SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

[CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.]

guests, Miss Hodge and Miss Estey of Fredericton. The party, numbering about seventy-five or eighty spent the day at Water's Landing, going aud re. turning by picnic barge in tow of the tug, Waring. Among the invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Jordon and family, Mr. and Mrs. D Nase, Mr. and Mrs. W Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. G Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. W B McLean, Mr. and Mrs. J C Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean, Miss Pidgeon, Dr Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Pidgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Mr W D Baskin, Mr Adams, Mr and Mrs Hamm, Mr and Mrs Richard Farmer, Mr and Mrs Baker, Mr and Mrs Baker, jr, Mrs and Miss Long, Mr and Mrs F Woods, Mr and Mrs Vanwart and daughter, Dr McLean and wife, Mr O B White, Mr and Mrs J E Ferris, Mr and Mrs R Wisely, Mr and Mrs A McLean, Mr and Mrs R Elkin, Mr and Mrs R Courtney, Mr and Mrs Horncastle, Mr and Mrs Maloney, Mr and Mrs Geo Waring, Mr and Mrs John Waring, Mr and Mrs A Cushing, Mr and Mrs G Cushing, Mr and Mrs A Cushing, Mr and Mrs G Cushing, Mr and Mrs W Hamlyn, Mr and Mrs Hanington, Mr and Mrs Edgecourt, Mr and Mrs McMackin, Mr and Mrs Betts, Mr and Mrs F Tapley, Mr Armstrong. Mr and Mrs James W. Hazelhurst of Spring street entertained the following at the grounds of the Log Cabin Fishing Club, Loch Lomond, on Wednesday last, 19th inst. Messrs Chris S. Noble, Teos. McGuire, Mr and Mrs E. W. Paul, Miss Patton, Miss Annie Power, Masters Robert Irvine, Frank Millcan, Willie Hazelhurst, Arthur McGuire, Otis Banks, James W. Hazelhurst, jr., and the Misses Georgie Story, Bell Tait, Louise Caldwell, Mabel Craig, Estelle Banks, Gracie Estabrooks, May Woodiy (Boston) Louise Barnes, Beatrice Irvine, Marie McGuire, Edith Hazelhurst and Mabel Hazelhurst.

Mrs. E. J. Armstrong, and children, are spending

Mrs. E. J. Armstrong, and children, are spending the summer at Perry's Point, on the Kennebecasis. Mr. Henry deBury, R. A., who has been laid up with fever at Malta, has recovered, and has been sent to Sicily on sick leave to recuperate. Fever is very prevalent at present at Malta.

FREDERICTON.

PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H.

Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne. JULY 20 .- The residence of Mr. Thos. Stanger, was today the scene of a very happy event, when his eldest daughter, Miss Birsa, was united in marriage to Mr. Oswald Crocket, barrister, Rev. Willard McDonald officiating. The bride, who entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, was gowned in a handsome dress of white siik, en traine, trimmed with lace and silver brocade panels, and carried a bouquet of roses and white heather. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Stanger, who wore a pretty gown of mignonette green silk, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom had the support of his brother, Mr. Crocket, of Quebec. The groom's gift to the bride, was a handsome pin set in diamonds, and to the bridesmaid, a ring set in pearls and diamonds. Among the many beautiful presents to the bride was a handsome piano, in French berl walnut, the gift of her father, and the Mission band of St. Paul's church, sent her an epergne. They left in the four o'clock train for Montreal and Quebec. The bride's going away gown, was a very pretty cashmere of navy blue, with hat and cape to match.

Judge Landry of Dorchester, is spending a few days among the celestials. Miss Ella Hunt is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Davidson, at Newcastle. The picme at " Camp Comfort" on Friday afternoon, under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. E. Smith, was a very pleasant affair. The ladies especially enjoying themselves, and the only accident of the day was the rather unceremonious ducking of one young man by tumbling out of his canoe. Col. and Mrs. Maunsel, are visiting Prince Edward Miss Kathleen Gordon is visiting Miss Marney

Mrs. Jasper Murphy spent last week in the city, having come to see her sister, Mrs. Black. Miss Mary Rainsford of Grand Falls, is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mr. H. B. Rains-

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Morrison and Miss Cunningham leave on Friday for St. Andrews, where they will spend a month at the Algonquin hotel.

Miss Mary Thompson has returned home from a delightful visit to the World's Fair. Mrs. Allen F. Randolph was at home on Saturday afternoon to a large number of friends when a de lightful afternoon was spent, tea being served inloors, after which ice cream and cakes were enjoyed on the lawii: Mrs. Johnstett of St. John, and Mrs. McVey of Boston, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Murray. Mrs. John Cameron is enjoying a few weeks of sea air at the shore. Mr. Weyland Porter left today for a few weeks trip

The Misses Fenety of Cambridge, Mass., are visiting their grandparents here.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whittiker, and Miss Sadeler, of St. John, who have been visiting Mrs. Geo. F. Gregory, at Elmshade, have gone to Chatham to Chatham to visit friends there.

Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen of St. John, has been spending a few days in the city, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jas. Tibbits, York St Miss Florrie Clements of Kingsclear, is visiting Mrs. Strather, of Halifax, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. M. Campbell is visiting her son, Mr. H.

M. Campbell, at Fox Hill, Kings Co.
Mrs. George T. Dibblee is enjoying a trip through

Nova Scotia in company with Mr. Dibblee.

Mr. Thos. Currie, of Harvard college, and Mrs.

Currie, are visiting Mr. Currie's father.

Inspector Bridges with his mother and sister is spending a few weeks in Sheffield. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McCready have returned from a visit to friends in Queens Co. Miss Thomas is enjoying the cool breezes of St.

After a very short illness Mrs. Black, widow of the late Rev. John Black, mother of Mr. John Black, barrister of this city, passed peacefully to rest on Sunday evening. The deceased lady was stricken with paralysis on Thursday last, until which time she had been in the active duties of life. The interpret took place on Tuesday at Kingselear. interment took place on Tuesday at Kingsclear. Among the floral offerings which were beautiful was a white cross from her children, a pillow, the gift of her grand children; cross, Mr. and Mrs. H. Robinson, (Ireland) sickle, Mrs. E. B. Winslow; cresent, Mrs. F. Bliss; cross, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fenety; wreath, Mr. Bebbington; cut flowers, Miss Elesibeth Rainsford. Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Dixon, Mr. Henery Hilton-Green and Mr. Jack Wetmore, of St. John, were all here to attend the funeral.

Miss Lambert has returned home, after a delightful visit spent with Miss Grace Porter.

Miss Lizzie Cumming has returned from Petitcodiac, where she has spent some months with her sister, Mrs. F. W. Emmerson Miss Bird Emmerson is visiting her aunt, Mrs.

Miss Maud McKenzie, daughter of Capt. Mc-Kenzie and Miss Georgina McKenzie, daughter of Lieut. McKenzie of Gananoque, Out., went to St. John on Monday to visit friends there.

Mr. John A. Morrison is moving into the home-stead, "Riverside" at the Mills. Mrs. Vavasour is visiting friends at Southampton. After nearly a year's absence in New York, Miss Minnie Richards has returned home. Prof. Dixon of the University has returned from his visit to the old country.

Violet Marsh, the little daughter Mrs. Kingdom is lying dangerously ill, small hopes of her recovery being entertained, but she is resting better today. The Bishop and Mrs. Kingdon have the sympathy of osts of friends at this anxious time.

Miss Marion Crocket of Quebec, is here visiting her brother, Dr. Crocket.

Mrs. Pit's and son leave on Saturday to visit friends at Florenceville.

Miss Mary Hoyt of St. John, who has been spending a few days with her friend. Miss Carmen, left on Monday to visit friends at Woodstock.

Mr. Frank Cooper of Kansas City, is visiting his The children of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards, of the Queen, are rusticating at Westfield. Misses McLeod leave on Saturday for a few weeks' visit to the Bay Shore. After a pleasant visit spent here with her aunt, Mrs. M. S. Hall, Miss Jennie Hall has returned to Miss Sophie Tippits is spending a few weeks at Carleton, the guest of her brother. Mrs. Thomas Rankine, Mrs. Thomas Everitt and Miss Knox of St. John, have been spending a few days here having come to be present at the funeral of the late Mrs. J. A. Morrison.

Mrs. Gardener left on Saturday for Digby, to wisit friends there.

Miss Ellen Spurden and Miss Vega Creed are the guests of the Misses Brown at Hampton.

Mr. Sabine Carr of Woodstock, has been spending the past week with his friend, Mr. Charles Weddail.

Large assertment New Books at Mc-Arthur's Book Store, 80 King Street.

Our Stock of

LADIES' CORSETS

is well assorted,

with all the Newest and most

Black, Gold, Drab,

approved makes,

and Fawn colors.

11 Charlotte, Street, S. C. PORTER St. John, N. B.

SUSSEX.

JULY 19 .- The funeral of the late John Jenner, who died on the 12th July, took place from his late residence on Friday afternoon and was one of the largest ever seen here. The Orangemen, Odd-Fellows and Masons marched in a body. Mr. Jenner was a prominent and faithful member of all these lodges and the large number that attended his funeral testified to the esteem in which he was held. The Sussex Band played "The Dead March in Saul" very impressively. The service was conducted by Rev. J. S. Sutherland, pastor of the presbyterian church. Rev. J. H. Jenner, of Boston, and Amos and Fred Jenner, of St. John, sons of the diseased, were here for the funeral.

Mrs. Lauckner and the Misses Reed of St. John, have been visiting Mrs. George Warren.

The Misses Alice and Millie Burgess are visiting friends in St. John.

Col. E. B. Beer spent Friday in St. John.
Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, St. John, spent Sunday with Mrs. Robinson's mother here.
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Raymond and children of Bloomfield, spent Friday with Mrs. A. Robertson

Rev. Mr. Moore and wife of Charlottetown, are doore, agent of the bank of Nova Scotia.

Miss McColgan, St. John, is visiting her cousin, Mr. Rourke and daughter of St. Martins, spent ast week at the Queen.

Hon. A. S. White and wife, left on Saturday for t. Martins, to visit at Mrs. White's former home there. Miss Vaughan, who had been staying with them at "The Knoll" returned to her home.

Mrs. George Hilcoat and little daughter, Helen, visiting Mrs. Hilcoat's mother, Mrs. Adam

McIntyre, St. John.

Mrs. W. L. Broad and daughter, Moncton, are the guests of Mrs. Nelson Arnold, the Willows. Mrs. G. H. Raymond left on Tuesday for a visit to er mother, Mrs. C. M. Gove at St. Andrews. Mrs. D. M. Fairweather and son, Walter, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fairweather, at

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Ryan are in Fredericton, where Dr. Ryan is attending a meeting of the medi Mrs. H. H. Dryden, is visiting her mother in St.

Miss Atherton of Fredericton, is the guest of Mrs. The Misses Gunn and Miss Thompson St. John, are boarding at the Depot House.

Mrs. Bleakney Petitcodiac, spent Saturday with er sister, Miss Stockton. Miss Holman of St. John is visiting relatives Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, her sister, Miss Barnet, nd Masters Harry and Charlie Fairweather, went o Shediac on Wednesday, to enjoy the cool sea-breezes there for a few weeks. Mr. Harry Arnold left this morning for Hamilton, Ont., where he has been offered a position in the Bank of Montreal.

Miss Hazel Smith of St. John, is sojourning at the Depot House.
Mr. L. A. Miles St. John, and Mr. Ernest Murray of Chatham, are at the Depot House today.

BATHURST.

[Progress is for sale in Bathurst at McGinley's Grocery store.

July 18 -A very enjoyable party was given on last Thursday evening by Mrs. J. F. Barry to a number of her young friends. The amusements were dancing and games. Some of the dresses worn by the ladies were very pretty and becoming: Mrs. Barry wore a pretty black sllk dress, with fish net overdress.

Miss Leahy, in whose honor the party was given, ooked well in a black lace skirt and heliotrope silk

Miss Minnie Burns wore a very becoming dress of pale blue silk, pearl ornaments. Miss Emma Burns was her usual sweet self in a pretty challie dress with orange trimmings.

Miss Bishop was doubtless the "belle of the ball," wearing a very pretty dress of India muslin, with chiffon trimmings; natural flowers. Miss Romeril, a cream dress, empire style, with ace of the same shade. Miss O'Brien, a pretty pink veiling. Miss Gertie Meahan, a pretty grey dress with shot silk trimmings. Miss Dot Meahan looked very pretty in a dark green silk, with pale pink trimmings. Miss Laura Meahan, pretty green dress, trimmed

Miss Bella Mullins, a neat grey dress. The gentlemen present were Messrs. J. Sivewright Tabor, A. J. H. Stewart, W. A. Meahan, F. J. Mul-lins, W. J. Draper, W. F. Napier, J. E. Keary, and

A very pleasant party was given by Mrs. John Ellis, on Friday evening. The guests who numbered not a very great many, thoroughly enjoyed the even-ing. The principal amusement was dancing. Miss Tina Quinn, of St. John, is is visiting with Miss Sophia Mullins, one of our popular young ladies, left on Monday night for Halifax to enter the Convent of the Sisters of Charity. Her many Bathurst friends wish her happiness and perseverance in her new life. Mrs. P. J. Burns and Miss Frances Mullins accompanied Miss Sophia io Halifax, and will be present when she enters the

Congratulations to Dr. J. C. and Mrs. Meahan on on the arrival of a baby-girl.

The church fair held by the ladies of the R. C. congregation began on Tuesday and is to last for a few days. The attendance was very good indeed and everything carried out successfully. The refreshments were all that could be desired and the ladies deserve much credit for their untiring efforts and attention. The concert given in the evening on the grounds was very well conducted and served to bring before the audience some of the young The clergymen present at the fair were His Lordship Bishop Rogers and Rev. Father Knight of Chatham, Rev. Father Mihan of Amherst, Rev. Father Ed. Meahan, Montreal, Rev. H. H. Meahan, Moncton, Rev. Father Morrissy, Bartibogue, with Brother Prudent of New York, who is spending

BARNABY RUDGE. ST. MARY'S, N. B.

JULY 19. - Professor and Mrs. T. H. Currie and Miss Edna Currie, of Fredericton, visited Mr. and Miss Gill, at Lower St. Mary's, last week. Mrs. John Sears, of Kingsclear, is visiting her parents at Oaklands. Miss Jennie Robbins, of Boston, is the guest o Mrs. T. Biden.

Miss Millie Biden is visiting her cousins Stanley' Miss Annie Gill, of Fredericton, spent the day with her aunt at Lower St. Mary's on Friday.

Mr. William Biden and daughter Miss Katie, visited friends here lately. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Garden, intend going to their son, Rev. Alfred Garden, who is at present in the district of Niagara.

Master Harry Biden who had his leg injured some time ago, has returned from Stanley very much improved in health.

Mrs. and Miss Johnston spent a few days here Miss Wilmot, of Belmont, visited her aunt a few Miss Jaffrey spent the 12th of July with Mrs. A. tanley Clowes, at Oromocto.

Miss Martha Biden, of Lower St. Mary's accomanied by some of her friends, drove up and spent Mr. G. Johnstone is visiting his old home here.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Annie Dinsmore, of Nashwaak and Mr.
Owens, of Lay Creek, on Monday, July 24th.
Miss Dinsmore is a sister of Mrs. J. Barry, who resides a few miles below the Nashwaak.
Miss Mand Kyle is organizing a music class e 12th in the city.

Miss Maud Kyle is organizing a music class.

The baptist, and F. C. baptist congregations have been allowed the use of the methodist church for their services, during part of each Sunday, since the Preparations are being made to rebuild the baptist church at once.

Several buildings are being erected in Gibson already, and many others will be commenced in a

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sewell and family are staying at Upper Maugerville, in one of Mr. Sewell's cottages.
Mr. J. Kyle and son have returned from a trip up The methodist mission at Lower St. Marys, which has been closed for some weeks, is expected to be reopened on Sunday, Master Herbert Gill, and brother Gordon, have been spending part of their vacation down in, the country, at their old home on the farm. Mrs. P. Barry has returned from a visit to friends Miss Katie Currie visited friends here last week

HARCOURT.

JULY 18 .- Dr. R. P. Doherty, of Moncton, Mr. Henry Wathen, of the P. O. department, drove to Salisbury river yestesday in quest of trout, which proved very scarce.

Mr. James G. McDonald, of Coverdale, A. C.

spent Saturday night at the Central Hotel, and left | August. for home on Sunday morning. Ex-councillor Briggs, of Lake Stieam, spent a few hours here among his old constituents on Monday. Councillors Wathen and Smallwood went to Richibucto this morning to attend to their municipal

Rev. J. H. Cameron and family purpose leaving this week for Russell, Manitoba. Miss Farrer, of Campbellton, is visiting the Misses Wellwood.

Miss McDonald, of Coverdale, A. C., who is visiting her relatives at the Central, left for home on Sunday Mr. Charles R. Cumming arrived last evening from Windsor, N. S., and will spend his vacation in Rev. Mr. McConneil, successor to Rev. F. A. Wightman, occupied the pulpit of the Wesleyan Memorial church, last Sunday evening.

Mr. T. Collins of St. John, spent Sunday in Har-Miss Janie Pride took her departure for Boston, on Friday last.
Mr. John Flett was at the Eureka today, returning to Halifax after a pleasant holiday trip to his me in Campbellton. Mr. W. S. Loggie of Chatham, was at the Eureka The good folk of Granville propose having their annual picnic on Tuesday next, and those who attend may rely on a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Alex. Morrison of Chatham, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Brown returned home by yesterday's accomodation train. A marriage is on the tapis to take place in Harcourt the first week in August. One of the principals is one of the fair daughters of Northumberland

Mr. Dennis A. Saulnier, and Mr. Parker Chrys. tal, went to St. Paul yesterday, to attend Rev. Fr-Hebert's pic-nic.

RICHIBUCTO.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Richibucto by Theo. P.

JULY 18.—The tea and entertainment given by the ladies of the R. C. Church in St. Patrick's Hall on Tuesday evening was largely attended. The programme was made up of choruses, solos, instrumental music, dialogues and recitations. Mrs. Wm. Connaughton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Leary and Mr. A. E. Starer were the soloists, and several encores had to be given during the evening. Quite an active part was taken by the children. The recitations by Miss Frances McLaughlin and Master Harry McInerney were good. Miss Hannah and Dr. Bourque rendered some fine music on the piano and cornet, which showed careful practice. The dialogue "No Cure, No Pay," aroused a good deal of fun and was taken part in by Mrs. R. O'Leary, Mrs. J. C. Vatour, Mrs. Wm. Connaughton and Misses Chrystal, Freeman, Richard and Vatour. After the programme was finished the crowd adjourned to the basement of the hall where ice cream was served. The affair was a success.

Miss Emily Sayre has returned from the Ladies' College, Halitax.
Rev. J. S. Allen was unable to occupy his pulpit in the methodist church, having been called to go

Mr. Wm. Black went to Fredericton last week on account of the illness of his mother, who has since Mr. James Hains of Moncton spent Sunday in

The many riends of Mr. John T. Caie will regret to hear of the accident which happened to him on Tuesday, while driving on the park he was thrown from a sulky, breaking his arm and receiving other Mr. Geo. W. MacDonald of New Glasgow N. S. was in town on Tuesday. Mrs. Sinclair of Newcastle, who is visiting friends in Kingston, was in town yesterday.

Miss Maud Hains has gone to Chatham to spend

NEWCASTLE.

JULY 19 .- Mr. and Mrs. Percy Chestnut, are the guests of Mrs . Will Mitchell for a few weeks . Mrs . H . M . Williston of Halifax, is visiting Mrs. E. P. Williston.

The most enjoyable picnic of the season took place last Saturday afternoon, when Mr. R. Z. Walker had invited a large number of young friends to participate in an excursion on board the "Rustler." The merry party left town about three p. m. indulging in the dance while on the steamer, and landing at Bartibogue about five, where a lunch was served, after which the young people enjoyed a ramble round the picturesque banks, and returned about nine o'clock voting thanks to Mr. Walker as a kind and genial host .

Miss F. C. Kingsley of St. John, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mitchell

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart, and two children of Newton, Mass., are guests at the Waverly . Their many friends are glad to welcome Rev Mr. Sweet and family back again after a year's absence in England. The Misses Harley are visiting in Dalhousie. There was a delightful little "verandah" party and dance last Thursday evening, at Mrs. Will Mitchell's.

On Friday evening Mrs. Mitchell entertained a number of friends at Hilltop. Dancing and music were the amusements. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller. and Miss Munyan of Millerton, Mrs. Manny, Mr. and Mrs. Chesnut, Mrs. Will Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Williston, the Misses Aitken, Miss Hobart, the Misses Thomson, Miss Mary Russell, Miss Mamie Fleming, Miss Gjertz, Miss May Fish, Messrs. Blair, Geo. Howard, S. Watt, F. Warker, R. Z. Walker, T. Aitken, C. Thomson and Dr. Sproul.

DALHOUSIE.

JULY 19 .- Rev. Robt. Haddow of Milton, Ont., is visiting his parents here accompanied by his bride the very warmest welcome has been extended to them, the Rev. gentleman is a Dalhousie boy. Miss Mary Haddow is visiting her uncle Mr. G.

Miss Annie Stewart of Waltham, Mass., is again with us, a guest at "Glen Cottage."
Rev. G. Fisher has gone to Nova Scotia for a short visit.

Mr. Joseph T. Windsor of New Mills was in town on Tuesday.

on Tuesday.

The town was also visited on Tuesday by Mr.
Thomas Hayes, warden of the municipality, Messrs.
John Culligan, W. McRae, J. E. Miller, D. McLean and Donald Kerr, Co. Councillors.
Messrs. Neil Shaw and Alex. LeBlanc, Councilors, were also in town during the session of Council.

Mr. McAlpine, of St. John, was in attendance at he court, acting for Attorney-General Blair.

Mr. McIlvoraith, of Balmoral, paid us a vist Mr. and Mrs. M. Reid are visiting friends in It is understood that the Rev. H. B. Morris takes charge of St. Mary's (Anglican) church here in

It gave genuine pleasure to his many friends to see Sheriff Philips, who has been so long ill, open and conduct the business of the court this week. Hon. Judge Wilkinson and his estimable lady were in town on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. H. F. McLatchey, of Campbellton, was in atweek to some point of interest, and if the word of tendance at the county court on Tuesday.
Mr. John Montgomery, attorney, of St. John, is at his home here this week on a short visit. Miss Emily Montgomery, of New Richmond. P. Q., is visiting friends in town. D. MUSQUASH.

JULY 17 .- The Misses Anderson gave a very enjoyable picnic to a few of their friends last Monday. Mr. George Barnhill spent Sunday at Musquash. Mr. A. T. Dunn, M. P. P., went to St. George to-lay on business. Mrs. C. F. Clinch has returned home from St. Andrews, her health is much improved. Mrs. Parkins, of St. John, spent the greater part of last week with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Clinch.

Mrs. Jack Woodford has returned to the city after pleasant visit at Sunny Side. The Misses Stevens, of Cambridge, Mass., are guests at Dunnville. Miss Grace Stevens, who is a clever amateur photographer, has taken several riews of our pretty scenery.

Miss Nellie Lilley, of London, England, is visiting her father. She has a sweet voice and is quite an acquisition to our musical circles. In fact, among acquisition to our musical circles. In fact, among other things, there seems to be quite a musical element here just at present. We have an orchestra which would do credit to a much larger place—it is composed of the following performers—Mr. Harry Baker, Organ, Mr. L. Noakes, Clarionet, Mr. Wm. Lilley, Violin, Mr. Robert Parkin, Cornet.

There were three religious services held here on Sunday. Mr. Raymond, a divinity student occupied the pulpit in St. Anne's church in the morning and the pulpit in St. Anne's church in the morning and preached to a large congregation in Prince of Wales school-house in the evening. The orchestra supplied Mr. Dunlap, a baptist student at Acadia, delivered an instructive and earnest discourse in Clinch's Hall on the same evening. Miss Balcom played the

Mr. Harvey Heed

Laceyville, O. Catarrh, Heart Failure, Paralysis of the Throat

I Thank God and Hood's Sarsaparilla for Perfect Health." "Gentlemen: For the benefit of suffering hunanity I wish to state a few facts: For several failure, getting so bad I could not work and Could Scarcely Walk I had a very bad spell of paralysis of the throat me time ago. My throat seemed closed and I could not swallow. The doctors said it was caused by heart failure, and gave medicine, which I took according to directions, but it did not seem to do me any good. My wife urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, telling me of Mr. Joseph C. Smith, who had been At Death's Door but was entirely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

After talking with Mr. Smith, I concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken two bottles I felt very much better. I have continued taking it, and am now feeling excellent. I thank God, and Hood's Sarsaparilla and my wife for my restoration to perfect health." HARVEY HEED, Laceyville, O. HOOD'S PILLS do not purge, pain or gripe, but act promptly, easily and efficiently. 25c.

SKINNER'S CARPET WAREROOMS.

_ook ≅ this Offer!

HALF PRICE. Call early and don't get disappointed as stock is limited.

Stock in all Departments Complete.

A. O. Skinner.

FOR JULY ONLY! ---- FREE TO ALL!

to announce to all who subscribe to our Magazine, THE FAMILY CIRCLE, during the month of July, we will present, FREE OF CHARGE, one of our regular

LIFE-SIZE CRAYONS

in an elegant frame with 50 numbers at 15 cents each, which we will deliver weekly. Understand: we only want you to subscribe in July, and the books will be delivered weekly until 50

These pictures were formerly given with 60 numbers of our Magazine at 15 cts. each, and have given entire satisfaction to all who subscribed. Any further information may be obtained by calling at our studio, where arrangements will be made on the most liberal terms.

CANADIAN PUBLISHING AND PORTRAIT CO..

Rooms 15 and 17, Walker's Building, Canterbury Street, St. John, N. B. Halifax: 162 Hollis Street.

SHEDIAC.

WANTED .- A Shediac correspondent for Prog-RESS. Applications should be made to the editor at SHEDIAC CAPE.

JULY 20-The annual Church of England picnic of the Cape and vicinity. held in C. F. Hanington's grove, Thursday, was largely attended. An unusual number of visitors were present including several ladies of St. Andrew's congregation, Shediac. The usual violent exercises so common at picnics found more participants than on ordinary occasions of this kind and a seemingly endless programme of sports | Harding. monopolized the entire afternoon. The so-called tugs-of-war between the married and single men was an interesting feature, but it was not half as interesting as the contest between the ladies and the ladies won, but the defeated were sufficiently the ladies won, but the defeated were sufficiently New Glasgow.

Mr. E. Bitter Mr. E. Bitte did. Rev. Mr. Burt was master of ceremonies

The spacious residence of Mrs N Cannon was the scene of a very large card party and dance Thursday evening. The affair was an unlooked-for success socially and in point of numbers. Dancing continued until almost two o'clock. Mr John Scovil is visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs H A Scovil. Hon Judge Hanington drove through from Dorchester to-day and is staying at the old homestead. Shediac division No Is, S of T, has inaugurated a new feature for the good of the order. The members arranged an excursion by land or water at least once the recording scribe is an indication no excursionist is ever disappointed. The growth of the division is also said to be making rapid progress as a result.

Mrs M J Steeves and family, of Dover, are spending the summer here, the guests of Mrs H Cannon.
Miss Hannington of St. John, was the guest of Rev. Mr and Mrs Burt this week.

Mr Percival Wilbur of Moncton, spent Sunday at 'The Elms," the residence of Mr and Mrs Alfred Driver Daniel McQueen and his tally ho was the medium by which a party of young ladies were rapidly conveyed to Moncton, one day last week. Barring the weather, and a slight mishap to the coach, everything declared in favor of an enjoyable coach, everything declared in favor of an enjoyable occasion—at least so say the young ladies.

H. W. Murray, formerly teacher of the Madras school here, bade good-bye to his friends this week. He carried with him a gold headed cane, as a reminder of his stay here.

The young men of the Cape met last Saturday evening and formed the Young Mens Club. The following officers were elected to guide the destinies of the new and promising organization: President.

of the new and promising organization: President, Daniel A. McQueen; vice president, Reginald H. Welling; secretary-treasurer, Fred H. Glasby; sargeant-at-arms, O.S. Mills; sentinel, Albert Bateman. A reading room and debating class are features of the club. American visitors continue to arrive daily, and few it any of them are disappointed at the temperature and view of the country hereabouts. School teachers, too, are wonderfully numerous. AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is sold in Amherst by Master Charles Hillcoat, and at the music store of H. A. Hillcoat.] JULY 19-The Misses Tighe gave an unusually pleasant five o'clock tea on Thursday afternoon a their home on Victoria street. The weather was most favorable for the gay event, and the guests in their pretty summer gowns looked very happy. I understand the tea was in honor of Miss Gifkin o Kentville who has been their guest of the Misses Tighe for the past month. Mrs Richmond entertained a party of merry little guests on Wednesday afternoon, for her little nieces the Misses Weldon. As it was after the form of an afternoon tea and garden party combined, no doubt there was an immense amount of pleasure for all

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Gass gave an afternoon tea to quite a large number of Miss Helen's young friends. Mrs Gass was a most attentive hostess and catered to the tastes of the little visitors in a most appreciable way.

Miss Belle Hickey went to St . John last Wednesday to visit friends. Mrs George Hillcoat left on Thursday to spend a few days with her old friends in Sussex Mrs McKinnon and daughter, Lucy, went to Halifax on Saturday en route for Shelburne . Miss Cutter entertained a few of her friends at whist on Friday evening, at her home on Victoria Miss Chipman of Boston, is very welcome among our recent arrivals; she will spend the summer vacation with her auut, Mrs. Black.

Miss Gwen Main returned home last week, from a visit to the Misses McColl, New Glasgow.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. N. Curry gave a delightful lawn party at "Seven Gables." Mrs. Curry is among one of our most charming matrons and is among one of our most charming matrons, and her pretty home affords lots of space for all the amusement that go to make summer entertain Miss Campbell returned from a lengthy visit to Boston on Thursday, to the great delight of her many On Saturday, Miss Grace Fullerton gave an afternoon tea that was much enjoyed after the general fashion of such functions. It was a great pleasure to her guest to meet Miss Strickland, after a year's absence, also to know that she intends paying her years I have suffered from catarrh and heart friends in Amherst a visit of several weeks. Miss Harris of Annapolis was also among the guests who ronounced the tea a delightful affair from all points. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and family, arrived at the methodist parsonage the last of the week from Mahone Bay, and will soon be in readiness to receive visitors. Mr. Williams addressed a large congregation in the methodist church on Sunday, and was also present at the sociable on Friday evening for the church, which was a very great success; the supply so far exceeding the demand that they had to take the following evening to make a clearance sale, which was certainly a very propitious outlook for the new pastor

> Spruce cottage on Monday afternoon was the resort for our fashionably young belies to partleip te in a very merry garden party given for the Misses Miss May Quiglev who has been visiting friends in Halifax since the closing of Wolfville school, returned home on Tuesday evening accompanied by Miss Kennedy and Miss Parsons who will remain her guests for a time.

Mr. Boggs and niece Miss Hilda Morse returned on Monday from a trip through the Western counties.

No less then two weddings are reported to take place in September, with a charming possibility of a third one, which if all be true I hear, will keep society on the move for a few weeks to have all things in readiness.

Mr DeMille of Windsor addressed Rev Mr Harris congregation in Christ church on Sunday evening.

Mrs J M Townshend gave a large five o'clock tea on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Victoria street for her mother, Mrs J Brown. The hostess was most fortunate in having quite a number of our summer visitors among her guests, the majority of thick were very smartly gowned. which were matrons who were very smartly gowned. Miss Moore and friend, Miss Whitehouse of New York, wore very pretty frocks indeed; Mrs Fred Bent, Cincinnati, were also among the guests among whom were Mrs Rufus Bent, Mrs R Chapmen, Mrs A Chapmen, Mrs Ratchford, Mrs T R Black, Mrs D Douglas, Mrs Mills, Miss Fowler, Miss Dimock, Miss Strickland, Miss Bent and Miss Harding.

The excursion to Halifax was favored with copious showers, but quite a number went from Amherst and enjoyed the trip immensely. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Logan, Dr C Morse, G A Munro, and Misses Strothard, en route for their home in Annapolis.

Mr. E Biden has gone on a short business trip to New Glasgow.

leave next week for a trip to Vancouver, and will visit the Fair on their return.

M. M.

ANAGANCE. JULY 19.-Miss Nettie McNaughton, (teacher,) is spending the summer months with her parents at their residence, "The Lilacs." Miss Agnes Ryan of New York, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Davidson, at I. C. R. depot.

Misses Annie and Agnes McAnespy, school teachers in Albert county, are spending their summer vacation with their mother at Portage.

Miss May McRobbie of St. John, is at present visiting her friends, the Misses Davidson on "Apple Mrs. Claude Price and little daughter, Helena Marguerite, were visiting her sister, Mrs. Davidson, at the station on Tuesday of this week. Miss Ellen Stewart, who has had charge of the Newcastle Creek, Queens county, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Bell of St. John, are at present boarding at the "Portage House" at Portage.

Mr. William Bradley of New York, who has been spending the past month at "Floral Cottage," left for his home on Friday last.

Miss Hattie McNaughton of Salisbury, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McNaughton at "The Lilacs."

Waterproof Garments.

Our Stock of Waterproof Garments for Ladies includes some at six dollars, but this week you may have your choice of all for one-half that that price.

$3.00.

Needless to say we have them much lower in price. but three dollars pays for the

George H. McKay,

61 KING ST.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION,

Wednesday, July 26, Under the auspices of the St. John LETTER CARRIERS

THE commodious steamer, David Weston, has wharf, Indiantown, at 8 o'clock, returning at 11.30;

St. John River by Moonlight. THE CITY CORNET BAND will supply choicest music, and everything possible will be done to make the Excursion an enjoya ble one.

Tickets 50c. Each. A limited number only will be sold so as to ensure comfort. Tickets may be had from the Carriers, at the Bookstores, and at the boat. C. BELYEA,

Chairman of Com.

J. J. RYAN, Secret ary