

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

(CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.)

New York city but expect to return home before Christmas.

Mr. A. Allison Bartlett, of Charlottetown, has been here for some days. Mr. Bartlett is becoming very popular on the lecture platform. His friends hope to induce him to deliver his lecture here on Paris. His vivid word painting of night scenes in that gay city is very interesting. The streets near Theatre Comique are very interesting. The streets near Theatre Comique are very interesting.

Hon. P. G. and Mrs. Ryan are in the city and are making their home for the winter with Mrs. Duffy, Brunswick street.

Mrs. Brinton, of New York, and Mrs. Annie Sutherland have returned from a visit to St. John.

Mrs. T. McCarty is home from St. John for a short stay but will return to the city by the sea for the remainder of winter months.

Mr. A. S. Murray and Mr. Geo. F. Gregory went to the City Centre to-day to attend the funeral of the late Mr. B. G. Baxter.

Prof. Bristowe delighted a Woodstock audience on Thursday evening last with his fine playing at the organ recital in the F. B. church there.

Miss Sybil King of St. John is visiting her friend Miss Woodbridge, of the hill.

Mr. Racy, of New York, is to succeed Mr. Sharp in the bank of B. N. A.

Miss Blair, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. F. Randolph, has returned to her home in St. John.

Mr. N. A. C. H. leaves to-morrow for his home in the sunny south.

Mr. T. B. Blair has returned from his stay in St. John.

ST. ANDREWS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Andrews by T. R. Wren.]

Dec. 13.—On account of there being no governor in the province, and a marriage license not obtainable, a fashionable wedding, which was to have been celebrated in All Saints' church, on Tuesday afternoon, between Miss Blanche Lorimer, one of St. Andrews' fairest daughters, and Mr. H. L. Cole, of St. John, took place at St. Anne's church, Calais, Me., at nine o'clock Tuesday morning. Rev. Mr. Newnam, of St. John officiating. The bride was given away by Mr. F. A. Grimmer, of St. Stephen, and was attended by Miss McKee, of St. Andrews. Mr. Horace Cole supported his brother, the bridegroom. The wedding party then drove to St. Andrews, and at half-past three, a ceremony was performed in All Saints' church, by Rev. Canon Ketchum.

The bridal party, consisting of the ushers, Mr. W. Whitlock, Mr. E. A. Cockburn, Mr. J. F. Stevenson and Mr. H. S. Pettick, of St. Stephen; the bridesmaids, Miss Russell, of St. John, Miss Carmichael, of St. Andrews, the maid of honor, Miss McKee, and groomsmen, Mr. Horace Cole, and the bride and groom came up the aisle while the choir sang the wedding hymn. "The voice that breathed our Eden." The bride looked charming in a gown of tan hosiery, trimmed with velvet and silk, with a pretty hat to match. Miss McKee looked lovely in a green velvet redingote and tan cloth skirt, green hat and tan trimmings; Miss Carmichael looked very pretty in grey velvet, trimmed with dark blue velvet, and blue hat; Miss Russell looked very handsome in a blue and tan shot wool bengaline, hat, blue velvet, tan feathers. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies. The bridesmaids wore chrysanthemums. Mrs. Lorimer, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black cloth, jet trimmings, bonnet of grey and black velvet with grey feathers. Mrs. R. C. Cole, mother of the groom, wore black silk, jet trimmings, bonnet, black and white velvet. Mrs. A. G. Parker, mother of the groom, wore black and amber satin, jet trimmings, bonnet to match. Miss Maie Cole, another sister, wore a very pretty gown of old rose cloth trimmed with black velvet, white hat, old rose trimmings. About 70 guests and a large number of people witnessed the ceremony. On leaving the church the wedding party drove to Rosebank, the residence of the bride's mother, where a reception was held, and many and sincere were the good wishes and congratulations.

The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful set of skin jacket, to the maid of honor, a turquoise ring, to the bridesmaids, pearl hair pins. The bride's present from Miss McKee, half dozen solid silver teaspoons; Miss Carmichael, brass ornament; Miss Russell, hand painted royal Worcester brush and comb tray, pin cushion, toilet set and tea set; H. W. Cole, piano lamp, with onyx table; from the ushers very handsome silver lamp; Mrs. Lorimer, unique writing chair; W. D. Lorimer, half dozen solid silver teaspoons; M. and Mrs. J. C. Coll, china dinner set, and family bible; Mrs. A. G. Parker, royal Worcester and silver ice dish; Miss Cole, black marble hand-painted card table mounted on brass stand and an oil painting; Mrs. Maie Cole, silver sugar spoon; Miss Dottie Cole, tudy from the groom's aunt Miss Smith (St. John), case and hand painted toy; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Russell, St. John, set of carvers, solid silver; Mrs. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Purchase, St. John, travelling rug and strap; Mr. and Mrs. James Lemon, St. John, Hanover vase; Mrs. B. R. Stevenson and Miss Stevenson, silver cream jug and sugar bowl; Miss Andrews, Wedgewood (yug); Capt. N. M. Clarke, Columbus, Santa Marie, silver clock; Mrs. O. J. Orell, ornament; Miss Orell, plain perfume case; Mr. G. E. Carmichael, half dozen silver nut-picks and crackers; Mrs. Chish and G. B. Chish, Wedgewood vase; Mrs. Algar, silver teacup; Mrs. W. M. Algar, whisk holder; Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Cockburn, silver orange spoon and knife; Mrs. W. M. Snodgrass, silver butter dish; Miss G. Patterson, silk handkerchiefs; Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Clarke, silver receiver; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stuart, framed steel engraving; Mr. and Miss Stevenson, silver pie knife; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Magee (Co. port), silver ice cream set; Miss Magee, vase; members of the Guild, Wedgewood biscuit jar; Mrs. Scallion (hamcock), ornament; Mrs. O. Clark, silver tray; Miss Sweeney, Wedgewood toilet set; Miss G. Sweeney, silver sugar spoon; Miss Kennedy, silk sofa cushion; Miss J. Kennedy, silver napkin ring; Mr. C. E. Kennedy, half dozen silver orange spoons; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Barnard, half dozen silver coffee spoons; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Wren, brass picture frame and d'oyies; Mr. A. Thompson, silver ink stand; Mr. and Mrs. John Wren, silver sachet bag; Mr. Wm. Brodie, china salad dish; Dr. and Mrs. Ketchum, silver ladies; Mr. and Mrs. Treadwell, silver manure set; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Grimmer, silver cake basket; Mrs. Simpson, worked centre piece; Miss Ross, silver photo frame; Miss Sprague, Wedgewood cream pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, St. Stephen, table mats; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. i Wolfe Wedgewood pitcher; Mrs. Frank Mowatt, orange spoon and knife; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, Montreal, dozen solid silver dessert knives and forks; pearl handles; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clarke, handkerchief case; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Murray, Halifax, brass photo frame; Mrs. M. E. Clarke, jewel case; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stickney, Wedgewood candlestick; Mr. T. T. Orell, jardiniere; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, tray cloth; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Conihard, Fredericton, flower holder; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lamb, silver marmalade spoon; Mrs. G. Douglas, tray cloth; Miss A. Lamb, Belloch, sugar and cream; Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Japanese pot-pourri jar; Mrs. Eaton, St. John, Belloch, cups and saucers; Miss N. Shaw, Ashcroft, B. C. chiffon handkerchief, besides others received in St. John, but not forwarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole left by train for Boston and other cities.

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. John Louane & Co.]

Dec. 12.—The very sudden death of Mrs. B. Harry Smith has cast a gloom over the whole town. Mrs. Smith died on Monday after a few hours' illness. As Miss Lizzie Brayley, of Montreal, she came a bride to Woodstock, little more than a year ago, and in her short married life in our town made many friends who sincerely regret her early demise. The most heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mr. Smith in his bereavement, and to her mother, Mrs. J. W. Brayley. Mrs. Smith's remains were taken to Montreal by Tuesday night's train for burial.

GRAND FALLS.

Dec. 12.—Miss Mary Rainford returned last week from Toronto where she spent a few days visiting relatives. Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, of Fort Fairfield, Me., and her little daughter, Helen, were here lately on their way to Van Buren.

Mr. and Mrs. McIlhenny have returned from Edmundston and will reside here for the winter. Miss Lizzie Gosselin left, the last of November, for Ottawa where she will attend school until her studies are completed.

Miss Nellie Bell went to Houlton last week to remain in the winter.

Mrs. W. B. West, who has been visiting her daughter in Houlton for the past few weeks, returned home Monday evening.

Xmas Perfumes made by the following makers, viz, Roger & Galt, Lusk, Kinison & Sons, Scott, McFarlane, Co., Galt & Co., Ricksicker, Crown Perfume Co., Bayley & Co., Lundholm and others, for sale by W. S. Barker, Druggist, 35 King Street.

A BARGAIN IN Dress Materials.

Send Postal For Samples.

We have secured 25 pieces NEW WINTER DRESS MATERIALS IN ALL WOOL HEAVY SCOTCH MIXTURES, in the newest and most Fashionable Makes and Colorings, and in order to close them out before Christmas we have marked them at the very low price of

35c. Yard,

or $2.00 For a Dress Pattern of 6 Yards.

This will be found a rare chance to purchase a FASHIONABLE AND SERVICEABLE DRESS at almost one half the regular price.

We would call attention to the importance of an early inspection, as naturally the choicest patterns go first.

S. C. PORTER,

11 Charlotte Street, : - St. John, N. B.

ANDOVER.

Dec. 12.—The social event of last week was a most successful party, given by Dr. and Mrs. Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tibbits, on Wednesday evening, in the hall. Over one hundred guests were present who had a most enjoyable time. Dancing was the principal amusement, while some indulged in cards. Excellent music was furnished by the Andover orchestra. At midnight a delicious supper was served, after which dancing was resumed until well into the wee sma' hours. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richards, Mrs. Jas. Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. Reddell, Misses Magie and Annie Magill, and Mr. James Magill, came from Fort Fairfield, Me., to attend the party.

Mrs. James Tibbits and Miss Edith Tibbits are visiting relatives in Ashland, Me. Miss Sadie Tucker is home again after a two weeks visit in Calais, Me. Miss Mary Watson has been visiting friends in Woodstock, and returned home Monday.

Mrs. Allan Perley is spending a few days at Grand Falls. The death of Bernard Baxter, which occurred at his home in Lower Perth, Monday night, was a great shock to his many friends and old schoolmates in this place, and the deepest sympathy is expressed for his parents and sisters in their bereavement.

ST. MARYS, N. B.

Dec. 11.—Mrs. Charles Brown, who has been very ill lately, is recovering rapidly. Mrs. Thomas Robinson, returned to her home at Blackville last week. Miss Russell remained to assist in caring for Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Edward Wilson is slowly recovering from the injuries she received some time ago, and is able to walk about without the aid of a crutch and cane. Mrs. Nelson Foster visited her old home at Lower St. Marys, recently.

Miss Pepper has returned from an extended and pleasant visit to the hub.

The young people are in pleasant anticipation of a large dance to be given in a few days, at the residence of a trio of charming young ladies, a short distance below Oakland.

APOLQU.

Dec. 13.—Miss Belle Burgess, has returned from visiting friends in Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gross spent Sunday in Penobscot.

Miss Hetty Wannamaker is spending this week in Sussex.

Mr. Chas. Kievers, Danvers, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Gross.

Miss E. L. Burgess, spent Thursday and Friday in St. John.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Scribner gave them a wedding on Tuesday last, it being the fifth anniversary of their wedding day.

CAMPOBELLO.

Dec. 13.—Mr. J. E. Alzar was in town on Tuesday, the 12th inst.

Rev. Mr. Daggett preached in the North Road church on Sunday evening.

Maudford Newman was in town on Sunday evening.

Geo. Mowry, of Lubec, steamer "Mizpah," registered at the Byron on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Clarke, silver receiver; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stuart, framed steel engraving; Mr. and Miss Stevenson, silver pie knife; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Magee (Co. port), silver ice cream set; Miss Magee, vase; members of the Guild, Wedgewood biscuit jar; Mrs. Scallion (hamcock), ornament; Mrs. O. Clark, silver tray; Miss Sweeney, Wedgewood toilet set; Miss G. Sweeney, silver sugar spoon; Miss Kennedy, silk sofa cushion; Miss J. Kennedy, silver napkin ring; Mr. C. E. Kennedy, half dozen silver orange spoons; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Barnard, half dozen silver coffee spoons; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Wren, brass picture frame and d'oyies; Mr. A. Thompson, silver ink stand; Mr. and Mrs. John Wren, silver sachet bag; Mr. Wm. Brodie, china salad dish; Dr. and Mrs. Ketchum, silver ladies; Mr. and Mrs. Treadwell, silver manure set; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Grimmer, silver cake basket; Mrs. Simpson, worked centre piece; Miss Ross, silver photo frame; Miss Sprague, Wedgewood cream pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, St. Stephen, table mats; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. i Wolfe Wedgewood pitcher; Mrs. Frank Mowatt, orange spoon and knife; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, Montreal, dozen solid silver dessert knives and forks; pearl handles; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clarke, handkerchief case; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Murray, Halifax, brass photo frame; Mrs. M. E. Clarke, jewel case; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stickney, Wedgewood candlestick; Mr. T. T. Orell, jardiniere; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong, tray cloth; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Conihard, Fredericton, flower holder; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lamb, silver marmalade spoon; Mrs. G. Douglas, tray cloth; Miss A. Lamb, Belloch, sugar and cream; Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Japanese pot-pourri jar; Mrs. Eaton, St. John, Belloch, cups and saucers; Miss N. Shaw, Ashcroft, B. C. chiffon handkerchief, besides others received in St. John, but not forwarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole left by train for Boston and other cities.

Mr. Geo. W. Cook, of St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Like a Waterfall After the Crip

Tremendous Roaring in the Head Pain in the Stomach.

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and Severe Sinking Pains In my stomach. I took medicines without benefit until, having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. All the disagreeable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches, and believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." Geo. W. Cook, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Nausea, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Bilioussness. Sold by all druggists.

The latest and best in Military Hair Brushes. Solid Ebony backs. W. S. Barker, Druggist, 35 King Street.

NEWCASTLE.

[Progress is for sale in Newcastle by Max Aiken.]

Dec. 13.—Socially the town is very quiet, everybody being busy preparing for Christmas.

Mrs. Hunter and son are daily expected on a visit to Mrs. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fish.

It is reported that Miss May Fish intends returning to Buffalo with Mrs. Hunter when she goes there to join her husband in their new home.

We are glad to have Miss Jean Thomson home again after her long visit in Nova Scotia.

Miss Aitken has also returned from visiting friends in Halifax and Truro.

Mr. Geo. Howard has returned from a visit to his home in St. John looking much the better of his trip.

Mrs. Howard will soon entertain a few friends at what last Monday evening.

News has been received here that two of our town boys have lately joined the ranks of the benevolent.

We tender our congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Sinclair; and also to Mr. and Mrs. Blanche Thomson.

Rumor says we are to have a very quiet wedding the week between Christmas and New Year. We regret that the young lady who is one of our most popular belles is to have her new home so far from us in the great Northwest.

BUCTOUCHE.

Dec. 12.—Miss Lorena McIntyre has returned home from a visit to her sister in Boston.

Miss Dickie, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Murray, returned to-day to her home in the United States.

Miss Lina Potts expects to leave on Wednesday for Portland, Maine.

Rev. Mr. Findlay, Presbyterian, was called home last week on account of the illness of his wife. Consequently there was no service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.

Mr. Robert Barker, of St. John, is in town.

Mr. D. M. Deane, of St. John, is in town.

Mr. J. A. Irving spent Monday in Montreal.

Mrs. W. H. Irving appeared out in the medicalist church, Sunday evening. She was dressed in a very becoming dress of green silk with velvet trimmings, light cloth cape trimmed with green silk, white hat trimmed with white and green roses and a shaded green bird.

Mrs. Irving is receiving this week at her new home, assisted by her sister, Miss Inglis, of Shediac, who is visiting her, and Miss Irving.

Her reception dress is composed of a navy blue velvet skirt, pink waist, with navy blue velvet zouave jacket and pink sash. She certainly looks lovely.

RICHBUCTO.

[Progress is for sale in Richibucto by Theo. P. Graham.]

Dec. 13.—Mr. H. P. Webber and company closed their most successful visit to this town on Saturday evening.

Miss Edwina Grey during her appearance here never received so many tokens of appreciation as she did last week.

Mr. Geo. V. McInerney M. P., returned on Saturday from a trip to Ottawa.

Messrs. E. P. Romeril, of Montreal and Walter Ranking, of St. John, were in town last Friday.

Mr. John Stevenson Jr., of the I. C. R. station, at Kent Junction spent Sunday with his uncle Mr. John Stevenson, Sr.

Miss Ida Hudson returned last week from a visit of several weeks spent in Montreal.

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P. P., left on Monday for Fredericton.

Mr. Geo. R. McLeod, of St. John, was here on Sunday.

The funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Lawson, whose death occurred Friday after a long and painful illness, took place on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended.

HILLSBORO N. B.

Dec. 12.—It is very quiet here now, there is little or nothing to write of. The young people are all too busy preparing Christmas gifts to devote any time to gaiety.

It is to be hoped that after Christmas they will make up for these dull times.

There has been some talk of organizing a literary society, but of late I have heard nothing of it.

Miss Addie Jump went to Albert, Saturday.

The friends of Mrs. John Beatty are glad to see her out again.

A number of the young people enjoyed a sleigh drive last week. I hear there is some talk of another of this kind.

Miss Clara Steeves, of Salisbury, is the guest of Mrs. Joe Steeves.

The members of the Frances Willard Lodge held a social and oyster supper, last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. J. N. Steeves. It proved a success both financially and socially.

The ladies of the sewing circle met at Mrs. Jordan Steeves.

DORCHESTER.

[Progress is for sale in Dorchester by G. M. Fairweather.]

Dec. 13.—A very pleasant event occurred this afternoon when Mr. Rufus D. Ward, the prominent post office clerk, was united by marriage to Miss Nellie Harris, one of Dorchester's most prominent young ladies.

Mr. Ward is very much thought of on account of his clever and obliging business principles.

Mr. W. D. Wilbur returned home from St. John on Monday, where he has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. John Eagles.

LITTLE GLACE BAY.

Dec. 11.—Mr. McKee, of the Union bank of Halifax, returned Friday after a vacation of two weeks. Mr. Strickland who has been relieving him, left the same day for Halifax.

Mrs. Murray has taken charge of the C. P. R. telegraph office, recently opened here.

Miss Mitchell who has been teaching music here, and organist in the Presbyterian church left on Friday for her home in Margolis, probably to remain the winter. Before leaving she was presented with a valuable bible from the Christian endeavor society, and a substantial purse from members of the church.

Miss Kiechen, who has been ill for some time, is improving rapidly.

The many friends of Capt. Haviland of the S. S. Edith, will be pleased to learn that he has taken command of a much larger ship the "S. S. Aldersgate," and will sail for India shortly.

Evangelist.

The latest and best in Military Hair Brushes. Solid Ebony backs. W. S. Barker, Druggist, 35 King Street.

YARMOUTH, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. J. Vickery, Harris & Guest, H. W. Cann and J. A. Craig.]

Dec. 12.—Chief among the events of the past week was the first entertainment by the Star course series, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., given in the Boston Marine hall on Thursday last, to a full house.

Judge Wm. B. Green, of Brooklyn, New York, impersonator and story teller, for two hours held the attention and delighted his audience with his art, wit and humor.

His description of his own official career, as justice of the peace, was certainly funny, as well as his early school days which were witty as well as beautifully described, bringing in one or two of Whittier's and other poets' descriptive school poems; but the finest thing of the evening was the recitation of James Whitcomb Riley's "Knee deep in June," which was beautifully given.

His imitations of German, Irish and Southern negro dialects were excellent. The next entertainment of the Star course will probably be in January.

Capt. John Murphy and his daughter Miss Murphy, have returned from a trip to St. John.

Miss Bessie and Julia Moody left Yarmouth for Halifax on Wednesday last to take the steamer for St. Kitts, W. I., where they intend spending the winter.

Mrs. Henrietta Russell, the Delsartean lecturer, left for Boston on Wednesday last after spending a number of days in Yarmouth. She delivered a number of interesting lectures, one of them at Mrs. James J. Lovett's residence on Friday afternoon.

Miss Moody has been to Digby on a short visit. Miss Margaret Binyon has returned from Digby.

Judge Wm. B. Green left on Friday for Windsor and Wolfville.

Mrs. B. Bonness, customs' detective, arrived here on Wednesday last by steamer Boston and left for Digby.

Mr. E. H. Oakes, of Lynn, Mass., returned to Boston on Wednesday night.

Mr. G. Bradford left per steamer Boston on Wednesday for Montreal.

Mr. George Bengay left for Halifax on Friday last.

The literary entertainment that was to have been given in connection with Trinity church has been postponed until after Christmas, when there will be given one grand one.

Mr. Thomas Corning left for Halifax on Friday last.

Mr. W. D. Lovitt went to Halifax on Tuesday last.

Mr. A. Spimney was a passenger to Boston on Saturday evening.

Mr. Thompson of Annapolis, who has purchased the drug store of Harris and Guest intends moving to Yarmouth, to take possession of the business.

Hon. Dr. Parker, of Halifax, spent a few days in Yarmouth.

Mr. Archie Eakins, who was badly hurt from a fall through a hallway, is again on his feet.

The Yarmouth Dickens' club has reopened for the winter. There are about twenty-five members.

Mr. W. D. Lovitt, intends moving the buildings on the corner of Main and Parade streets and building the spring new brick block three stories high, part of which is to be fitted for an Opera house, one of the largest and finest in the lower provinces, the entrance of which will be on Parade street.

Dr. Calkin arrived by steamer Boston on Saturday last.

H. L. Phillips, of Malden, Mass., left by steamer Boston on Saturday.

Capt. A. Burns, of Kingston, arrived on Saturday by the Boston.

There is a Mother Goose entertainment to be given in the Y. M. C. A. next week.

Capt. F. Sterling, arrived on Saturday by steamer Boston.

Ill B. Joyce, of Boston, returned by steamer on Saturday.

Dr. R. B. Freeman, of Watertown, Mass., was in town on Sunday.

N. Neely, of New York, arrived here last week.

MILFORD, N. B.

Dec. 14.—Mrs. P. Joyce, Fort Howe, spent a day last week with her mother, Mrs. J. Driscoll.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooly, of Fairville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Hooly's parents, Pleasant street.

Miss H. Welsh spent Sunday with friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mulaney, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy.