MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Book Store, the Central Book Store, A. H. Jones, Main street, and by J. E. McCoy.]

Sept. 6.—The last few days have been so cold it makes one think of winter, and leading dry goods merchant displaying in his window a large assortment of fur caps certainly does not add to the comfort of one's feelings on these chilly autumn evenings.

Moncton in the summer months may not possess many attractions for the tourist; but I am sure any one visiting the "hub" in September could not help but enjoy themselves; we are now having cool and delightful weather.

Miss Minnie Charters, who is attending the Philadelphia Medical College is home on a vacation. She will graduate next spring, and although she may not practise her profession here, Moncton may still claim the honor of producing one female physician.

Mr. Peter McSwaney, one of our leading dry goods merchants, who went to England in July to purchase goods, is now on his way home in the new Canadian steamer "Lucania," which is making her maiden voyage.

Mr. Jack Fargeant of Newcastle, was in town a few days on business last week. Mr. Robt. Chandler, who has been spending the summer with his brother, Mr. E. B. Chandler, left for his home in New York last Thursday.

$200 Worth

Of Other Medicines Failed

But 4 Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"It is with pleasure that I tell of the great benefit I derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. For 6 years I have been badly afflicted with Erysipelas breaking out with running sores during hot summer months. I have sometimes not been able to use my limbs for two months at a time. Being induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, I got one bottle last spring, commenced using it; it felt so much better, got two bottles more; took them during the summer, was able to do my household work, and which I had not done for six years. Think I am cured of erysipelas, and recommend any person so afflicted to use Hood's Sarsaparilla Four bottles has done more for me than $200 worth of other medicine. I think it the best blood purifier known." Mrs. H. D. WEST, Church street, Cornwallis, N. S.
