DEC. 5 -The air is heavy with rumored engage. ments, which are di-cussed sub-rosa. It is evidently not considered good form nowadays to announce engagements until the wedding day is set, and while people can surmise to their heart's content, they can never be positively sure until they receive the wedding cards of the suspects.

A ripple of excitement and pleasure in fashionable circles was occasioned last week by the appearance in concert of Mrs. Harrison, of Sackville, who sang at Masonic hall, Monday evening, to the largest gathering of the society set seen together for some time. Although arrangements were made for special boat service from Newcastle, the cold snap set in suddenly, and with utter disregard to cherished plans, forming an impenetrable ice-barrier, much to the regret of a large number of our concert-loving neighbors, who entertained hopes of a late autumn sail by moonlight, and an evening of rare pleasure. Mrs. Harrison was assisted by Miss Edith Troy, pianist, and Mr. A. B. Tweezy, elocutionist. For her first number Mrs. Harrison sang, La Tourbillion—Titto Mattei, and for an encore gave Home, Dearie Home, by Molloy, completely capturing the audience. Mr. Tweezy recited The Chariot Race, from Ben Hur, displaying a thorough knowledge of rhythm and expression, and gave a delightfully amorous selection, im tating bird notes.
