to be the guests of Mrs. Edwin Ford. At a meeting of the Wild Wood Tennis club at Mrs. T. J. Smith's yesterday it was decided to give a ball at the Windsor hotel on Friday evening. Invitations are to go out today and lovers of dancing anticipate much pleasure.

A party of young ladies drove to Rockaway cottage yesterday and were entertained most delightfully at tea by Mrs. Melick and her daughters Louise and Kate Melick. The cottage was decorated very tastefully for the occasion with vines and flowers all flowers used were yellow and the table decorations were most unique. I will describe it as it may be an idea for those who read PROGRESS. Sunflowers were placed in the centre of the table in pymarid style, each sunflower held a candle in the centre, all around the table at convenient places sunflowers were arranged, each holding a candle, when lighted the effect was exceedingly pretty. The outside of the cottage was hung with Chinese lanterns and both inside and outside presented a most festive appearance. Conversation, whist and a sumptous supper made the time fly, and it was a late hour when the ladies started for St. Stephen. On Thursday evening Mrs. Melick entertains a party of young people, invited to meet their guest Miss Grace Aldrich, of Boston, who is spending a week at Rockaway
