Miss McDonald, returned last week from a trip to Boston.

The "Dairymaid's supper," given in St. Luke's church on Friday last was a grand success, and the young ladies and gentlemen taking part and those who helped with the platform settings and refreshments deserve hearty congratulations. The drill, under the direction of Mr. Cooper, was very pretty, and the young ladies looked lovely in their pretty dairymaid's dresses and white hats. The drill with the stools was one of the special features of the evening. In regard to the cantata it is hard to speak too well of those taking part. Miss Mary Tapley made a charming farmer's wife and sang at her best, while Mr. Alfred Smith holds a special place as a jovial farmer. Miss Maud Fairall and Miss Bertie Dale sang exceptionally well in the guise of milk cans, and Mr. Walter Smith and James Gillespie did credit to themselves in the same capacity.

Mr. W. H. Smith made an excellent "pump" in order to assist Mr. Potts as "chaik." In the little love scene Miss Tol Patton fell most naturally into the part of Phyllis, and sang very sweetly, while Mr. Gillespie took the Cordon in a very creditable manner. Very much of the success of the affair was due to the untiring efforts of Miss Kathleen Pillsbury, of Boston, who instructed those taking part in the cantata.

The young ladies in the drill and chorus were Misses Pauline Tapley, Jessie Hilyard, Mabel Smith, Alice McKel, Bessie Stevenson, Ida Foster, Nellie Vaughan, Bertha Courtney, Lottie Rudlock, and Ros McLaughlin, Messrs. Thomas Ellis, Walter Dunham, George Roberts, A. Burham and Arthur Ellis.

One of the next pleasant events of the week was a genuine surprise party, arranged by Mrs. Robert Wisely and Mrs. William Christie, for Dr. and Mrs. March on Monday last, that evening being the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. One often hears of parties to surprise when both host and hostess know all concerning the affair, but this took Dr. and Mrs. March by storm. This added much to the success of the evening. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. Wisely, Mr. G. Tapley, Mr. E. March, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Chesley, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Rudlock, Miss Chesley, Miss Wisely, Miss Bessie Wisely, Miss Alice Farmer, Miss Hargreaves, Mr. L. Bruce, Mr. L. McKay, Mr. D. Farmer, Mr. G. Hoben, Dr. W. Christie, Mr. March and Mr. A. Courtney. A very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and in visiting, and the party broke up about one o'clock, each and all wishing Dr. and Mrs. March "many happy returns of the day."

WOODSTOCK.
[PROGRESS is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. Loane & Co.]

Nov. 6.—The "at home" held by Mrs. D. F. Merritt on Thursday evening was the grandest social function given in town for some time. Mrs. Merritt spared no pains in making her party a success. The spacious drawing rooms were arranged for dancing and the music, which was rendered by Robertson's orchestra of Houlton was most inspiring. A lengthy programme consisting largely of waltzes and schottisches was carried out and greatly enjoyed. Supper was served at twelve o'clock. The dresses were very pretty, many of the young ladies looking quite lovely, while it would be scarcely fair to omit saying that the "youth and gallantry" in evening attire with chrysanthemum bouquiers would have done credit to New York's four hundred.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Neales, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. A. Dibblee, Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Garden, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Carr, Mr. and Mrs. W. M.
