JULY 8.—A quiet wedding took place in the Catholic church in this town on Sunday forenoon, July 8th, when Mr. Angus Grant, of Vanceboro, and Miss Mary Hurley, of York county, N. B., were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. O'Brien, of Moncton. The bride was attended by Miss Belle A. Grant, sister of the groom and Mr. Michael Cleary acted as groomsmen. The bride was the recipient of a number of bouquets and cards from her friends. Mr. Grant and wife will go to housekeeping at once, as they had a home all furnished prior to their marriage. Their many friends wish that their wedding day may be long and happy.

WOODSTOCK. [Progress is for sale in Woodstock by M. Load & Co.]

JULY 10.—The flag floated gaily from the Wilbur, last week in honor of its guest Lieutenant Governor Fraser attending the church of English synod. An address was presented to Governor Fraser on Friday afternoon at the Wilbur, Mayor Hanson presented the address, he was attended by the civic council. The officers and members of the Woodstock field battery rode down camp and halted in line before the Wilbur. The Woodstock brass band was presented and played some choice selections. The Lieutenant Governor in reply made a felicitous address. Governor and Mrs. Fraser held a reception on Friday afternoon from three till six which was attended by a large number of leading citizens. The Woodstock field battery which is at present encamped on Doherty's field some little distance above town presents a very attractive picture. The field dotted with tents, with the dense groves of trees in the rear and the ever varying detachments of men and horses make a lively scene. Major Drury, of Kingston, is reviewing the company. Lieutenant Colonel Dibble is in command. Hon. Grenville James, U. S. Consul, entertained Lieutenant Dibble and the officers of Woodstock Field Battery at dinner at the Wilbur on Sunday. His Lordship Bishop Kingdon was the guest of Rev. Canon Neales at the rectory last week. Venerable Archbishop Brigeotcke was the guest of Mrs. Charles Connel during the week.
