 E. G. SCOVIL, AGENT PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE, ST. JOHN, N. B.
 DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.
 Yours, JAMES H. DAY, Day's Landing, Kings Co.

St. John—South End.

Miss Ada and Mrs. Geo. A. Troop entertained about eighty of their friends Thursday evening, the 15th inst., at their residence, 174 Wentworth street. Miss Troop received in a dress of cream and yellow and looked most charming. Dancing was the order of the evening the orchestra furnishing first class music. Refreshments were passed at eleven and a sumptuous supper served at twelve. The guests departed about three expressing themselves delighted with the very enjoyable evening they had spent.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niles, Douglas avenue, was the scene of a brilliant gathering on Tuesday evening, it being the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Castilla O., to Mr. Herbert Swain, of Annapolis, N. S. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers and the supper table presented a most pleasing appearance, the decorations being entirely floral. Precisely at seven o'clock the bride entered the reception room, attended by her cousin, Miss Nettie E. Niles, of Gibson, N. B. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of fawn silk, with trimmings of lace, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor wore a dress of pink cashmere trimmed with lace, and had a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by Mr. Ernest Robertson, of this city. Rev. L. J. Halse performed the ceremony. Music was furnished by Professor Atkins. After partaking of the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Swain left on the evening train for a trip to Boston, New York, and Philadelphia.

The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue, and she had to match. Very many handsome and valuable presents were received by the bride, among them being a check from the bride's mother, diamond brooch from the groom, a handsome rug, parlor suite, oak dining room set, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niles, parlor clock, Mr. Harry Niles, French china tea set, Miss Cherrie Niles, silver knives and forks, Mr. Allison Niles, dozen solid silver spoons, Master Freeman Niles, silver sugar bowl, Miss Jessie Niles, bronze pitcher, and silver toothpick holder, Miss Edna Niles, berry set and china ornaments, Miss Nettie Niles, hand-painted demijohn and silver salt cellars, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunbar, Frederickton; best parlor table, Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, Frederickton; bronze pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore, Frederickton; parlor lamp, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Niles, Gibson; silver castors, Miss Lillian Niles, Gibson; silver cake basket, Miss Nettie Niles, Gibson; silver card receiver, Miss May Niles, Gibson; berry set, Miss Lizzie Niles, dozen linen napkins, Miss Carrie Niles, fancy picture, Master George Niles, Gibson; silver berry spoon, Master Earl Niles, dozen silver spoons, the Misses Fraser, Frederickton; table mats, Master Eddie Fraser, Frederickton; silver salver, Mr. and Mrs. James Fraser, Frederickton; parlor lamp, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cochran, Frederickton; five o'clock tea set, Mrs. Edna Cochran, Frederickton; silver berry spoon lined with gold, Mr. John Cochran, Frederickton; fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armstrong, fruit knives, Mr. Fred Armstrong, silver perfume bottle, Mr. Robert B. Winters, fancy chair back, Miss Eva Winters, painted table cover, Miss Bessie Hammond, silver fruit dish, Miss Hattie Reid, lemonade set, Mr. and Mrs. John Ring, pickle dish, Mr. W. Ring silver napkin ring, Mr. George Chase, silver castor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trearntin, silver sugar spoon, Miss Bessie Long, silk sofa pillow, Mr. Ernest Robertson, linen table set, Mr. Fred L. Hea, silver fork, Miss C. A. Betts.

Mr. H. H. Colpitts, of Boston, was in the city this week, the guest of Dr. George A. Hetherington, Union Street.

The funeral of the late Mr. Walter C. Fairweather took place from St. John's (Stone) church on Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. D. Soyres. The funeral was largely attended by the friends of the deceased. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The Misses Robertson sent a beautiful bunch of loose flowers. There was a cross from Messrs. Arthur P. Hazon and Charles Hare, now in Montreal, but formerly intimate friends of the deceased; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Whitaker; bouquet, Mrs. G. A. Schofield; wreath, Mr. J. G. Keator; bouquet of chrysanthemums from the members of the St. John church; bouquets, Miss Ethel Butt, Mr. and Miss Doie, and Mr. F. R. Fairweather. Messrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Harry Puddington, W. F. Star, J. G. Keator, W. M. McLaughlin and George O. Pheasant were the pall-bearers.

The engagement is announced of Mr. C. F. Sanford to Miss Irene V. Strong of Boston, Mass.

Word has been received of the death of Mr. Conrad Clinch, of this city, which occurred recently at Sacramento, California. Mr. Clinch removed to Calais, Maine, early in life, where he lived for some years before going to California. In Calais he married Miss Elizabeth Lawrence, sister of Mr. Dwight Lawrence, mayor of that city. Mr. Conrad Clinch was sixty-nine years of age, and leaves a bereaved brother and sister, Mrs. Fairbanks, of Newton, Mass., and Mr. C. F. Clinch, of Clinch's Mills.

Mrs. J. R. Scott, who has been spending some weeks in Boston, has returned home.

The marriage of Mr. C. Frank McMann, of this city, to Miss Ethel Agnes Goslow, of Dorchester, took place in that town on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. D. Cormier officiating. The bride wore a handsome gown of white cashmere, veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Estella Goslow, wore a costume of cream and silver, with trimmings of brown. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Many handsome presents were received by the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. McMann will reside in this city.

••••• A USEFUL PRESENT •••••

It is a copy of the "Little Helpmate," by E. M. Tree, steward of the Union Club, St. John, N. B.; late of St. James' Club, Montreal. It contains a great deal of household information NOT GENERALLY KNOWN, also the whole method of the wonderful GENERAL CLEANING AGENT KNOWN AS "The Spot Remover." Charles W. Weldon, Esq., Q. C., says of it: "It is a large and most useful and reliable guide, and heavy that it cannot be handled or shaken as any of the other papers, but in the cover process it has been THOROUGHLY CLEANED TO THE FOUNDATION and the colors renewed bright and clear."
