TRURO, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's, and at D. H. Smith & Co's.]

The many friends of Mr. D. R. Park were glad to welcome him back on Thursday last week.

Mr. Park was formerly in the Merchants' bank here, and is now accountant at Newcastle, N. B.

A highly successful and interesting entertainment was given in the spacious parlors of Mr. John B. Dickie, Prince street, on the evening of the 21st inst.

The programme was arranged by Miss Jennie Terry, who was ably assisted by the following talented ladies and gentlemen: Miss McDougall, soprano; Miss McCully, contralto; Miss Beattie Jones, Mr. G. H. Williams, violinist; Miss Jennie Terry, elocutionist, and Mr. Edward Stewart, pianist.

Miss McDougall was in excellent voice, and gave a faultless rendering of Bragg's beautiful serenade, to which Mr. Williams played a charming accompaniment.

Mr. Rice and Miss McCully both sang beautifully, and Mr. Williams, who has always been a favorite in Truro, excelled himself. His last number, a sonata in three movements, was considered the piece of the evening.

A very pleasant evening was spent by those who were fortunate enough to secure an invitation to Mr. Stewart's organ recital in St. Andrew's church on Tuesday last.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Aug. 23.—A merry party of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a buck board ride to Mr. C. W. Young's cottage at Oak Bay. They left here at 7 o'clock, and arriving at Oak Bay and after strolling about the fine beach and admiring the quaint little cottage, which is built in French style, with long narrow windows and a broad picturesque piazza, the guests entered the cottage and dancing began and continued until 11 o'clock.

Supper was then served, and directly after, as it was nearing the witching hour of midnight, they left for up river, having enjoyed a jolly, delightful evening. Those who had the good fortune to be on this pleasant outing were: Mr. and Mrs. James G. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Clarke, Mrs. C. H. Clerke, Miss Kate Stevens, Miss Morrison, Miss Nellie Smith, Miss Alice Graham, Miss Berta Smith and Miss Nellie Murchie, Messrs. John Stevens, Harry Graham and George Downes.

A party of ladies consisting of Mrs. S. H. Blair, Mrs. James Mitchell, Mrs. E. J. Vroom, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. J. G. Stevens, Mrs. John E. Alger, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Miss Bolton and Miss Abbot were entertained most pleasantly by Mrs. C. H. Clerke at her sea-side cottage, yesterday afternoon; whilst was the chief amusement. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and afterwards through the invitation and courtesy of Messrs. Ellis and Craiz of the United States cruiser "Fish Hawk" which is anchored at the Ledge, in the interests of the fishing survey, the ladies visited the "Fish Hawk" and were shown every part of the vessel and entertained most delightfully.

The "Fish Hawk" is a fine looking craft and carries a crew of forty-two men, including her officers. She comes to St. Croix from Cape Cod, where she is usually stationed. Seldom does a naval vessel of so large tonnage visit our river, and the invitation to visit "Fish Hawk" was greatly appreciated, and the politeness and kindness rendered by the officers in command will be remembered. After returning from the "Fish Hawk" the ladies gathered on the piazza in the moonlight, and talked over the unexpected pleasure they had just enjoyed. At 9 o'clock they left for town, arriving safely having thoroughly enjoyed the most delightful outing of the season.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Book Store, the Central Book Store, A. H. Jones, Main street, and by J. E. McCoy.]

Aug. 23.—The meeting of the Grand lodge of Masons on Monday and Tuesday brought a great many strangers to the city, and among the visitors there were several familiar faces, noticeably the always welcome visage of Rev. G. M. Campbell, of Carleton, grand chaplain of the lodge, and formerly pastor of the Central Methodist church here. The Masons marched in procession to the Wesley Memorial church yesterday afternoon, headed by the band of the 74th, and a Masonic service was held in the church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and potted plants. The sermon, which was of course a Masonic one, was preached by Mr. Campbell, and the musical portion of the services, in charge of Mr. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Daniel, called forth warm expressions of approval.

Speaking of the band, reminds me that the members deserve the thanks of all music-loving citizens for the generous manner in which they are treating us this summer. It is a long time since we have been so well served with music. For many years the Moncton band was a cherished possession to be loved, praised and admired from a distance, something the citizens heard of and sometimes saw, but very seldom heard, unless there happened to be a band concert or excursion in prospect; but now all this is changed and we are getting quite well acquainted with our bandmen, who treat us to an open air concert on every fine Wednesday evening. Consequently, we love them better than ever and feel that if they need support we shall feel it a privilege to contribute thereto.

Mrs. Edgar Newhouse, of Colorado, who has been visiting her brother Mr. George McEwen, departed on Friday evening for her home in the West. Mrs. Newhouse's many friends who had counted on her remaining in Moncton the entire summer, will regret to hear that she was recalled so much sooner than she expected; her three children accompanied her.

Mrs. Bliss Ward left town on Wednesday evening for Chicago, not to regret to say to visit the World's Fair, but to bring home her husband's mother, Mrs. Ward, who went West last June to spend a year with relatives, in the hope of restoring her failing health, but who has been ordered back to her native climate by her physicians.

Mrs. John McEwen and Miss Bliss, of Westmorland, spent Friday and Saturday in town, visiting the Misses McEwen.

WHITE'S COVE. Q. CO.

Aug. 21.—A very pleasant picnic was given by Mr. L. P. Farris on the 9th inst. in honor of Miss Maud McLean, of St. John and Miss Flora Marsh of Fredericton, who have been spending their holidays at Mrs. Farris'.

The 10th was an enjoyable day for Messrs. Frank D. White, Gordon D. Knight and W. W. Wright. The day's outing was spent in boat sailing and picnicking along the shore of the beautiful Grand Lake. On the 11th the young people turned out en masse and had an afternoon's outing on Farris' Point. Amusements of all kinds were enjoyed until 5.30 p. m. when a luncheon was partaken of under the huge willows. The young ladies were very grateful to Mr. F. S. Taylor for the pleasure afforded them by his yacht the "White Wings".

Mr. F. D. White returned home a few days ago from a tour through the province.

The young people have organized a singing glass to take place every Saturday evening in the Methodist church. Mr. C. W. White acts as leader of the singing and Miss Dora M. White as organist.
