Equal to the Occasion.

The story was told by one of Lord Zetland's party when on a tour through the "distressful country" during Lord Zetland's viceroyalty. The party was crossing a lake, a full gale was blowing and the waves were dashing over the boat. The gentleman in question, having been assured that an Irishman, if treated well, will agree with what is said to him rather than appear disagreeable, thought the occasion a good Mrs. Robt. McNeill, who has been visiting in one to put the assertion to proof. Accordingly, he went up to one of the boatmen and said: "There is very little wind, Pat." Like a flash came the answer, which had to be shouted to over-top the howling of the elements: "Very little, indeed, yer honor; but fwat there is is moighty sthrong."

NOW TAKES THE LEAD.

2 HE No. 4 Machine acknowledged to possess all the features of a perfect WRITING MACHINE. See what some of the users of the OLD STYLE "YOST" machines say of them. he se are but samples of many other equally strong endorsements.

ST. JOHN, N. B., 3rd July, 1894. IRA CORNWALL, Esq., Agent "YOSI TYPEWRITING MACHINE."

Saint John, N. B. Dear Sir: I beg to say that I have been using the old style "YOST," which I purchased from you in August, 1891, constantly ever since that time. During a portion of that time the machine was required to do heavy work in connection with the revision of the electoral lists of the Saint John districts, under the Dominion Franchise Acts, and for the rest of the time has been used for the ordinary work of a law office. Up to the present moment the machine has not cost me one cent for repairs, and seems to be still in perfectly good condition. The writers who have worked on my "YOST" have been unstinted in their approval. My own personal use of it leads me to regard it with the highest favor. The valuable features of the "YOST" are lightness strength, durability, simplic ity, quick and direct action of the type-bar, perfect al ignment and absolute economy. I have not examined the later editions of the 'YOST" but although I am nformed they have many mprovements on the old style machine, am at a loss to understand how they can be very much better for ordinary practical purposes. Yours very truly, E. T. C. ANOWLES,

G neral Insurance Ag't., The New "YOST" far surpasses the machines referred to above, and the No. 4 has many entirely new features. The Yost is by far the cheapest Writing Machine, because it is the most economical in respect to INKING SUPPLIES, REPAIRS, DURABILITY, EASE OF LEARNING, EASE OF ACTION, SIZE, WEIGHT, BEAUTY OF WORK, SPEED, ETC., ETC.

The Hygiene of Laughter.

It has been aptly said that there is not the remotest corner of the inlet of minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelet from the convulsions occasioned by good, hearty laughter. The life principle of the central man is shaken to its innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein. The blood moves more rapidly, and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body, as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing, from what it does at other times. For this reason every good, hearty laugh, in which a person indulges, tends to lengthen his life, conveying as it does new and distinct stimulants to the vital forces.
