Yet another charitable undertaking is upon us the way of entertainments. The ladies' committee of the Sailors' Home, whose last achievement, the Nautical Fair, was so successful, have a novel scheme on foot for the coming summer. Its exact character is to be kept a complete secret, I am told, but it is permitted to state that there are to be fifty ladies on the stage, all beautifully and fautast cally dressed; that there will be music, singing, recitations, and one of the ever popular marches. Most of the principal ladies of Halifax are expected to take an interest in this affair, and some of the prominent musical lights are taking it up. It is to be hoped that Halifax contains fifty pretty girls; to the casual observer it looks as though the committee would be obliged to draw upon St. John!

On Tuesday evening there was a small dinner at government house, which was pleasant as such entertainments always are there. Mrs. Daly has quite recovered from her late attack of la grippe.

Mrs. William Stairs had a small party on the same evening, at which Professor Macdonald delivered one of his clever lectures. I hear the one chosen was that given at St. Andrew's church during the Wednesday evening was taken up by the farewell dance at Bellevue House, which must have seen quite two score dances by the way, during its occupation by Sir John Ross. If the general's departure had taken place at any other time than just now, when so many changes are recent in the personne of the garrison here, a farewell ball would doubtless have been tendered to him. Certainly he deserves such an attention from some one, as he has been uniformly hospitable to most people during his stay

I hear that Sir John and Miss Ross will spend the coming season in London, in order to enjoy a little gaiety before settling down at their home in the north of England.

The "Blake" is not expected here until the beginning of June, so that her officers will not arrive till the honors they have won in New York are an old story. Admiral Sir John Hopkins has certainly obtained a brilliant success for himself, and much kudos for the British navy by his share in the naval review.

The annual re-union of the Sunday school teachers of the various church of England parishes takes place this week at the church Institute. An excellent musical programme was prepared for the occa sion, and the usual refreshments were to be served A great many ladies well known in society, (frivolous society, bien entendu) belong to this association, and take a great interest in it.

* I hear that on the removal of Captain Boileau from this garrison, his place will probably be taken by a substitute well known here. Captain and Mrs. Jendwyne would be very heartily welcomed back to Halifax, if report is true.

Among the latest recruits in the ranks of professional nurses is Miss B. Albro, daughter of Mr. John Albro, of this city. Miss Albro goes very shortly to take a position in a hospital at Newark, N. J., having already gone through a preliminary course of nursing with the sisters lately in charge of the Church hospital here. Her many friends in Halifax and St. John will regret that she is going so far from Captain Curzon Howe, R. A., and Mrs. Curzon Howe have arrived from England and will spend the summer at the Queen hotel.

Miss Maud Ritchie leaves very shortly for England, where she will spend some time with Mrs. Charles Stewart, nee Miss H. Seeton, of Halifax. Miss Hilda Stairs was a passenger to England last Saturday and will join her sister Mrs. George Deane Bourke in Ireland, with whom she will spend the summer. I understand that in all probability Miss Stairs' marriage to Mr. Johnston, R. A., will take place in the autumn from her sister's house. Mr. Johnston is at present at Shoeburyness.

Miss Kenney and Miss Laura Almon left on Wednesday by the C. P. R., to join the party of Mr. Sandford Fleming and Miss Fleming for Vancouver. Miss Almon will spend some time at Calgary with her sister, Mrs. Graveley. I hear that Mr. A. G. Morrison has left town - or mer by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Borden. All rumors regarding the successor of Sir John

Ross are now definitely ended, Major General Alex ander Montgomery Moore having received the appointment. Sir John and Miss Ross leave Bellevue on the fourteenth of this month and will spend a few days with Mrs. Waldron at The Oaks before leaving

Mr. George Kenny leaves this week to join his regiment, the Enniskiden Fusiliers (27th) at Dover. I hear that a well known and popular couple whose marriage is shortly to take place, will visit the Chicago exhibition during their honeymoon. It is not every Halifax bride of this summer who will

Good a counts are heard of Mr. Arthur Thomson whose late severe illness has had such a tedious convalescence. But it will be some time before his health will be thoroughly re-established, as he is not yet able to leave his room. Mr. W. K. Thomson has returned from a visit to his brother in Texas.

The marriage of Mr. L. J. Hesskin and Miss Hamilton is to take place Friday, too late for Prog-RESS. Some of Miss Hamilton's presents were most magnificent, and her trousseau has in it some really beautiful gowns.

The marriage of the Rev. W. B. King takes place in Boston about the end of the month. His friends here were much surprised at the announcement of his engagement, no rumors of its approach having

I hear that his late congregation mean to treat him exceedingly well in the way of presents. Mr. King's honey-moon will be spent in England

Miss M. Sutherland of Sydney, is making a visit to Halifax.
Mr. and Mrs. John Duffus have gone to Washington for a few weeks.

The South End Lawn Tennis Club is once more in working order, with an excellent staff of officers. I hear there is to be an entertainment in aid of this organization very soon, as its expenses are heavy, and its income not equal to them.

The marriage of Colonel Roland Lane and Miss Beaumont took place at St. James' church, Picca dilly, London, on the 11th of April. As the many friends made by the bridegroom during his long residence here will doubtless take an interest in hearing a little about his wedding, I may sav that Baby's Croup is Cured by Hacknomore.

Dame rumor announces the purchase of a lot on Rupert street by one of our popular bachelors whom she also reports engaged to one of our most charming young ladies. As I have nothing to fully substantiate the statement I am compelled to wait better authority before giving names, but trust it is true. The consecration of the new R. C. church on Sunday brought a great many visitors to town to be present at the ceremony. The church is the finest m town and although much of its beauty of architecture is lost by the situation, it presents a very elegant facade. The solemn service was performed by his Lordship Bishop Rogers of Chatham, N. B., in the absence of his Lordship Archbishop O'Brien who was too ill to be present. Among the clergy who assisted in the imposing ceremony were Father Dayly, Father Grace, Father Chumane, Father Egan, Father Doherty S. J., Father O'Brien, Father Knight, and Father Mehan to whose untiring efforts the credit of such a very fine building is largely due. The church has been upwards of three years in course of construction and cost nearly $10,000 which in a town the size of Amherst means generosity and labor for all concerned to obtain such satisfactory results. To say the best of the music it was hardly s accord with the rest of the service and seemed rather difficult to be placed in the hands of local amateurs, but as professionals for such occasions mean more expense, which I make no doubt was undesirable at present, we feel like being very generous to those who had the responsibility. Mission rvices will be conducted throughout the week. Mr. Daniel Pugsley, another of Amherst's old and highly respected residents died on Sunday morning after a very short and strange illness of forty-eight hours. The funeral took place on Tuesday after-noon from the residence of his son, Mr. Alder Pugsiey, where he has made his home for the past two years. Mr. Amos Pugsley and Mrs. E. B. He is a graduate of Dalhousie University, also of River Hill college, Halifax, and is so very highly recommended, and so favorably spoken of by his fellow collegians that without a doubt the church is favored in securing his services.

Mrs. Chubbuck gave a very interesting address in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Sunday evening, which drew a very large attendance. Dr. and Mrs. Hewson and daughter Florence went to Parrsboro on Saturday, and returned on Mrs. Silas Purdy who has been absent the greater part of the winter, returned home last week, to the great satisfaction of her triends.

Mrs. Bird gave a very pleasant tea at her home on Church street on Wednesday atternoon. On Friday evening Mrs. Main, Holm Cottage, gave a party in honor of Miss McCall, of New Glasgow, which was a very smart event. Dancing was the order of the evening and always well enjoyed in their large rooms. Mrs. Main and her trio of charming daughters looked very pretty and entertai ed in the usual excellent way. Among the guests were: Miss Morse, Miss McKinnon, Miss Chapman, Miss Curry, Miss Moore, Miss Miles, Miss Munro. Miss Sleep, Miss McLeod, Dr. Hall, C. Black, Mr. Moore, Mr. A. Dunlap, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. Borden, Mr. Lockwood, Mr. Curry, Mr. C. Casey and Mr. McCall.

Mrs. Ketchum and Mrs. Bliss are the promoters, so the pub ic know that means a pleasant affair.

On Monday Miss Bessie Munro celebrated her birthday with a very pleasant gathering of ther young friends at her home on Eddy street. The anasements were varied and greatly enjoyed in a progressive way. Miss Ethel Chapman winning the first prize, which was a very pretty toilet box; Miss Georgie Hayward sequend the other. Commercial Traveller receives a new lease of life by the use of M. P. P.

"During last summer from the effects of la grippe, I contracted a severe attack of lumbago, for which I tried several remedies. My constitution was run down-being a constant traveller and finding my weight gradually reducing, I became alarmed. My customers continually asked me what was the matter, and as a rule being lively, they attributed it to other causes. I left Amherst and went to Oxford, and feeling that life was a burden, I was advised to call upon the leading physician there, Dr. J. H. McDougall, who gave me two powders and instructed me to take Malto Peptonized Porter. I followed his instructions and obtained immediate relief, and my brother knights of the grippe can testify to my improved appearance. Thanks to M.P.P.
