Truro—Truro.
 On Friday evening Mr. Fred Sturdee entertained a large number of his friends at a most enjoyable dance at Barrig Leagh, the residence of his parents, Wright street. Music was furnished by Harrison's orchestra, and was exceedingly fine. A programme of sixteen dances was carried out, encores being the order of the evening. Mr. Sturdee made an excellent host and did everything in his power for the enjoyment of his guests. He was ably assisted by his brother, Mr. Russell Sturdee. Shortly after midnight a sumptuous supper was served. Among those present were: Miss Nan McDonald, Miss Bertie Rainnie, Miss Olive Stone, Miss Bertie Hogan, Miss Ada Ring, Miss Myra Romans, Miss Lizzie Gilbert, Miss Hurd Campbell, Miss Winnie Wright, Miss Taffie Robertson, Miss Emily McAvity, Miss Lou Howard, Miss Blanche Jones, Miss Daisy Outram, Miss Lucy Bridgeman, Miss Edith Tilley, Miss Florrie Rainnie, Miss Edith Hall, Miss Hazel Rainnie, Miss Florrie Cruikshank, Miss Emma Payne, Miss Gladys McLaughlan, Miss Belle Robertson, Miss Minnie Hall, Miss Avis Hall, Miss Beattie McAvity, Miss Nellie McAvity, Miss M. Harvey, Walter Hall, A. J. Baxter, Fred Foster, A. E. Foster, Ralph Robertson, Guy Robertson, Bert Harrison, Ned Cornwall, Ned Jarvis, Alex. MacMillan, Tom Pugsley, Fred Bedell, Harry Godsoe, Heber Vroom, Hal Skinner, Waldo Skinner and others. The party did not break up until 2:30 a. m., when those present bade good-bye to the Sheriff and Mrs. Sturdee and felt they would long remember their kind hospitality.
 A number of friends of Mr. John Macaulay entertained him at supper at Lang's cafe on Monday evening, previous to his departure for Montreal, where he will take a course in medicine at McGill college. Supper was served at twelve o'clock, and about thirty persons did justice to the tempting viands prepared by Mr. Lang. After supper the usual toasts were drunk, followed by songs and speeches. Solos were rendered by Messrs W. Harney, F. Tufts, A. Boyne, K. Gregory, W. Peters, and A. Cook. Jack, at the request of a number of his friends, sang one of his old time favorites in a good style. After this solo the chairman called for order, and in a few well spoken words, referring to the Club's loss of three members in the accident of the yacht Primrose, and that they had now gathered to bid farewell to another, presented Mr. Macaulay with a handsome pair of gold cut buttons, engraved with the initials C. A. M., as a slight token of the Columbian Amateur Minstrels, to which Mr. Macaulay replied in an appropriate manner. Speeches followed by Messrs. D. McCarty, W. Kirkpatrick, W. Pritchard, G. Price and others. After giving three hearty cheers for Mr. Macaulay and singing "God Save the Queen" the company dispersed.
 One of the most delightful dances given this summer was that of the Misses Parks, Mount Pleasant, on Thursday evening, when they were "at home" to a large number of their friends. Harrison's orchestra was present and rendered a choice programme of dances. Among those present were Miss Agnes Warner, Miss L. Gilbert, Miss Fielders, Miss Tuck, Miss Helen Cowan, Miss Jennie Hall, Miss Carr (Woodstock), Miss Romans, Miss Macrae, Miss Vroom, Miss Outram, Miss Grace McMillan, Miss Helen Seely, Miss Emma Robert-

 There will be an entertainment at St. Paul's Sunday school, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week. The programme will consist of music, etc. Readings and historical tableaux will be presented. Particular pains have been taken in preparing the costumes, and it is thought they will be the best ever given in that Sunday school, which has always been celebrated for its tableaux.

Miss Lena Kelley, who has been visiting friends in Marysville returned home on Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connor left on Tuesday evening for Kingston, Ontario, where they will reside. On Monday evening Mr. Connor's friends entertained him at supper at the International cafe. After justice had been done to the supper, the usual toasts were proposed and responded to. Mr. John Kelly was chairman, and in proposing the toast to Mr. Connor, he made a few remarks bearing upon his departure, and on behalf of those present, presented him with a handsome gold ring. Mr. Connor replied in an appropriate manner, thanking his friends for their token of remembrance and assuring them that their kind words and expressions of good will would long have a place in his memory.
 Mr. George Gilbert and Mrs. Ruth E. Girvan, widow of the late James Girvan, of Chatham, were married very quietly at St. John (Stone) church at an early hour Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. de Soyres. The bride was given away by Mr. William Girvan, and wore a pretty blue travelling suit. Only the personal friends of the bride and groom were present. "MEAT AND MORALS."

Day by day it is becoming more apparent that improperly prepared food has a pernicious influence upon all classes through all the various relations of life, and that good cookery is a power which should be recognized and acknowledged by all, for we believe in the intimate relation between what a bright woman called "Meat and Morals."

But it is impossible to have good cookery without good and pure materials. If Spices or Flavoring are required in any of your cookery use only our Absolutely Pure Spices, C. Tartar and Flavorings. They are the purest and strongest, and will give you the best possible results. Ask your Grocer for them and insist upon having them. DEARBORN & CO.

 DEAR SIR,—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPE JUICE during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs we have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.
 Yours, JAMES H. DAY, Day's Landing, Kings Co.
