F. J. HORNEMAN Spring Garden road N. SARRE & SON George street H. SILVER, Dartmouth, N. S. J. W. ALLEN Dartmouth, N. S. The end of the week had a dance, two large teas and a football match crowded into it, and left the be- ginning of the current week rather bare of excitement.

The dance was given at Maplewood by the unmarried officers of the Royal Artillery, and was a great success. Each host was only permitted six guests, as it was wished to keep it small, and though I have heard the dance described in consequence of this fact as "very select" it seems to me that it was so chiefly in t' e sense of "patural selection."

The dance was a very good one, and the floor most delightful. People were late in leaving, always a sign of a cheery party, and the ladies looked as a rule very pretty and smart. Among the ladies present were Mrs. Clarkson, Mrs. Townshend, Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. M. R. Morrow, Mrs. A. Doull, Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Louge; the Hon. Misses Colborne, Miss Kenny, Miss Kinnear, Miss Farrell, Miss Stairs, Miss Troop, Miss Worsley, Miss Roberts, Miss West, Miss Cady, Miss Townshend, Miss Norton Taylor, Miss B. Chipman, Miss H. Albeo, Miss Newberry (of Charlottetown) and Miss Troop. The men invited included the officers of the Liverpool Regiment, the officers of H. M. S. Blake, Tartar, and Mohawk, and most of the Halifax dancing men.

On Friday afterncon Mrs. Boe gave a musical tea at Bircham, which was very smart and pleasant, and had the great advantage of a perfect day which means so much in the country. Among the guests were the Bishop of Algoma, the Bishop of Nova Scotia, the Hon. Mrs. Montgomery Moore. There were plenty of men, which always makes a difference at a tea party. Mr. Carl Walther played several times, and Mrs. Kennedy Campbell and other ladies contributed songs.

* * *

On Friday evening the Orpheus Club had their annual dinner at the Halifax Hotel. Speeches were made and songs were sung after the repast, and a very cheery state of affairs reigned. Why I wonder. do not the Ladies' Auxillary go in for a similar celebration, as ladies associations of a similar kind do in London. Only! people who have tried them know what fun "dove-dinners" are, or how easily managed, for ladies do not care for the very solid repasts favoured by men. Ladies card parties were quite the fashion among a certain set here last winter, so why should not ladies' dinners obtain?

The Bishop left this week on an episcopal tour in the country, during which he will consecrate several churches.

An attack of Rheumatism is usually preceded by Pain in the Joints and Muscles, with more or less " Malaise," and with this warning the actual attack may be ushered in with most severe pain which may attack any joint, but most usually the knee, ankle, elbow or wrist. The afflicted part is extremely painful, tender, swollen and hot, and there may be fever, with profuse sweating. The pain is intensified by the least movement, and has a tendency to migrate from one joint to another.

TO DO—Go to bed at once, between good woolen blankets, and wear a flannel bedgown, dine on light, nutritious diet, abstain from Meat and Stimulants, wrap the painful joints in flannel wet with "SCIATICINE" LINIMENT, and cover with cotton wool, and take "SCIATICINE" MIX-TURE internally and you will get immediate relief. Then avoid exposure to cold and damp and wear flannel next the skin always. Continue taking Sciaticine for two weeks after the pain has gone, to prevent recurrence of the attack-and if you feel "used up," take HANINGTON'S QUININE WINE AND IRON to tone up the system and Improve the Blood as Rheumatism is apt to recur when the system is weak. These medicines can be had of any reliable druggist in Canada.

The Bishop of Algoma who has been the guest of General and Mrs. Montgomery Moore left this week for home.

Surgeon-Colonel Archer has returned from England, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Archer. Professor MacDonald of Dalhousie College has gone to New York, I regret to learn on account of his health which has not lately been good.

* * *

A large tea was given on Saturday for the Bishop of Algoma at the residence of the Hon. A. G. Jones. People were late in going on account of the football match, but it was really one of the pleasantest teas of the season, the table being particularly pretty. * * *

The first foot-ball games of the season drew every body out to the Wanderers' grounds on Saturday. Every body, high and low, rich and poor was there, every one who could manage to spare the time was on hand to see the game. The Wanderers had done nothing for the comfort of their patronizers, except the fact that ladies were admitted free, why can't exactly see, for they were quite willing to pay; no accommodation had been provided, and everyone was forced to stand on the damp grass exposed to the chilly blasts, the grand-stand at these grounds being like other grand-stands, useless to see from.

As the day was so fine at first, all had turned out in semi-light dresses, but as it got colder, those who had brought turs and wraps locked the most com fortable. There were a large number of carriages present, including Mrs. Montgomery Moore's Lady Hopkins' and Mrs. Daly's. As regards the game, seemed very much like any other game,-the Wanderers won, but were very lucky to do so, as the United Service Team was as good, if not better, than the Halifix Team; one thing was noticed, the demeanor of the spectators-very little noise, and very different from when the enthusiastic and demonstrative Dalhousie gentlemen are engaged in a match then the din is not pleasant for the unentnusiastic spectator. Mr. Beale, of the Wanderers seemed to play the vest game, but one can't help thinking that many of the poor "forwards," work so hard, deserve more praise than the "backs" who reap all the glory and get all the sensational Halifax will be much excited now for some play. time, till the final game is over, at last the trophy has been exposed to public view.

The dinner which was to have been given on Tuesday evening by General and Mrs. Montgomery Moo: e has been put off until Thursday of next week, as the General has been away this week. The only dinner party of the week was one at Admiralty By the way, the rumor of a dance there before the departure of the ships seems to be unfounded. Halifax will be obliged soon to follow the example of American towns, and institute subscription dances. But to judge from past efforts in that line it will be some time before we learn to do such joint entertainments well; the ladies' ball of a past summer fell through ingloriously, and the dance last winter at the Masonic Hall was only fairly attended. The general opinion regarding subscription affairs here seems to be that the promoters have to do a very large amount of work for a very small amount of glory.

* * *

The students of Dalhousie gave their annual At Home at the College on Tuesday exching. Princi-pal Forrest received the guests, of whom there must have been about three hundred, in the examination Hall, wh le the library, which is a very pleasant room, was used for refleshments. The leather backed volumes which pretty well cover the walls, made a curious background for the coming and going guests. There were some very good speeches during the evening, and some music, and the whole affair was very pleasant.

Talking of Dalhousie, Dr. McMechan proposes giving this winter a course of lectures on "The Poets of the Revolution," the proceeds of which, are be generously devoted to the library fund of the Dalhousie College. There are to be fiteen lectures for which the really nominal fee of five dollars makes a large class necessary before much money can be realized. The Assembly Hall at the school for the bland, has been given free of charge for the course, and that it will be interesting the ladies who attended Dr. MacMechan's Shakespeare class can assure people. This course of recures has a wider scope, and one more interesting really at this end of the century, as it traces the modern move-ment from the French Revolution up to Tennyson. * * *

Among the arrivals of last week was that of Mrs. Henrietta Russell, the well known pupil of Delsarte and exponent of his art in America. A small class has been organized among well known society people, meeting, I believe at various houses, and useful as applied to every day life. 'From the ladies attending, little has been heard of a definite charac-ter, indeed a Masonic secret secret secret. from all reports the work done is most delightful and

The marriage of Mr. R. O. Christie, druggist, of Springhill, and Miss Jennie Peers, daughter of the late Alex. Peers, and niece of Mrs. Jas. Birrill of "Brova Place," Queen street, was an event of unusual interest to a large number of the mutual friends of the contracting parties, on Wednesday evening last. Mrs. Birrill's handsome drawing room, with its profuse and elegant floral decorations, looked meet for any such festive occasion, when at eight o'clock the bride, on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Jas. Birrill, and attended by her maids, Miss Tena Peers and Miss Mary Black, made their appearance by one door, simultaneously with the groom and his best man, Mr. H. C. Yuill, by the other. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of heavy ottoman silk, white, and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Peers wore a toilette of nile green henrietta, with trimmings of white silk and lace. Miss Black looked very pretty in white crepon, trimmings of gold galloon; both the bridesmaids carried large bouquets. The nuprial knot was tied by Revs. H. B. Smith and D. A. At the conclusion of the ceremony, and after con-gratulations had been passed around, the guests, numbering nearly forty, sat down to a sumptuous supper. Among the guests were : Rev. Mr. Geggie and Mrs. Geggie, Rev. Mr. Robbins and Mrs. Rob-bins, Mrs. W. H. Tremaine and Miss Tremaine, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christie, Miss Emily Christie, Miss Emma Christie, and numerous other friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The bride was the recipient of many very elegant and costly presents : From the groom a handsome gold watch and chain, and from the Acad emy staff and pupils came elegant souvenirs in sil ver. An especially elegant and massive silver ice pitcher with accompanying silver goblets, was from M. ssrs. L. A. Fleming, Gass and Stuart, of Spring-hill The bridesmaids were the recipients from the groom of pretty gold brooches with pearl settings and engraved monograms. Mr. and Mrs. Christie left per C P. R. for Halifax, returning the next day, Thursday, and proceeding on their tour to the Up-per Provinces and Niagara.
