[Progress is for sale in Windsor at Knowles' Bookstore and by F. W. Dakin, JUNE 26 .- Encænia week this year was particularly gay. The festivities began on Monday with a cricket match between the Three Elms club and a team from the Halifax garrison which resulted in a victory for the laiter. On Tuesday the closing of the church school for girls at Edgehill took place. This delightful spot looked if possible more beautiful than usual and visitors who were present went away fully impressed with the wisdom of those who had selected such a site for this institution of learning. On Wednesday afternoon the closing exercises of the collegiate school were held and in the evening the annual conversazione was attended by a large number of people. Perhaps no previous ball has been so successful as this student's ball. The evening was delightfully cool which made dancing a pleasure. The committee who were responsible for the decorations certainly were successful, the bunting and flags being very tastefully arranged. The presence of a few redcoats added much to the brilliancy of the assemblage. Mrs. Willets and Mrs. Kennedy were very gracious hostesses, and gave no sign of weariness during the long evening. The gowns worn by the fair sex were unusvally pretty. Among those present were: Mrs. Lawson, beautifully gowned in pink brocade with soft ruching of liece.
