ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the book store of G. S. Wall. In Calais at O. P. Treat's.

AUG. 1 .- Mrs. A. H. Sawyer bas given invitations to an "at home" from seven until nine o'clock this evening, at her beautiful residence on Church street, Calais.

Miss Carrie Barker's sail and dance at De Monts, last Thursday evening, was greatly enjoyed. There were seventy ladies and gentlemen in this party, which left St. Stephen at 8 o'clock in the steamer Arbutns. The evening was delightful, and the sail down river was extended as far as Robbinston. They then returned to DeMonts, and danced until eleven o'clock, when a sumptuous supper was served. The party did not return up river until an early hour in the morning, rather weary, bnt profuse in the praise of the charming outing they had enjoyed.

Seldom does society on the St. Croix enjoy any thing more delightful, than the "At Home" given on Friday afternoon of last week, by Mrs. Archibald MacNichol, and her daughters the Misses MacNichol, at their elegant home on Church street. Palais. All the elite of the three towns were present. On entering the charming room one notied the elegance and taste displayed in its arrangement and the beauty and grace of their hostesses and their assistants, Mrs. MacNichol, and her daughters were assisted in receiving their guests, by Mrs. George Pope MacNichol and her mother Mrs. Edwin Ford, of Pittsburg, Penn., and Mrs. Dodd. wife of Lieutenant: Dodd, of the United States Cruiser Fish Hawk, Mrs. MacNichol was elegantly attired in a reception toilette, of petunii satin de Lyon, with lace and irridescent trimmings, and diamond ornaments. Miss MacNichol wore a lovely gown of pale green trimmed with ostrich feathers of the same light hue, and which showed her blonde beauty to advantage. Miss Helen McNichol, was dressed in an exceedingly yown of pale pink embroidered chiffon, over pink silk with opal ornaments; Mrs. George MacNichol, looked most richly attired in white satin trimmed with duchesse lace, and pearl and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Ford, wore a Parisian gown, of brocaded blue and black silk trimmed profusely with point de Venice lace and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Dodd, looked charming, in a pale blue satin costume, with pearl trimmings. The guests were all most elegantly attired and the scene with so much coloring was a gay one.

The floral decorations, were chiefly of pond hlies, carnations, ferns and tropical plants. In the dining room pink was the color used and sweet peas were the flowers. The young ladies who assisted in the dining room were the Misses Margaret Todd, Julia Kelly, F ... Cullinen, May Foster, Minme Hay-cock, Lunnie McKenzie and Edna Ford. They were all attired in pale pink except Miss Julia Kelley who wore a dress of pale green, and Miss Minnie Haycock who was attired in white. An orchestra was hidden in the depth of the library and its sweet strains did much to heighten the brilliancy of the occasion. The library was decorated with yellow and white lilles. The entire house was thrown open to the pleasure of the guests, who pronounce the entertainment to be the most brilliant affair of the kind ever given in Calais.

Con the same afternoon between the hours of five and seven o'clock, Mrs. Charles E. Swan received a number of the younger members of society to mee Miss Dora Rounds and Miss Daisy De Hart. Mrs. Swan looked most charming in a handsome toilette of black silk trimmed with lace and passamentrie, and received her young guests in her usual graceful and kindly manner which is so delightful to all young people who meet her. She was assisted in her duties by Miss De Hart who wore a pretty dress of pink and white, and Miss Rounds who looked lovely in a gown of mauve and white. The parlors ly funny and agile and produced much amusement and merriment. All the other cards were dressed in white, with the spots of the cards they repre-sented on their dresses. The gentlemen wore evening dress with white sashes, which were ornamented with spots denoting what card and what suite they with spots denoting what card and what suite they represented. The orchestra, played throughout the whole evening, and after the game, a stately minuet quadrille was danced by the honors. A number of pretty dances were introduced, Master Mill Cole, danced a "Sailor's Horn pipe," and twenty-one little girls dressed as butterflies, gave a thetterfle?" 'butterfly" dance. The entertainment has been greatly talked about, and numerous critic sms have been made in regard to its excellency but if rather c isappointing to some it certainly was amusing and afforded to many a leasant evening.
