Sir John and Miss Ross, Major Ferguson, Military Secretary, Mr. White, A. D. C., and the Misses Uniacke, will leave this week for England, via Rimouski. It is not yet definitely known when General Moore will arrive, nor whom Le will bring with him. Sir John Ross has sold at private sale a good deal of his portable property; Colonel Leach, R. E. being, I hear, the purchaser of his carriage and various other things.

Mrs. D. W. C. Boak, gave a very large tea on Tuesday afternoon at Pine cottage, N. W. A. The day was a delightful one, and a great many people took advantage of it. Among Mrs. Boak's guests were a large sprinkling of navy men from the ships now in port. The tea was a very pretty and enjoy-

Tuesday evening afforded both a dance and a concert to the social world. The former was given by Captain and Mrs. J. Taylor Wood, and was for young people solely, being given as a farewell to Miss Ross, who has been staying with Miss Wood for the past few days. The dance was a particularly pleasant one, and some very pretty frocks adorned it. The floor was good, and there was no crowd, always a delightful thing in a private house.

The fifth concert of the Orpheus club came off on Tuesday evening, to the usual excellent house. The programme, (which unfortunately had to be shorn of a principal feature, Hoffman's "Song of the Horns,") was a distinctly popular one, comprising the overture to "Le Marriage de Figaro," the finale from the Doctor of Alcantara, a selection from "Tanuhauser," Strauss' Thousand and One Nights, two of Brahm's Hungarian dances, and a quintette from the "Bohemian Girl."

Miss Homer sang two songs to the very great pleasure of her audience, who applauded her vigorously. Dr. W. Slayter, R. N., who seems to have inherited a very sweet voice from his father, gave a solo, "O promise Me," by de Koven, and was encored. He responded by singing an old favorite, by a composer very popular and well known, the "Kerry Dance."

Herr Klingenfeld had chosen for his violin solo, Vieuxtemps Concerto in A, in which he was admirably accompanied by Mrs. Michael Wallace. He was encored and gave a second number.

The orchestra did exceedingly well on Tuesday night; by the way the people who have been heard to grumble that "Orpheus concerts are above their heads," in the music chosen should have been thoroughly satisfied by the programme of this last one. All the music chosen was bright, popular and "catchy" to use a word more expressive than elegant. Mr. Klingenfeld's solo does not come under this heading, but it was admirably played and thoroughly appreciated by the majority of the audience.

On Wednesday evening the officers of the R. A. and R. E., gave a farewell dinner at their Mess, to General Sir John Ross, and his daughter, Miss Stella Ross. It is not often that ladies' dinners are given by a Mess, and such departures from the ordinary run of entertainments are consequently all the more amusing. The guests in addition to the two guests of honor, were the wives of the married portion of the hosts,-Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Maycock, Mrs. Bor, Mrs. Acworth, -Miss Beazeley, the sister of Mrs. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kenny, Miss Slayter, and Miss Lola Wood. The table looked very pretty with its heavy silver and other decorations, and the whole affair went off admirably.

For society in general the event of the week was the dance given on Thursday evening by Mr. J. F. Stairs, M. P., and Miss Stairs, at their house in Kent street, an account of which I regret being obliged to defer till next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel and Miss Jean West arrived last week from England, and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. West, Morris street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller left for New York this week, and will go to Chicago to the exhibition.

Dr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick also left on Wednesday for New York, but will be absent only a short time. Dr. MacDowell, of the United States Marine Hospital service, left for Washington this week. He had made many friends in Halifax, where he was stationed by the U.S. government,

The marriage of Captain Farmer, R. A., to Miss Finch, took place in England last week. Captain Farmer has received an appointment in England, and will not return here.

I hear that Mr. Enthoven R. E., will leave Halifax in July, greatly to the regret of his friends. Major Creokenden R. A., will also leave on his

On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. John Albro gave a very pleasant little tea, as a farewell to their daughter, Miss Bella Albro, who leaves this week for Newark, N. J., where she will study for a hospital

The great excitement of next week for the juvenile part of the community will be the doll's carnival and bazaar which takes place on Wednesday and Thursday next. It is certainly being done on a colossal scale, as the whole of the first floor of the School for the Blind is to be devoted to the bazaar, and the charmingly arranged rooms for tea and ices. Fifty ladies have the tables in hand, and I hear that their costumes are quite novel, and of course equally pretty. It is not the ladies of Halifax alone, who are taking an interest in this affair; Lady Tilley has sent three exquisitely dressed dolls, and no less a personage than the Viscountess of Canterbury has been a contributor. The only thing left to ensure which it surely cught to command. The "masque of months" in aid of the Sailor's Home, has been abandoned, at least for the present. It was too difficult to arrange and carry out, fail ng as it did to march with the ideas of the ladies who were to take part in it. This leaves the field free for the grand Masonic bazaar, but as that does not take place till August, surely there would be time for the friends of the S. P. C. to get up something for that society. It is certainly deserving and in need. H. M. S. "Cleopatra" left on Monday for Newfoundland. Mrs. Curzon-Howe, whose husband is mmanding this ship, will remain in Halifax till his return.

Sir John Ross has been suffering from gout during the past week, and has been pretty well confined to the house. It is to be hoped that an Atlantic voyage will restore him to his usual health. It is with great regret that the people of Halifax whom he has enter-tained so often and so well, bid him good bye, and MORRIS GRANVILLE.

MAY 16 .- Mr. P. Bowser, of Dartmouth, and Miss Christina McFarlane, daughter of the late Mr. Murdoch McFarlane, of Victoria, Cape Breton, were very quietly married at H. M. Dockyard, the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. F. Peckham, on Thursday, 28th. The bride, who was given away by Mr. Peckham, wore a pretty gown of electric blue cloth, with trimmings of white. Her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Grey, also wore blue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. J. Bond. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser will reside in Dartmouth.

The announcement of a concert at ref rm club hall, Tuesday last, in aid of the Lakeside church (colored) drew a large and appreciative audience, if one might judge from the frequent encores, and the hearty applayse which greeted every singer as he or she appeared. All the performers were colored, and they sang most sweetly and with great feeling and expression. James Tynes sang "Old Black Joe" very beautifully, and that and the well beloved "Way down upon the Swanee River," by Miss Leigh, were alone worth going to hear. Mr. James Dustan deserves very hearty thanks for his kindness in aiding to make it such a success, and I was glad to see that all classes and creeds turned out with hearty good will.

Mr. Vossnack and family have removed from Halifax to Dartmouth, and will live in the house lately occupied by Mr. T. C. Hill.

Mr. Wallace Anderson has, I hear, taken Mr. Strong's cottage, opposite Mrs. J. P. Mott's. By the way, what is the parish of Christ church to WINDSOR, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and by F. W. Dakin.]

MAY 16 .- The Josie Mills Dramatic Co. performed here on Friday and Saturday evenings, under the auspices of the 68th Batt. Band. Considering that this band declined a similiar engagement only a few weeks ago with the well known and always welcome Price Webber, from whose former visit to Windsor, by the way they cleared a considerable sum of money, this engagement strikes me as being peculiar at least. Miss A. Webster Halifax spent a few days in Windsor last week with Miss Mary Graham. Mrs. Tobia who has been in Montreal for some time has returned home. Miss A. Burgess, Wolfville, spent a week with Miss F. Forsyth.

Miss Bill, Wolfville, was in Windsor a day last week, the guest of Miss Haley.

Mr. C. Rosier of the Halitax Banking Co., has gone home for a week or two.

Miss Smith who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Mosher, Wolfville, is home. The friends of Captain and Mrs. Harris were much surprised to see them in Windsor again last week. Much regret is felt on account of the demise of Mr. John Woodworth, of Litchfield, a gentleman of eminent piety, and whose highest ambition all through life was to make his fellow man better, both mentally, morally, and spiritually. He was one who had made a host of friends, and his loss will be deeply felt in the community where he lived.

Preparations are being made by our Sunday school teachers and pupils, for the convention which is to be held at Laurencetown, 24th day of May, and should the weather prove fine, there will be such a gathering of children seldom witnessed in the mari-time provinces. There are to be two thousand singer, several organs, and several bands of music.

BRIDGETOWN.

May 17 .- The picnic season has begun again. I heard of a small private one given by Dr. and Mrs. Freeman last week, which was much enjoyed. There are several others planned for the 24th. Mrs. S. Mack went to Boston on Saturday, and will remain some weeks the guest of Mrs. McClean, nee Miss Kate Phinney. Mrs. Walter McCormack and little son, Jack, returned to Annapolis on Monday, after a week's visit to Mrs. McCormack's mother. Mrs. H. S. Piper, leaves to-morrow for Dover, Mass., accompanied by her little daughters, Carrie and Kitty.

Dr. Woodworth, Cornwallis, was in town last week, also Mr. Fred Dearborn of St. John. Mrs. Howard Bath, North Sydney, C. B., is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Beckwith. Miss Annie Tupper, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Murdock, for a few days.

SPRINGHILL.

May 17 -A "Book Reception" is somewhat out of the ordinary way of entertainments, but the one held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night was none the less successful because unusual. The object was to add to the institution's library and though the reception was not as well attended as it should have been, still a large number of elegantly bound volumes were presented. An interesting programme was carried out during the evening; some of those however, who were to have helped entertain the guests failed to put in an appearance. Miss Hali's violin solo called forth great applause, but she did not respond to an encore. The quartette " Dearest Maiden dance with me," by Messrs. Proctor, Murray, Archibald and Lorrimer was exceptionally good and they responded to an encore. Miss Laura Hall's alto solo, with piano accompaniment and violin obligato was very sweetly rendered: Dr. Hayes read "Aunty Doleful" and "A colored gentleman's advice to a young married couple" as only Dr. Hayes can read. Miss May Hunter, Miss Thompson, Miss Fraser, and several others contriouted towards the entertainment in a charming nanner. After refreshments were served by the committee, the guests dispersed after having spent very enjoyable evening. Miss Susie Murray returned from her visit to Wentworth on Saturday. Dr. D. W. Byers, whom I spoke of a few weeks ago as having passed a very successful examination at Dalhousie college, arrived in town last night and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Ross. Mr. Wm. Hall, Dr. Cove and several others en joyed a fishing trip last week, and I understand met with much success. Mrs. A. Dick is in Halifax, where she is undergoing treatment for eve trouble.

The Boston Comedy Company closed its very successful engagement here on Saturday night with 'Under the Gaslight." At the close of the railroad scene Miss Gray and Mr. Bennette received a wonderful ovation and were obliged to appear before the curtain; their acting throughout was magnificent. Mr. Webber's "Bike" was intensely amusing and wonderfully well done, while Mr. Walter Beddel, distinguished himself in a marked manner, and esdistinguished himself in a marked manner, and established quite a reputation as a comedian. Mr. Noble positively shone as "Rav Trafford" and was seen to excellent advantage. The other members of the company particularly little Miss Clitton as "Blossom," were very good.
