She wore an extremely pretty frock of green and heliotrope, and was assisted in her duties as hostess by Miss Slayter, and Miss Bruce.

I hear from a correspondent in the West Indies that Capt. Senicoff of the Leicestershire regiment has received an offer from the Governor of Barbadoes of a private secretaryship to which office very good pay is attached. The governor's secretary I believe does aide-camp's work as well, so that the position is no sinecure.

Mrs. John Miller has returned from New York, bringing her sister Miss Shepherd with her.

I hear of a new engagement in Halifax, but as it is not yet announced, the names must wait. Both the individuals concerned have some small share of the world's goods, and are likely to have a good deal more.

Mr. A. G. Troop has taken a house in Church street. His marriage with Miss Agnes Burns will take place in September, but not in Halifax. The wedding of Miss H. Stairs and Mr. Johnson, R. A., is I hear fixed for July.

The wedding of the week is that of Miss Partridge, which was fixed for Wednesday morning at St. George's church. The ceremony was performed by the very Rev., the Dean of Nova Scotia. The bridegroom, the Rev. W. B. Bellis, formerly curate at St. George's, and now curate at Clementsport, was attended by the Rev. C. Abbott, curate of St. Mark's, as best man. Miss Partridge's sister, Miss Mary Partridge, was bridesmaid, and Canon Partridge gave the bride away.

On Tuesday afternoon the closing exercises and presentation of premiums took place at Mount St. Vincent. A large number of Halifax people were present and there was also a good many representatives of prominent families from various parts of the province. His Grace, the Archbishop presided, and after a very pleasant and well executed programme of music and recitations, made a speech which was both happy and to the point.

One of the events of next week is to be an orchestral concert given at the Orpheus Hall by Herr Klingensfeld and the orchestra of the Orpheus Club. This will be the last opportunity of hearing the latter before next season, and Mr. Klingensfeld may be confident of having a good house.

Mr. T. Payne, for so long organist at St. Andrew's church, has taken a similar position at St. Matthew's, and will enter on his duties next Sunday.

Mr. W. S. Harkins' company, in Master and Man, has excellent houses. It is not often that Halifax has three theatrical companies in the place at once, but that happened on Sunday last before the Gilbert opera company, which disbanded here, left for Boston.

On the cards for next week are two large teas, of which the first is never falling, summer or winter. English people almost invariably provide some amusement for the guests at such functions—either music, recitations, or a painting, who will tell the fortunes of the guests by the lines in their hands. In a place where the society is so small as it is in Halifax, such a departure would be a very welcome one from the monotonous programme of talking, eating, and talking again.

DARTMOUTH.

JUNE 26.—The twenty-first was a perfect day, "it ever come perfect days," and people seemed to enjoy it to the full, at least all those who could get to the woods and water. The Cow Bay season opened in force with large parties from Halifax and Dartmouth, and the private picnics were legion. It was a day to be remembered by many who are all the week went up in shops and offices, &c., and it did one's heart good to see the crowds and the sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ellis with Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harvey and other who are the children's friends always, had a small but exceedingly jolly picnic for their own families, which generously included some of the lads and lasses from the immediate neighborhood, and to say that they enjoyed it, would be stating the case very weakly. I heard that a lady asked one of her children if he had a pleasant day, and his reply was both characteristic and to the point: "You may bet your boots we did; Mrs. Ellis' picnics are better than a circus!" The older guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cutler, Mrs. Prescott Johnson and the Misses Edith and Alice Johnson, Miss Louise Black, Miss Hollies and Dr. F. Gow.

Mr. Jack Creighton of the Union Bank, has been transferred to Annapolis, and left a fortnight ago to assume his duties there. He will be much missed in Dartmouth. Miss Bars and Miss Minnie Fitch, of Wolfville, are visiting here, the guests of Mrs. Robson, Quail street. Miss Florence Seely, of New York, who is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Stewart, is in Liverpool, N. S.

Miss Kate Prescott is in Baie Verte, N. B., staying with her sister. Miss Isabella McLeary, who has been seriously ill, is much better, and able to be out. Miss Minnie Dewar has been staying with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. C. DeW. MacDonald, in Halifax.

Rev. T. C. McIvor left on Monday, 19th, to attend a meeting of the Synod, and College Convocation in London, Ont. The services last Sunday were taken by the Rev. J. O. Ruggles, of Halifax, who also held a children's service, with short and bright addresses by various friends of the Sunday School, in the afternoon. Dr. B. Russell, Mr. Frank Russell and Mr. Arthur Troop returned on Saturday from Ottawa, where they have been attending the Liberal convention as delegates.

The Rev. D. McKenzie of Glangary, Ont., brother of the Chief of Police, is visiting Dartmouth, and preached last Sunday in St. James church. He has just returned from a trip abroad, having been granted a three months holiday by his congregation. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mott and Mrs. Howe left on Saturday per S. S. "Morocco" for Liverpool, England. Mr. and Mrs. Mott will be accompanied on their return by their daughter, Miss Lida Mott, who has been finishing her education in England. Mr. Kerton of Montreal, and Mrs. Kerton, whom her many Dartmouth friends will best remember as Miss Minnie Baker, were here last week the guests of Mrs. A. E. Ellis.

Dr. Weidons, M. P., was in town last week. The Rev. D. W. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist church here, was lately elected Secretary of the Conference.

Mr. H. H. Grant of the Inland Revenue Service, is in Yarmouth. Of course the Operetta at the Club Hall next Thursday is the event of the week, and I hear the tickets are selling rapidly. Mrs. Sircorn and her staff are working hard to arrange the scenes, costumes, decorations, &c., and as almost everyone here takes an interest in the object (the Christ church young men's building fund), independent of the merits of the Operetta itself, I venture to predict for it a crowded house.

Invitations are out to a picnic at the Port Wallace Locks, given by the Misses Fairbanks of "the Grove," on Saturday next. There are rumors of another five o'clock tea, an engagement, and several weddings, but as they are only rumors yet, I must await developments before I "make a note" on them.

AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst by George Douglas.]

JUNE 22.—The largest and most fashionable dance that has taken place this season was given on Thursday evening by Mrs. J. M. Townsend at her large and prettily located home on Victoria street. The guests as a rule were about everybody's general friends, as so large a function the arrangement was excellent for a summer party. The Amherst orchestra was happily placed in the conservatory and as their inspiring music floated out on the cool evening air it attracted quite as many listeners outside as there were merry guests within. The hostess was attired in a very pretty gown of mauve silk trimmed with lace and was very successful in overcoming difficulties in the way of entertaining with the gentlemen quite in the minority and an altogether unusual occurrence in Amherst. The host however is an adept at tripping the fantastic and when so ably and gracefully assisted by Judge Henry the honored guest of the evening they made up for any deficiency that could arise in that way. Mr. and Mrs. Gouley of Truro were also a very pleasant acquisition to the event, the latter being fully up to date in the way of toilettes, being very charmingly gowned in cream satin. In fact cream seemed to be the leading shade for the occasion followed by white which was generally adopted by our young belles. Miss Teague in a classic gown of white silk and Miss Ella Purdy in white chaille with sleeves of scarlet satin looked particularly pretty, also Miss Morse and Miss Brown who are very pretty dancers and their white silk gowns relieved with flowers were most becoming. Miss Adda Purdy wore a handsome gown of old rose velvet. Miss Owen Main, pale green china silk. Miss Ethel Main, pink surah satin.

Mrs. Bliss was noticeable among the matrons in a pretty toilette of salmon pink.

Mrs. Tapper looked charming in a very rich gown of black silk handsomely decorated with jet, and slightly relieved with pink.

Mrs. Brown, the hostess' mother wore a very elegant dress that was most becoming. I regret that I have not time to give a full list of the guests on account of a request from headquarters to be in a day earlier than usual which is quite unexpected.

Rev. V. E. Harris returned from Windsor and St. John on Tuesday. I regret to hear that Mrs. Harris has been quite ill for the past two weeks. Mr. Scovill, of Windsor, conducted the services in Christ church on Sunday.

Mr. and Miss Bradford left on Friday morning for Charlottetown to spend the summer with Mrs. Carvill at the government home. Miss Helen Pipes went to Londonderry on Thursday to spend several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Fletcher.

Mr. Harold Main left last week for a trip to Boston. Mr. R. W. Montgomery fills his place in the Halifax bank during his absence. Mrs. Frank Hickey has gone to pay a visit with friends in St. John. A party for Miss Mollie Dickey at Grove Cottage on Thursday is among the pleasantly anticipated events.

PICTOU.

JUNE 26.—Miss Helmer of Lockport, U. S., is expected to visit her sister Mrs. Snow. She will arrive this week. Miss Emily Stewart, sister of Dr. Stewart, arrived home last week. Mrs. G. S. Carson is on a visit to her old home in Truro.

Mr. G. R. Chisolm is in Boston. Mrs. Chisolm went to Halifax on Saturday to see her mother who is ill. Miss Jean Mitchell of New Glasgow was in town Saturday evening.

Mr. Will Ferguson returned home on Friday from Montreal where he has been attending McGill college. Mrs. R. P. Grant is very ill. Mr. William McKenzie, Seaview, has gone to the World's Fair, also Mr. John Logan of the Logan Tanning Company.

Miss Dick's of the Sackville Ladies' College is visiting Mrs. W. Tupper. Mr. E. M. Macdonald and Mr. W. Dickson were in River John last week. Miss Gardner, sister of Colonel Gardner, Montreal, is the guest of Mrs. Waters. Miss Eva Grant of New Glasgow is also visiting there.

Mr. De Soane, of New Glasgow, was in town on Saturday. Miss May Farquarson, of Charlottetown, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. McDonald, returned home last week. Mr. N. M. McCann, of the Nova Scotia Bank of Montreal, was in town last week.

Mr. D. Renne Laird, Banker, of Halifax, and bride, passed through here on Friday en route for home. They had been in Charlottetown spending their honeymoon. Mr. Pendleton, our lately arrived American Consul and Mrs. Pendleton, are very popular in their new station. Their nieces, Miss Katie Pendleton, Miss Alice Pendleton, and Miss Pendleton are at present visiting them.

Dr. McKenzie and Mrs. McKenzie drove to Wallace last week. They returned on Saturday. Capt. Hill has been reaping his harvest in Pictou lately. The last one plowed by his arrow was carried off on Wednesday last when Miss Tina Murray was married at 9.30 a. m. to Mr. A. W. Fraser, brother of James A. Fraser, ex-M. P. P. for Guysborough county. I am told the bride looked charming in a dress of cream herietta cloth and wore a veil and orange blossoms. I of course wish them much happiness.

Mr. J. D. Logan has been awarded a scholarship of the value of $250 by Harvard university. The "Doll's Carnival" was the centre of interest here on Thursday last. The worthy object of the carnival called for the patronage of sight loving people for miles around. The ladies who so faithfully assisted are to be congratulated on their success.

The excursion on the "St. Olaf" on Friday evening was not so largely attended as the one under the auspices of the Glee Club. The night was cool, and the "strong winds" tossed the steamer to the discomfort of several of the lady excursionists. The band music was good under Master Henderson's leadership. Dr. Helmer gave a co-fishing party last week. This is a departure from the usual line of time-killing amusements, and while the gentlemen of the party resisted the caressing of the waves, the ladies found the sea "too much." Sea sickness is a bad child and will not be comforted. Two of the ladies had no qualms whatever, and were determined to brave wind and wave on "the fishy sea," but ladies are in nature at a discount as fishers of fish, what ever they can do as fishers of men. They were landed, and the lords of creation sailed forth again to tempt the "shaly tribe." BRYNSHILL.

SHALBURN.

JUNE 26.—Christ church was crowded on Monday afternoon to witness the marriage of Mr. Dean Ryer to Miss Nora Bower. The bride wore a very pretty white cashmere trimmed in lace, veil and orange blossoms, handsome bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Helen Quinton, who wore a pretty white lace dress. Her bouquet was of pink. The groom was supported by Mr. George Allen. The bride and groom left immediately for a short trip. Mrs. John Hood has gone to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Muir, of Boston are at the Atlantic house. Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Truman, of Jordan, spent Wednesday in town. Mr. Arthur Hood has gone to Halifax. Rev. G. DeW. White is home for a few weeks. Mr. G. W. Smith, Truro, and Mr. C. H. Northup, of Halifax were in town this week. Mr. C. J. McDonald and Mr. S. A. Cosman, of Halifax, spent Sunday at the "Atlantic." MAUMEE.

TRURO, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's, and at D. H. Smith & Co.'s.]

JUNE 27.—Mrs. George Carson and family are here from Pictou, guests of her parents, at "Fern Hill."

Miss Madge Donkin returned to day from Halifax, where she has been visiting friends, and enjoying the diversions of the Opera and Drama.

Miss Georgie Hyde is home for the holidays, from the Ladies' College, Halifax; and Miss Bligh has returned to home friends from "Edgehill," Windsor. The Tennis Dance, last Wednesday night at "Brookfield House" proved quite a happy ending to what was quite an exciting day. The cricket match during the forenoon and throughout the afternoon, diverting most people's attention, and attracting quite a crowd to the grounds, of which a fair showing was ladies. Our own men were, far and away, the best "eleven," and were easily victorious. Those attending the dance in the evening were: Misses B. Tremaine, M. Archibald, L. Hyde, Campbell, Main, McKay, Crowe, Yorston, M. Sutherland, Brush, Bligh, W. Bligh, Calkin, Dr. Yorston, Dr. Kent, Campbell, Crowe, Bowers, Black, Stuart, R. Campbell, Williams, Hornsby, McKay, and Messrs. Fitch, McTea, Lyde, Smith, Beale, of the Wanderer's Cricket Club, Halifax. The ladies were all looking unusually bright, there were no new dresses, but Miss Lora Hyde, was indisputably the belle of the ball, in a dress of corn, with trimmings of mauve and one in which she had appeared many times before. Miss Brush looked very pretty in old rose, with over-dress of black lace.

Masters Luther MacDowell, Walter Muir and Henry Kaulbach, are home from their school at Windsor. Mrs. and the Misses McDougall gave quite a large five o'clock tea on Wednesday afternoon last. Those present were: Mrs. Kent Archibald, Mrs. Capt. Flemming, Mrs. C. M. Dawson, Mrs. Capt. McDougall, Mr. C. B. Buchanan, Mrs. Martin Dickie, Mrs. Frank McLean, Mrs. Jas. Nairn, Mrs. Hill, Miss Mary Crowe, Miss McLeod, Miss Lewis, Miss Dickie, Miss Cadie Upham, Miss McDowell, Miss L. Longhead, Miss Emma Archibald, Miss G. Smith.

Buchanan, Mrs. Martin Dickie, Mrs. Frank McLean, Mrs. Jas. Nairn, Mrs. Hill, Miss Mary Crowe, Miss McLeod, Miss Lewis, Miss Dickie, Miss Cadie Upham, Miss McDowell, Miss L. Longhead, Miss Emma Archibald, Miss G. Smith.

ANNAPOLIS.

JUNE 27.—Judge Savary and Mr. Tom Savary are in St. John attending the funeral of a relative. Mr. Cogswell, organist of the English church, Lunenburg, spent Thursday and Friday here the guest of Mrs. H. L. Rudolf. Previous to her departure for Bangor, Miss Grace Robinson entertained a few of her friends at a picnic near the General's brook.

Mrs. Kimball of San Francisco, has been visiting Mrs. T. L. Whitman for a few days. Miss Maynard arrived on Saturday to spend the summer with her sister Mrs. Howe. Miss Fillet, who has been staying with Mrs. DeBlais returned to her home in Weymouth on Monday.

Annapolis is fortunate in having obtained the assistance of such a musician as Mr. Fisher, and under such training the musical element here must attain a high standard. Miss Jones, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. Malcolm. I understand Misses Clinch and Boucher have engaged home for the summer months with Mrs. McLeod. Both ladies have many friends here and will be warmly welcomed.

Mrs. J. J. Ritchie left on Monday for Halifax, where she will remain for a short visit. Miss Minnie Gage returned on Saturday from Boston. I trust during her stay there may be some amateur performances, so the public may have the pleasure of again hearing her sweet voice in song. Miss Smith, of Digby, visited Mrs. H. A. West for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Spinney, of Yarmouth, spent Sunday in town, the guests of Mrs. Owen. Rev. V. E. Harris spent a day with his mother here, en route to his home in Amherst. Mrs. Boggs, of Victoria, B. C., is the guest of Mrs. Owen. The garden party in which the "Baby Show" is to be such a prominent feature, is down for the 13th of July.

Mrs. DeBlais entertained a few of her friends on Saturday evening. I hear invitations are out for another card party by the same hostess, of which I hope to hear and write about later. Miss Jamieson, of New Glasgow is staying with Mrs. Priurose. Mr. Lou Whitman is at home to spend his summer vacation.

PARRSBORO.

JUNE 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cowans of Montreal and their children, are at their summer residence Ottawa House. Mrs. Alloway and her little son and Miss McDougall are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cowans. Miss McCabe gave a water party on Saturday evening. About fifty guests embarked in the "Weatherproof" which was chartered for the occasion. They sailed to Two Islands and West Bay, returning about ten o'clock. Refreshments were served on board and it was declared altogether a very delightful affair.

Mr. and Miss Armstrong of Cornwallis are visiting at Captain Howard's. Dr. and Mrs. Dearborn, of the United States, are staying at the Grand Central. Rev. C. White is away for a month's vacation at his home in Shelbourne. Mr. and Mrs. Miles, of St. John, and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent and a lady friend, are at the Grand Central.
