MAITLAND.

[Progress is for sale in Maitland by James Urquhart.]

Sept. 4th.—In my last letter I neglected telling of the Bachelors' club ball, which took place in the town hall on Monday evening. The old hall was converted for the time being into a bower of loveliness, tastefully decorated with huge mirrors and beautiful ferns. The "sitting-out" rooms were all prettily gotten up too; much taste being displayed in the carrying out of arrangements necessary to make the dance a pleasant one. This in a large measure is due to Mr. E. C. Johnson, Mr. Ernest Douglas and Mr. H. V. Eaton. Oatley's orchestra, hidden behind a huge bank of mosses, cut flowers and ferns, dispersed beautiful music. All who remember what a perfect deluge we had on that night will see how typical the opening and closing dances were, viz., "The Blue Danube" and "Slide Gondoia Glide." The ladies were all charmingly dressed and special mention must be made of Miss McCumber, who was in pale blue, her brocaded bodice being mixed with silver threads.

Miss Abbie Roy gave a very pleasant party on Thursday the 31st inst. The evening was devoted to cards and dancing and was most enjoyable. Among those present were, Misses Urquhart, White, Abbie Eaton, Agnes Putnam, Louise Putnam, Bes-Roy, Annie Roy, Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Crulman, Miss McArthur, Miss Barbrick, Miss Cochrane, Miss Christie, Miss Dillio, Lizzie Putnam, Miss Eaton, Miss Smith and Messrs. John Roy, Dan. Miller, N. Murphy, S. C. Johnson, Arch. Arthur, Frank Putnam, Frank Putnam, Dr. O. F. McCallum, Jamie Putnam, Frank McDougall (Truro). Many pretty gowns were worn and the guests did not separate until a late hour.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Ruth Dartt Sanderson, the concert which was to have been given on Wednesday last and for which Mr. Stuart came from Truro, has been indefinitely postponed.

The S. S. picnic of Trinity parish was held in "Phoebe's Meadow" on Saturday last and was a great success.

Arthur Putnam is attending the academy at Truro. Miss Minnie Barnes and Miss Murray went to Truro on Thursday.

Miss Murray returns to Scotland on the Saturday of this week.

I hear of two more dances in the near future, of which more anon.

Miss Farquharson is the guest of her sister Mrs. A. C. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. D. MacDonald are rusticating in Cape Breton.

Mrs. Patterson of Truro is visiting her sister Mrs. G. S. Carson.

A day with the clouds and wind on the charming "Green Hill" was spent by a merry party of picnic lovers last Thursday. As usual the young men element was too scarce, but those who were there, were of course, all that could be desired. The drive up the river side is itself a treat, and looking down upon the beautiful landscape, the climax of scenery is capped. The return drive was made as the moon rose and the moon rose as the drive was made and was so short. With Mrs. R. Johnston, the hostess, the party included Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Glennie, Miss Annie Macdonald, Mrs. Fergie, Miss Simpson (Westville) Miss Minnie McDonald, Miss Primrose, Miss McDuff, Messrs. Will Ferguson, James Primrose, R. Johnston, Mr. Fergie (Westville).

The three masted steam yacht, Intrepid of New York was in the harbor several days last week. Mrs. Ralston and two children, are at Mrs. H. Y. Batson's.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at G. P. Treat's.]

Sept. 6.—The marriage of Miss Edith B. Hannah and Mr. Herbert Dow, on Wednesday evening last, was one of the happy events of the week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Penna, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hannah. The bride looked extremely pretty in a handsome bridal costume of cream-colored henrietta cloth, richly trimmed with lace and moire ribbon, she carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Sara Porter, wore a lovely gown of blue and white silk, with trimmings of blue velvet; she also carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom was supported by his friend, Mr. W. A. Mills. There were about forty guests present. Immediately after the congratulations, supper was served, and as there was to be no wedding tour, the bride and groom drove to their pretty residence, that had been prepared for them on Princess street. The bride was presented with numerous pretty and elegant gifts. The following is a list of them:

Mr. W. A. Mills, piano lamp.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart, silver ornament.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes of Ottawa, (nee Miss Mina Downes) a handsome set of bed room furniture.
Mrs. J. Hodgins is now in Calais, visiting her father, Judge Downes.

One of the most delightful outings since my last letter was the trolley ride and yachting dinner given by Mr. Edward Boynton of Boston to several young friends in Calais and St. Stephen. Mr. Boynton came from Boston last week in his handsome yacht "Magnolia." He was accompanied by his friend Mr. Treat. The yacht has been anchored at the Ledge, and to that place some six miles down the river the merry trolley party rode. Here they embarked on the "Magnolia" and enjoyed a delightful sail about the river and Oak Bay until six o'clock when a most sumptuous dinner was served. It was a most charming day, and with such a jolly and generous host, nothing was needed to complete the pleasure of the occasion and it will long be remembered by the guests who were Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Kelly, Miss Josephine Moore, the Misses Washburne, Miss Foster and Miss Nellie Smith, Messrs. Hagar, Graham, Sherman Boies, Lee Porter and Rufus Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Neill, gave a buckboard ride on Monday for the entertainment of Mrs. Lightwood of Washington and Mrs. Whelpley of Eastport.

Mr. Burke, inspector of Inland Revenue accompanied by Mrs. Burke spent several days with friends in St. Stephen and Calais.

The races at St. Croix driving park yesterday and today have as usual been the centre of attraction. All the elite of the towns were present and although there were no familiar and well known horses in the races to give them the usual interest and enthusiasm, yet everyone seemed to enjoy it and there was a large crowd in attendance.

The ladies of Christ-church congregation, held a meeting on Monday to decide the best way to entertain the clergyman who will visit their parish the last of the month during the clerical conference.

Mrs. T. A. Vaughan, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Bolton, Miss Abbot and Mr. J. T. Whitlock, were the guests of the Misses Whitlock at "Surf" cottage on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Stroude, of Montreal, is in town and registered at the Windsor.

Miss Alice Pike gave a most novel entertainment to twenty lady friends on Thursday, at her residence. Invitations were given for a breakfast at eleven o'clock, and whilst the guests were waiting, the evening. The room was beautifully adorned with flowers and ferns, and the guests found their places at the breakfast table by means of cards, each with the guest's name, and a line of poetry. It was a most jolly affair, as all Miss Pike's entertainments are, and the ladies, even after their long day of pleasure, found it hard to bid their hostess adieu.

Mr. G. W. Ganong is spending a few days in Bellisle, Kings county.

Mrs. Willard B. King gave a dine-whist party to a number of lady friends on Friday afternoon. A dainty supper was served at 7 o'clock.
