FREDERICTON'S FAMOUS INDIAN APPEARS IN AN EXHIBITION.

Boyton Is Astonishing the London People by a Water Show-The Nautical Toboggan -Wallace Ross Also Represents New Brunswick as a Champion

A representative of London " Tit-Bits " was in one of the first boats to descend Captain Boyton's remarkable nautical toboggan slide, and the delightful sensation which he experienced as he rolled down an incline from a height of 60ft. into the water further off than he is. suggested that he should at once get his note-book and pencil and endeavor to find out something about the World's Water Show, which is to be the big thing of the coming season.

Some 200 people are employed in the entertainment given here. Scores of darkies have been brought over from America and the West Indies. Half-a-dozen Indiansincluding a Canadian-Indian hunter, named Gebe, who is 96 years of age-make their first appearance in any show. On the day of our visit they were busily engaged making furniture for their tents

A quartette of log-rollers has been brought from America; all champions of that very popular sport across the Her-ring Pond. The logs they walk on are 15 ft. long, 12in. in diameter, and hollowed

The "Chute" strikes you immediately you enter the vast arena. It has taken something like tour months to complete, and about 100 tons of timber has been used in its construction. It is 275ft. long, will carry a weight of 20 tons at any part, is 36ft. wide and 60ft. high, with an inclination of descent of about 1 in 4. Even above this immense height the scenery painted to represent the Niagara Falls gives another 15ft.; in fact, a word with Signor Tondi brings forth the statement that the scenery stretching round that part of the arena used tor the performance is 11,000 yards long.

It would take ten artists a month to paint. Signor Tondi pointed out a square piece of painted canvas on which was laid no less than 700lb. of white paint aloneto say nothing of size and other colors.

Below the chute is a huge lake, which required 2,000,000 gallons of water to fill it, and 2,500 cubic yards of concrete were used in lining it, and upon this concrete a layer of asphalt has been placed. Mr. Gordon Hunter assured us that more than 2,500 cubic yards of soil had been excavat- theatre, and the pair have each a dead ed during the course of operations. in his third fable says, speaking of the cat: "It has been the providence of nature to give this creature nine lives instead of one." John Heywood, who in 1546 published the earliest collection of British proverbs, says : 'A woman hath nine lives like a cat," and Ben Jonson, the dramatist, in his play of "Every Man in his Humor," says : " 'Tis a pity you have not ten lives-a cat's and your own." It is possible that Pilpay got the saying from some writer or talker even Allan J. Blair's Terrible Suffering-Helpless for Upwards of Two Years-The Best Physicians Could Hold Out No Hope of Recovery-His Health Fully Restored as the Result of Taking Friendly Advice-A Story That Hundreds Can Vouch For.

(From The Blenheim News.)

Many of the readers of the News have seen and conversed with a gentlemanly young fellow who acts as canvasser for the well-known tea firm of G. Marshall & Co., London, and during the past year and a half he has become well known and is highly liked by a large number of people in all the towns and villages of the West. From his personal appearance it would scarcely be believed that two years ago he was subject to the most excruciating pains that stantly in the society columns of the news- ever tortured a human individual, and was papers. They are extravagant beyond daily growing weaker and weaker, so that their means and they are both wealthy by only a few months appeared to stand between him and the grave. is as enjoyable as it is unique. It requires considerable lighting up at night. This may be judged from the fact that scattered about and around the arena is an electric searchlight of 20,000 candle-power. There are 10 projecting arc lamps of 10,000 candlepower, 20 of 2.000 candle-power, and 500 incandescent lamps of 16 candle-power; and there will shortly be seen at the World's Water Show an are lamp brought from America by Captain Boyton, the biggest and brightest of its kind ever known. The bill for electric light for this one corner of the arena amounts to £100 a week.

A little chat with Wallace Ross, the champion sculler of America, and George Bubear, the champion sculler of England, elicited many interesting facts. They are both splendid specimens of manhood. Whilst Ross is dark-skinned, with black hair and moustache, Bubear is equally as fair, though his face is as bronzed as that of his friendly rival's. It was Wallace Ross who led the water-walkers on the trip on the Thames from Chelsea to London Bridge a few weeks ago. " I am an old-timer with the shoes," he said, with a decided Yankee twang. "I have been off and on them for over ten years. I have done thousands of miles of water-walking. Of course, you can get along much better with the tide, but the worst water I ever stepped upon was in New York Bay, which is terribly rough at times. The boots are worth £10 a pair, weigh 10lb. each, are pneumatic, and made of rubber. I think they will be a big success as a sport. The Prince of Wales suggested that they ought to come in very useful for fishing purposes." Visitors to the World's Water Show will see a race between Wallace Ross and Geo. Bubear on the lake. They race in sectional boats, made in three pieces, and are capable of being carried in a trunk; but their most remarkable and novel race is ______. De boat's done gone, sah.' that done on road-scullers. "I have done many a day's race on them," said George Bubear, as he was just examining the wheels of his machine preparatory to giving an exhibition. "I once rode in a race at Wolverhampton, and did 20 miles in little over an hour.

"You see your feet fit in a sort of pair of slippers; you steer with these and pull with your hands. You have to be very careful, and when you get forward you must catch your strokes, so to speak, very quick. You see, they are made with sliding seats, only in this case you have to go forward, instead of backward as in a boat. Have I been long in the business? Well, it is thirteen years since I won my first of Putney, and since then I have rowed some forty-four matches."

Here, 60ft. above the ground, the boats are in waiting. They are capable of seating some six or eight persons, two on each seat.
