[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, who took care of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

MAY 31.—The second of a series of dancing parties, which are given in the Grand Army hall, took place on Thursday evening, and was a most successful and gay affair. The guests were received upon their arrival by Mrs. Lewis Dexter, and Mrs. Henry Pike. Mrs. Dexter was prettily attired in a black grenadine profusely trimmed with jet ornaments, and a corsage bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Pike looked exceedingly stylish in a lovely gown of pale blue silk, and velvet with trimmings of rich white lace, and diamond ornaments. Dancing began at half past nine o'clock and continued until supper was announced. After supper dancing was resumed until an early hour on Friday morning. It was a very merry dance, every guest enjoying it. The ladies looked extremely well, a number of the gowns were worn for the first time and were fresh and pretty.

Mrs. Hazen Grimmer wore a very noticeable corsage of scarlet silk, which was most becoming. It was adorned with jet trimmings; she also wore diamond ornaments in her hair.

During the day in Calais yesterday was made memorable by the unveiling and presenting to the city the handsome monument in memory of the soldiers, which the ladies of Calais have so long worked so hard and earnestly.

The monument is placed in Memorial Park, which is in the centre and the focal point of the city. The unveiling was conducted with ceremonies. Hon. A. MacNichol was chairman, and introduced Mr. Ashley St. Clair, who gave the introductory address. After music and prayer the monument was dedicated by the Joel A. Haycock Post, G. A. R. Hon. E. B. Harvey then presented it to the city, and the Mayor, Hon. G. A. Hurdie, in a few chosen and fitting words accepted it.

Miss Josephine Moore recited most admirably an ode, written especially for the occasion by her aunt, Miss Anna L. Holmes, a most talented and literary lady who has a most earnest interest in the erection of the monument. Mrs. A. E. Niell, who is president of the Ladies' Memorial Society, unveiled the monument, which was covered with a large flag. At the same time the band played, cannon boomed out, and the church bells tolled. It was a most thrilling moment, and the immense crowd seemed to feel it, for not a word or a sound was heard. The soldiers were then dismissed by the commander and marched to the cemetery, and decorated the graves of their fallen comrades after the usual custom. During the afternoon all business was suspended; throughout the city flags were at half-mast, and all buildings, private and public, showed signs of mourning. The monument is very handsome, is made of polished grey granite, and has a bronze figure of a soldier on the top. In the evening the Hon. J. M. Holmes, of Augusta, Maine, delivered an oration in the St. Croix Hall.

CAMPBELLTON.

[Progress is for sale in Campbellton at the store of A. E. Alexander, wholesale and retail dealer in dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hardware, crockery, stationery, furniture, carriages and machinery.]

MAY 30.—Notwithstanding early appearance of rain, the morning of the 24th opened gloriously fine, and at half-past nine the procession was forming in the square in the following order:

Sons of Scotland; Fire engine and reels; Bathurst Fire Brigade; Campbellton Fire Brigade; Band; The Queen; Equestrians; Clowns; School children with flags; Gung up to Millstream; Temperance Brigade; Negroes; Bound for J. P. Mowat's; Belonie LeBlanc; Governor's Carriage, 1703; City Council, bound for the World's Fair; Tobique Railway Employees; Massey Harris Implements; Campbellton as she was; Citizens in carriages.

Mrs. Charles Gray made a noble looking queen, and was accompanied by two ladies in waiting, Miss Mabel Mowat and Miss Edith Estey. Mrs. Farrer, Mrs. D. Murray, Misses Minnie O'Keefe, Kate Kean and Miss Farrer on horseback, looked exceptionally well. "Going up Millstream" with canoes, fishing rods and lines, lunch baskets, and all the paraphernalia of a picnic outfit was exceedingly realistic, and was well represented by the Misses Venner, Lacasse and Chandler.

The bicycle race during the afternoon caused a great deal of excitement. Mr. W. A. Mowat was the successful winner, going over the course, five miles, in 17 minutes.

In the evening a glowing house greeted the young people of the R. C. church at their charity concert, where the following programme was rendered:

PART I.

Selection.....Miss A. Delaney and Mr. G. Frenette. Solo, vocal.....When the Clock Strikes Ten

Selection.....Mr. J. D. Johnson. Tableaux.....Fairy Queen

Selection.....National Airs. Miss Kean was proclaimed the star, carrying the honors of the evening. She sang exquisitely "The Wind that Wafts My Sigh to Thee," and on being recalled by a clamorous house she gave "My Sweetheart's Man in the Moon." "Ta-ra-ra Boom" was one of the gems of the evening.

The instrumental duets were played brilliantly and with much expression. "Hope Beyond" was very sweetly rendered. The Wood Nymph Call received a hearty encore to which Miss Delaney responded by singing "Old Madrid." "When the Clock Strikes Ten" was sung with much ability by Mr. Johnson. More than a word should be given to Mrs. H. McIntyre who played the German Triumphal March beautifully, also the accompaniments, and all those who took part were extremely pleasing and deserve great praise and congratulation. It was the best local entertainment ever given in Campbellton, over $100 being realized.
