

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

(CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.)

HARCOURT.

Oct. 18.—Rev. Mr. Steven went to P. E. Island on Saturday. Rev. Mr. Laird, of Nova Scotia, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here during Mr. Steven's absence.

Mr. Alfred Haines, of St. Mary's, York county, who has been in this vicinity for some days, was summoned home yesterday, owing to the serious fire in St. Mary's.

Mr. J. W. McDermott, proprietor of the Eureka Hotel, returned on Saturday evening from the World's Fair. During his absence Mr. McDermott was taken ill, and is still far from well, although on the mending hand.

Mrs. Bremner and Miss Bremner left last week for Boston, where they purpose remaining for the winter.

Dr. R. P. Doherty, of Moncton, was at the Eureka yesterday and today and left for Kingston this afternoon.

Mr. Clarence Wry went north as far as Bathurst on Monday evening.

Mr. Horace Coates, of the I. C. R., Moncton, was at the Eureka last evening, returning from a visit to Kingston.

Mr. John Jardine, of Kingston, Capt. H. Andrews, late of the barque "Alona," Mr. W. C. Snow, of Moncton, and Mr. James Ireland, of Halifax, N. S., were at the Central today.

Mr. Frank Humphrey, of the I. C. R., Campbellton, spent Sunday with his relatives at Harcourt.

Mr. John Beck, whose dwelling was burned on Monday night, has removed his family to rooms in the Glenn Block.

Mr. J. Leckie, of Montreal, spent Sunday at the Eureka.

Mr. George A. Noble, of St. John, was at the Central to-day, going north.

Mr. John Rusk, of Richibucto, dined at the Eureka to-day, en route to St. John.

Mr. A. McNaughton, travelling auditor of the I. C. R., was here yesterday.

Mr. J. B. Clarke, (school teacher at Bass River), and his bride, nee Miss McIntosh, of Chatham, were at the Eureka yesterday on their return from Norton, N. B., where they were in private conveyance to their new home at Bass River.

Sheriff Whelan is in town this evening. REX.

CAMPBELLTON.

[Progress is for sale in Campbellton at the store of A. E. Alexander, wholesale and retail dealer in dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hardware, school books, stationery, furniture, carriages and machinery.]

Oct. 18.—Mr. Simons of Moncton spent a day in town last week.

Mr. Thomas W. West's friends were sorry to see him leaving on Friday evening after spending two months in town. Mr. West intends to visit Montreal and the World's Fair before returning to Bird Island, Minn., U. S. We wish him bon voyage.

Miss Grace Verner left last evening for an extended trip to Quebec, Montreal and Waterloo, P. Q. She expects to be absent a couple of months.

Mrs. Evan Price and her daughter Miss Amy returned last week from a long and pleasant visit to friends in Montreal.

Hon. C. H. LaBilios of Dalhousie was in Campbellton on Wednesday last.

John McAlister, M. P., registered at the Royal, St. John, on last Friday.

Mrs. Meagher and Miss Meagher of Carleton, P. Q., spent a day here last week, en route to Quebec, where they will remain for the winter.

Miss Corinne Verner left on Saturday night for Moncton and Richibucto where she will be the guest of Mrs. George C. Allen and Mrs. Wm. Wieton.

Mrs. John Henderson came back on Saturday from Charlottetown after spending some time with relatives.

Miss Fannie Gadd of New Richmond, P. Q., was the guest of Miss Alice B. Mowat on last Friday, and took the train next day for Chicago.

Miss Minnie Groves arrived last evening from a lovely visit to friends in Springfield and Kingston, Kent county.

Miss Bessie McKenzie has returned from a short trip to New Richmond, P. Q.

Owing to her brother's illness Miss Mabel Hillson had to go home last week, en route to Montreal and returned on Monday evening.

Rev. J. L. McDonald spent Monday in Black Point.

Miss Letellier is visiting friends in Montreal.

Mrs. F. Giroux of Maria, P. Q., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McIntyre. VIOLA.

APOHAQUI, N. B.

Oct. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Downey left to-day for St. John and thence up the St. John river on a visit to Mr. Downey's mother.

Miss Ada T. McLeod, St. John, was the guest of the Misses Burgess for a few days last week.

Miss Ethel Burgess spent last Sunday in Sussex with Mrs. G. N. Pearson.

Miss L. Alward is visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. E. Sinnott.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wiles gave a very pleasant company on Thursday evening in honor of their son Mr. Herbert Wiles, who is spending his vacation here. Dancing and whist were the amusements and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Groves, Miss J. M. Keiver, Miss Julia Smith, the Misses Manchester, Miss Pearson, Miss George Riecker, the Misses Wiles, Miss Freddie Burgess, Miss Dora Sinnott, Messrs. John Drury, Walter and James Manchester, Herbert Wiles, C. B. McCready, L. L. Wamamaker, D. Patterson, H. S. Jones, O. J. Campbell, F. and G. Secord, A. C. McCready, F. S. Cripps, B. Mercer, J. H. Wiles, F. Downey, L. F. Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ellison are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. T. Peters in St. John.

Mr. W. D. Baskin was here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Fenwick are in St. John, attending the P. Q. Baptist conference.

Mr. W. R. Williams, St. Martins, is here this week.

Miss Annie Wetmore is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Scribner in St. John.

Mr. L. A. Fenwick was at Havelock on Saturday attending the district lodge of the I. O. G. T.

Mr. Claence McCready spent Sunday at his home here. CHATTERBOX.

RICHBUCTO.

[Progress is for sale in Richibucto by Theo. P. Graham.]

Oct. 18.—Miss Hannah was visiting Moncton for a few days last week.

Rev. Father Richard, of Rogersville was in town on Monday.

Miss Janie Hanes left on Monday for Boston.

Messrs. Stanley White and Hugh Quilty, of New-castle, spent Sunday here.

Warden Foster, of Dorchester, and Mayor Sumner, of Moncton, spent part of last Saturday in town.

Rev. Father Bannan has returned from the World's Fair.

Messrs. James Ferguson, of Bathurst, and H. H. Fairweather, of St. John, were in town a few days ago.

Miss Powell and Miss Harnett left on Monday to visit St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. H. Stewart, of Bathurst, are visiting in Kingston.

Miss Graham, of St. Stephen, who has been visiting several weeks with friends in this vicinity, left for home on Monday.

Miss Emma Judge, who has been the guest of the Misses Grierson for the past month, returned to Amherst this week.

Geo. N. McInerney, M. P., is in Chatham this week. AUBORA.

HAMPTON.

Oct. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Currie, of Grand Junction, Col., after an absence of nine years from this province, and who were making a short visit with relatives in St. John, spent part of last week visiting Mr. Currie's sister, Mrs. Geo. E. Frost here.

Mrs. H. Sprague, and Mrs. S. Howard are in Ontario attending a meeting of the missionary society.

Mr. Ralph March, of New York, arrived in town on Sunday.

Mr. R. L. E. Tweedie, who was taken ill at the court in St. John on Wednesday last, is better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ronke, of St. Martins, were in town today.

Miss Jennie Raymond, of St. John, was visiting her friend, Miss Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

25% LESS THAN REGULAR PRICE.

Having purchased a small lot of

LADIES' CLOTH JACKETS

At about 25% less than the regular price, we have decided to give our customers the benefit of the purchase.

They are the newest and MOST FASHIONABLE SHAPES shown this season

in "BLACK AND NAVY BLUE" only.

Purchasers will find this a rare chance to get a New and Fashionable Jacket at a very low price.

S. C. PORTER,
11 Charlotte Street, St. John, N. B.

CAMPOBELLO.

Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reese have returned to Newton, Mass. They were accompanied by Miss Marguerite Byron, a relative of Mr. Reese.

A number of the young ladies and gentlemen attended the fair at Penfield last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lank, are in Penfield.

Mr. R. M. McGuinness, is at the "Bigelow" Farm.

Mr. Alfonso Parker is home for a few days.

Mr. Fred O. Harvey, "cheer" of the "Victoria" Hotel, St. John, accompanied by his wife and children, are on the island for a few days.

Dr. Harry Gove, and Master Gove, were on the island last week.

Mr. Chas. Salley, of the Bangor Daily News, was on the island last week.

Messrs. Edward Coates, of Montreal, and J. E. Algar of St. Stephen, are registered at the "Byron."

Mr. F. S. Grimmer, has been here for a few days.

The marriage of Mr. James Ritchie to Miss Ida Plant, both of St. John, was solemnized in St. Ann's church, on Monday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Street.

Bishop Kingston, paid a visit to the island this week, and administered the rite of confirmation on eleven candidates.

The "Fish Fair" is in full bloom, so to speak, and crowds are beginning to gather. To-day the prizes are awarded to the best cured fish in all their branches. IN COO.

ST. GEORGE.

[Progress is for sale in St. George at the store of T. O'Brien.]

Oct. 17.—Sheriff Stewart and Mr. Louis Stewart, St. Andrews, spent a few days in town last week.

Rev. H. E. S. Maider, Messrs. Geo. Campbell and Fred Seelye, were passengers on Wednesday's train for St. Stephen, to attend the Provincial S. S. Convention.

Mrs. Levi Handy, St. Andrews, is spending a short time with her friend, Miss Parker.

A dance was given in Lynott's Hall on Wednesday evening, under the management of Mr. Hill Cawley.

The Agricultural Society held their annual exhibition at Penfield on Thursday, and was very largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Johnson returned on Thursday from a three weeks' trip to the World's Fair.

Mrs. A. Young arrived home on Friday from a delightful visit to her daughter, Mrs. Fred Young, at Bridgetown, N. S.

Mr. Bert Gillmor returned home on Saturday, from a month's visit to friends in St. Andrews.

Mrs. Douglas Turner, son and daughter of St. John, drove from Bygonie on Monday. They were the guests of Mrs. McCallum.

Mrs. James O'Brien left on Tuesday afternoon for Calais. MAX.

LONG REACH.

Oct. 17.—Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Carville on the arrival of a young son.

Miss Mary Strang, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. William Williams.

The pie social and dance held in the new Victoria hall last week, proved a success both socially and financially. Dancing was kept up till a late hour, with the assistance of Mr. Herbert Williams as floor manager.

The young people here will appreciate the Epworth League this winter. A singing class is also being formed, through the efforts of Rev. Mr. Champion. Some of our young ladies have already joined the class and good singing is expected from the choir.

The many friends of Mrs. Hedley Wiles will be glad to learn that she is convalescent after her sudden illness. CURIOSITY.

MANAWAGONISH.

Oct. 17.—Mr. J. M. Taylor and the other summer residents of this road, have moved to the city for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Manchester intend spending the winter in Florida.

Miss Gertrude Masson entertained a few of her young friends on Wednesday evening last.

Miss Yeats who has been ill for some time is recovering.

Miss Bertha Roxborough has been spending her vacation at South Bay, the guest of her friend Miss Blanche Cooper.

Mr. Richard Thomson's residence has been undergoing a general state of repair, and now presents a greatly improved appearance.

Mr. C. W. Masson and Angus McLeod intend visiting the World's Fair. CLIO.

SUTTON.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke, of West End, were the guests of the Misses Clarke this week.

Mrs. E. C. Sutton is visiting friends in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stevens spent a fortnight with friends here recently.

Mr. J. A. Gregory is visiting at her old home here.

Mr. G. H. Waterbury and family who have spent the summer here, returned to their home in the city.

Miss C. A. Stevens, of North End, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. A. L. Cowan spent a few days here last week. DIGBY, N. S.

DIGBY, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Digby by Mrs. Morse.]

Oct. 18.—Rev. Mr. Bryant, of P. E. I. spent a few days in Digby last week.

Miss Jessie Hopkirk of Boston, who has been visiting the Misses Stalling, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Geo. Robinson is visiting a relative in Sackville, N. B.

Miss Thomas of St. John, is visiting Mrs. A. H. Ellis.

Miss Florence Jameson has gone to visit friends in Halifax.

Mr. Frank Morse has returned to Acadia College. Maynard Ruddock, who has been visiting his mother the past fortnight, left again for Boston Tuesday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ostrand Ruddock.

Mrs. Short has been visiting in Weymouth.

Mr. W. Hazar, who has been summering here, has returned to his home in N. S.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Turnbull, after a pleasant visit here, returned to their home in Musquodoboit last week.

Mr. Wm. Randall has been enjoying a couple of days at his home in Yarmouth.

Mrs. J. Tobin and Miss Kate Tobin have gone on a trip to Boston.

Mr. Ed. Lockett of Bridgetown is in town a day this week.

Mrs. Dakin, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Shreve, returned to her home in Boston last week.

Judge Savary was in town a few days last week.

Mrs. Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

Mr. R. L. E. Tweedie, who was taken ill at the court in St. John on Wednesday last, is better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ronke, of St. Martins, were in town today.

Miss Jennie Raymond, of St. John, was visiting her friend, Miss Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

Mr. R. L. E. Tweedie, who was taken ill at the court in St. John on Wednesday last, is better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ronke, of St. Martins, were in town today.

Miss Jennie Raymond, of St. John, was visiting her friend, Miss Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

Mr. R. L. E. Tweedie, who was taken ill at the court in St. John on Wednesday last, is better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ronke, of St. Martins, were in town today.

Miss Jennie Raymond, of St. John, was visiting her friend, Miss Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

Mr. R. L. E. Tweedie, who was taken ill at the court in St. John on Wednesday last, is better to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Ronke, of St. Martins, were in town today.

Miss Jennie Raymond, of St. John, was visiting her friend, Miss Magie Smith, on Wednesday.

Mr. E. G. Evans has returned from his trip to the World's Fair. IO.

BRIDGETOWN.

Oct. 18.—Mr. J. G. H. Parker returned from the Fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Beldon, Middleton, were in town on Thursday.

Miss Nellie Gordon has returned from a long visit to British Columbia, and is the guest of her aunt, Miss Bessie Whitman, Roundhill.

Miss Maggie Bilgh, Halifax, was the guest of Mrs. H. Ruggles on Friday.

Miss Pussie Bent was in town on Monday.

Miss Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Giles.

Mrs. James E. Fellows went to Digby on Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Munroe.

Miss Florence Hoyt, Bridgewater, was the guest of Mrs. George Hoyt on Friday.

Miss Mary Fisher went to Boston on Tuesday.

Mr. Parker Whitman of "Strong and Whitman" has returned from a long trip in the West.

Mrs. F. C. Harris returned on Friday from a pleasant five week's visit to Philadelphia and Boston.

Mr. W. Rhodes is spending his holidays in St. John. Mr. James S. Harding was in town on Saturday.

Among the other visitors last week were J. B. Mills, M. P. Annapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Bent, Paradise, Mrs. Charles Spurr and Miss Nellie Gordon, Roundhill, and Mr. R. G. Munroe, Digby.

Mrs. W. E. Vroom, and Miss Violet Simonds, St. John, and Mrs. A. Vroom, Deep Brook, were the guests of Mrs. Alfred Hoyt on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goldert, Windsor, were the guests of Mrs. Beckwith last week.

Mrs. W. P. Miller, is visiting her son, Mr. R. S. Miller, in Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, have returned from Boston.

Miss Nettie Healy is spending a few weeks in Roundhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reed, have returned from Yarmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. James deWitt, spent Tuesday in Yarmouth.

Mr. George Dixon, Church street, went to St. John, on Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Pigott, Granville Ferry, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Lockett.

Principal A. D. Brown, Miss B. Ruggles, Miss Vidito and Miss Homer, have returned from the teachers' convention, at Bear River.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vidito returned from Boston on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph went to Port Williams on Saturday, where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Newcombe.

Mr. Henry Prat and son Mr. Richard Prat of Kentville were the guests of Mr. T. Prat, on Sunday.

Miss Jessie Ramsey was in Middleton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bent and Mrs. Coll' went to Boston on Tuesday, they will be absent three weeks.

Mrs. Chute and Mrs. Lordly are visiting in Aylesford.

WINDSOR, N. S.

Oct. 17.—A very good concert was given last night by Herr Walther and his wife, assisted by Miss Harvey, Mr. Acklow of the Collegiate school, and Miss Macee, elocutionist. They were greeted by a large audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the evening's entertainment. Herr Walther is a master of the violin, his playing being most artistic. Miss Harvey, who accompanied him, is a graduate of Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and is said to be unequalled in Nova Scotia as a pianist. Madame Walther's singing was much enjoyed.

Miss Lizzie Smith has returned from her visit to Halifax.

Miss Porter, who has been visiting in Windsor returned to Halifax, this week.

Miss Holmes, of Porton, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sutherland, returns this week.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Roach entertained a few of her young friends at progressive whist.

Among those invited were Miss Mary Graham, Miss Pattison, Miss Barnaby (Halifax), the Misses Doyle and Misses Anslow, Messrs. Scott, Smith, Armstrong, Graham and Frank Roach. Miss Doyle carried off the ladies' ring prize. I did not hear who were the other fortunate ones.

Mrs. Clarence H. Dimock is visiting in Lockeport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blanchard and family are spending a week or two at their country residence in Edgewater.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Black spent Sunday in Sackville.

Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, of Truro, spent a few days with Mrs. Aubrey Blanchard on her way home from the United States where she has been travelling for some weeks.

Mrs. J. A. Kaulback, of Truro, spent a day in Windsor this week on her way to Yarmouth.

Mr. George Sterling, of Halifax, is acting as station master in the absence of Mr. Masters, who is attending the World's Fair.

Mrs. J. S. Coffin has returned from her visit to Barrington, her sister Miss Doane is visiting her.

Mrs. Johnson of Charlottetown, P. E. I., is visiting her father Mr. John Sterling.

Dr. E. J. Torrey left on Saturday morning for Freeport, Ill., where he intends to practice medicine.