Saturday last was a great day at the yacht club, any amount of people gathered there during the afternoon most of them in time to see the yachts come in after the race for Lord Alexander Russell's cup. There were seven starters, and after an exceedingly pretty and well sailed race the cup was won by Mr. H. Wylde's "Youla" with the "Wym"

second and the "Lenore" third. The bankers' regatta has been fixed for an early date in August, and the crews for the ladies' race has already been chosen. The races will be in the Arm, finishing at Thornvale, the residence of Mr. T. E. Kenny, M. P., as usual in past years. Each crew in the ladies' race is to have a male coxswain, and young brothers and midshipmen will probably be in demand.

The South End tennis club liad their opening day on Saturday, with their courts in excellent order There was to have been a tennis tournament this week, but at the time of writing I am unable to say whether or not it is coming off. Mrs. Mellor is likely to be the champion lady player, as I hear very good accounts of her play from Bermuda. There is great interest taken in tennis by the officers of the Liverpool regiment, far more than by those of the Leicestershire regiment.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Oliver had a small tea which was very pleasant and pretty, and on Tuesday there was a small tennis party at the Arm.

Wednesday was altogether given up to holiday making and all the elite had no thoughts beyond the race meeting for the afternoon, and the illumination of the "Blake" in the evening. The concert at the gardens would have been completely ruined by this latter as far as attendance goes, had not Sir John until Thursday evening, and his departure with the flag ship till Saturday.

This would have been a sad pity, as the band of public on Wednesday evening.

week, owing to the two out of door entertainments | prevince. well balanced and true. Miss Carvell is far more | menced there has been really nothing worth writing of an American in her looks, carriage, and manner of dressing than one had imagined. She looks very well on the stage, and is well received by her audi- tions of this kind, and though the rooms were well

This is the especial time of year devoted to the school giri; the Mount St. Vincent Academy has its closing exercises on Tuesday next, and the Ladies' College has devoted three days of this week to the same affair, giving a musical recital, an exhibition of elocution, a mythological drama; and last of all having a presentation of diplomas. Miss Louise Holden, of St. John, graduated on Thursday afternoon, and is the third individual who has done so, Miss Chamberlain and Mr. Logan having been before her. I believe Miss Holden's ability is very great. The young ladies taking part in the drama and the Delsarte exercises which followed looked extremely pretty and graceful.

Many people were shocked at hearing of the sud den death of Miss Bessie Forsyth, youngest daughter of Mr. G. S. Forsyth, which took place on Tuesday. Miss Forsyth, who was apparently quite well on rising, was taken ill at noon, and died almost immediately. Much sympathy is felt for her

The marriage of Miss Millie Lowe and Mr. H. H. Theakston took place on Monday morning at the residence of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Theakston will visit St. John on their wedding journey.

The marriage of Miss Partridge, eldest daughter of the Rev. Canon Partridge, to Rev. Mr. Bellis of Horton, takes place at St. George's church on Wednesday morning next. Canon Partridge will perform the ceremony.

Whether it is a superstition or not, that heavy guns bring down rain is a moot question. The fact remains though that on Tuesday morning the weather was perfect, and that after the Royal salute from the citadel in honor of the Queen's accession and the salute from the town and flag-ship to the French Admiral immediately after, and its return, clouds gathered from all quarters, and there was a tremendous downpour for an hour or more. The Garden party given by the Woman's Exchange, bade fair to be blotted out; the Liverpool band was countermanded, and all sorts of arrangements made for postponing the whole affair, when the weather cleared as suddenly as it had darkened.

A good many people attended the party in the course of the afternoon, but there were quantities of ices and cakes left over. All the strawberries were sold, and altogether about sixty dollars was realized It was to have been a very fashiouable function, and people were greatly disappointed by the weather.

Dr. and Mrs. Tobin, have, I hear, let their house Dr. and Mrs. Tobin, have, I hear, let their house in Hollis street, to Mr. Harry Johnson for a year, the Conservatory of Music in Halifax, spent last which time the owners of the house will spend in travelling in England and France.

Of the two recently arrived brides, Mrs. Dorman only, has been "at home" to visitors. Mrs. Ferrie will probably not receive until the end of next week. The French flag-ship, the "Naide" arrived on Tuesday from Sydney, just in time to witness the illumination of H. M. S. "Blake."

The tennis party given at Wellington Barracks last week, was not remarkable for the amount of play accomplished: there were too many smart frocks worn by the ladies who usually play and the day was too warm. The band played delightfully, but the incessant mounting and remounting the long steps leading trom the tennis courts to the mess room was very fatiguing to many of the fair guests. At similar functions under the last regime people entered the mess room from the barrack square, by the front entrance, a much more preierable way. Then they descended to the courts or not, as seemed good to them. Next Wednesday a second party will be given.

Mrs. Stubbings gave a very pleasant little dance for young people only, at the Dockyard on Friday evening last. There were plenty of men, a large spribkling of navy men of course, and the whole weeks.

Much sympathy is felt here for Mrs. C. DeW. McDonald and Mr. Percy Robinson, in their late bereavement, the death of their mother, Mrs. W. Beverley Robinson of St. John. Mrs. Robinson visited her daughter in Dartmouth last year, and made many friends. I am sorry to write of the death last Thursday, of Mr. Alexander Forsythe, merchant, at his home on Water street. Mr. Forsythe was a native of Ayr shire, Scotland, and came to Dartmouth nearly thirty years ago; since which he has led an honorable and useful life in our midst. He leaves a widow and ons, and will be much missed and regretted.

JUNE 21,- The only social event that has come to my notice this week was the smart and pleasant dance given by Mr. Joe Douglas on Friday evening at his home on Victoria street. Mr. and Mrs. aunt, Mrs. Sleep, received the guests. The Misses Sleep, who looked particularly well for the occasion were a charming assistance with the general entertaining. Among those who enjoyed the event were Miss Brown, Miss May Handford, Miss Morse, Miss Gwen Main, Miss Helen Pipes, Misses El a and Maggie Purdy, Messrs. Douglas, Borden, Sayre, Main, Harding. Mr James Moffatt and Mr. Pelton, returned on Monday from a short fishing trip to Folleigh lake. Mr. M. is a famous angler and never fails to make a fairly good haul, but this time he was more than usually successful. Miss Mattie Campbell left on Friday evening en route for Boston, where she intends remaining until September. Miss Campbell is a valued assistance in the methodist choir and a much esteemed memper of society, and her friends trust that the flying report of a very long stay may be unfortunate. The picnic season is upon us and the prospect looks at present as if it would be a very prosperous one. On Saturday upwards of fifty little folks, in Morse drove to Fort Cumberland and spent a delightful day viewing the historic grounds and collecting relics; the return was quite the merriest part of the day, and all present concluded that a drive in a haycart was by far the most enjoyable way to go parish. picnicing. Another is proposed to take place in Black's woods on Saturday.

The picnic by train to St. John was not as well patronized as the promoters hoped for, but the weather is most favorable, so without doubt there will be considerable pleasure if not heavy receipts. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wiltshire and little son went to Pugwash on Monday where Mrs. Wiltshire intends staying for several weeks, Mr. Wiltshire will return to preside in his accustomed place as organist in Christ church on Sunday.
